COURT MATTERS, ETC.

Judge Merritt Takes a Shot at the Law and Motion Calendar.

A NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS.

Damage Suit for $25,000 Against the Pleasant Valley Coal Company.

Judge Merritt held court this morning and took up cases on the law and motion calendar. Nothing of any special importance transpired.

The case of Rebecca R. Carter vs Salt Lake Building & Loan Association (demurrer to complaint) was passed to the foot of the calendar.

Wm. Gerege vs W. H. Dodge et al. Motion for injunction and appointment of receiver. The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys Gerald Jackson and F. S. Richards, and the defendant by Attorney W. H. Dickson. In the outset the defendant's attorney objected to the hearing of the motion at this time, and considerable time was spent in argument upon this point.

Eventually the arguments on the motion itself were reached and the court took them under advisement.

Joseph Conrads et al vs the Driver Mercantile company. In this case judgment was entered in accordance with the remittitur of the Territorial supreme court.

The accounts of U. S. Marshal Brigham were submitted by Assistant District Attorney Howat and approved.

S. F. Walker vs S. W. Morrison et al. Cross-complaint dismissed on motion of defendant's attorney.

William Roberts vs Caroline E. Leach et al. Motion to strike out part of amended complaint and demurrers to amended complaint. By consent case passed to foot of the calendar.

DAMAGES LAID AT $25,000.

A damage suit for $25,000 was filed in the Third district court this morning on behalf of Margaret Haycock, administratrix of the estate of Joseph Haycock, deceased, against the Pleasant Valley Coal company.

The deceased was a resident of Emery county and employed by the defendants in their coal mine at Castle Gate. It is stated that on February 13, 1894, he was engaged hauling coal along the track, which, it is alleged, was carelessly and negligently constructed and out of repair, when the car was overturned, and Haycock, falling underneath, sustained such severe injuries that he died immediately afterwards. Further, it is claimed that the car and its equipments were in an unsafe condition. Deceased was 29 years of age and his parents were dependent upon him for support.

Powers and Straup are the plaintiff's attorneys.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

Judge Merritt yesterday appointed Judges Howat and Powers and Attorney Bishop Ferguson a committee to examine as to the legal qualifications of Mr. J. H. Murphy, an applicant for admission to the bar of the Third district court. The examination took place this morning and Mr. Murphy successfully passed the ordeal. Later in the day, on the committee's recommendation, the gentleman was accepted by the court. Mr. Murphy has been engaged in the office of Judge Cochran, in this city, for some months.

NATURALIZATIONS.

The following were naturalized in Judge Merritt's court this morning: Otto Hyonnen and Hans Hylander, natives of Sweden; Samuel Simpson, an Englishman, and George S. Bell, an Irishman. They are all residents of Salt Lake.

ATTORNEYS, ATTENTION.

Chief Justice Merritt held a brief consultation with Assistant District Attorney Howat upon the opening of court this morning, with reference to the trials of criminal cases of the September term. The prosecuting attorney thought he would be ready to begin work on the criminal calendar on Monday, September 24th, but said that his arrangements would, in a large measure, depend upon the grand jury.

Judge Merritt remarked that he was anxious to consult the convenience of the bar, and with a view of having an understanding as to the order of business, his honor said he would like all attorneys interested to be present in court next Saturday morning to talk the matter over with him.

GONE TO ST. GEORGE.

Judge Bartch is now on his way to St. George, where he will hold court upon his arrival. He may be absent for some time.

PROBATE.

Only one case came up before Judge Blair in the probate court today. Hearing was had on annual account in the matter of the estate of John Sharp Sr., deceased, and an order was made approving and allowing the same.

STILL UNDER CONSIDERATION.

Governor West has given no decision yet in regard to the fate of Enoch Davis, the Vernal wife murderer.

THE ALLEGED BULLION STEAL.

It was expected that Charles Carter, charged with having unlawfully appropriated $1,639 worth of gold bullion from the Cave Spring Consolidated Gold Mining company, at Gold Hill, on May 15th, would be arraigned in Commissioner Pratt's court this morning, but he was not brought up.

Michael Fitzgerald has commenced attachment proceedings against Carter in the Third district court to collect $1,000, alleged to be due on a promissory note.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE LYCEUM.—There was a good deal of fun aboard Captain O'Malley's long, low, rakish piratical craft last evening. It seems that Lawyer Ferguson is going ahead with his suit for damages against Mr. O'Malley, but to establish the fact that Frohman's Charley's Aunt and O'Malley's College Chums are one and the same thing, he sent the stenographic reporter Mr. Marioneaux to the Lyceum to take down the dialogue of the last named piece. While he was at work he was perceived by Mr. O'Malley, who immediately stopped proceedings and denounced the reporter from the stage. There was a good deal of excitement for a few minutes, and had Mr. Marioneaux been a spy at a secret meeting of a Fenian society the air could not have been bluer with strings of Celtic ejaculations. First, Mr. O'Malley said he would put Mr. Marioneaux out; that gentleman answered that he had better not try it; then Mr. O'Malley seemed disposed to reflect about the matter and was going on with the performance, when some of the audience, who did not want to be disappointed of the fun they had come out to see yelled "Put him out!" At this Mr. O'Malley began to doff the attire of Charley's aunt or cousin, and what the gory consequences might have been had not Mr. Marioneaux taken up his hat and walked out—one trembles to contemplate. From all rumors, the fun has merely been adjourned until this evening, when the advertising Mr. O'Malley has very cleverly worked up can be relied on to fill his house.

Meeting of City Teachers.

The first general meeting of the city teachers for the ensuing school year will be held in the high school room on Saturday, Sept. 8th, at 9:30 a. m.

The summer school at Brigham City closes tomorrow. Prof. Stewart goes from there to conduct an official institute in Carbon county, on Monday next.

Street vs Morrison.

In the case of John A. Street vs Seth W. Morrison et al, Judge Merritt this afternoon granted leave to amend the decree previously entered, the United States marshal to make sale instead of the sheriff.

Book and Stationery Co.

The Western Book & Stationery company has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The incorporators are Joseph L. Barrow, Martha Barrow, S. J. Pembroke and S. L. Pembroke, of Salt Lake, and P. J. Cornelius, of Park City. Joseph L. Barrow subscribes for 1996 shares of the capital stock and the others to one share each. The capital stock is placed at $20,000, divided into 4,000 shares of the par value of $5 each. The officers are Joseph L. Barrow, president; S. J. Pembroke, vice president; J. L. Barrow, treasurer; and S. L. Pembroke, secretary. The company will carry on a general book, stationery, toy, etc., business at No. 18 west First South street.

Visitors To Salt Lake.

Prof. J. M. Simpson, principal of Deer Lodge schools, Montana, and Judge Armstrong, of Bozeman, Montana, are on a visit to Salt Lake. Both gentlemen are intimate friends of Attorney J. A. Riley, of this city, who has been showing them around. Judge Armstrong's wife and daughter will remain here during the winter.

Miss Hersick's Reading.

Miss Ethel Hornick, of Boston, will give another of her delightful and interesting readings at the Theater tomorrow night. She was heard here last year and her abilities and charming personal presence made many friends for her at that time who will turn out in goodly numbers to greet her on this occasion. The entertainment will be made doubly interesting by the appearance of Miss Viola Pratt. There will be other attractions in the persons of Mrs. Greer, Miss Utter, Professor Clive and Professor Krouse.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Deseret Hospital at the office of Woman's Exponent on Monday, September 10th, at 4 p.m. A prompt attendance is requested.

E. B. WELLS,
Secretary.

English newspapers in the days when advertisements were heavily taxed published the titles of books reviewed in their columns, but never the prices, because the stamp office held that an announced price was an advertisement and as such taxable. The custom continued for a long time after the tax on advertisements had been removed.

The London newspapers also made a distinction between a simple notice of a death, for which they charged 3 shillings, and a brief obituary, for which they demanded seven and sixpence.

One day Dr. Thomas Hume, a grave, satirical London doctor, called at the office of a morning journal and silently placed upon the counter the announcement of the death of a friend, together with 3 shillings. The clerk glanced at the paper, tossed it to one side and said gruffly, "Seven and six."

"I have frequently," answered Hume, "had occasion to publish these simple notices, and I have never before been charged more than 3 shillings."

"Simple!" repeated the clerk with an incisive tone. "There's an added line, 'universally beloved and deeply regretted,' isn't there? Seven and six."

Hume produced the additional half crown and laid it deliberately by the others, observing in his most solemn tone, "Congratulate yourself, sir, that this is an expense which your executors will never be put to."—Youth's Companion.

REPUBLICANS MEET.

Salt Lake County Delegates in a Convention.

PRELIMINARY TO PROVO'S WORK.

George B. Squires, Chairman, F. B. Platt, Secretary of the Temporary Organization.

Two o'clock this afternoon was the time set for the meeting of the Salt Lake County Republican convention, called to send 33 delegates to the Territorial convention to be held at Provo on the 11th inst. The place for assemblage was the old Federal court room in the Wasatch block.

At 2:15 Hon. W. F. James, chairman of the county committee, called the delegates to order, and requested the various precincts to form in specified locations in the hall. This was done.

On the roll call Mountain Dell and Riverton precincts were not represented.

Mr. James stated the object of the meeting, calling the attention of the delegates to the importance of the duty placed on them, of selecting delegates to Provo, to choose a nominee for delegate to Congress, a man whom all can work for, and who will be elected. The central committee also should be representative of the party, headed by a capable man. This convention should deal justly by Salt Lake and all other counties. The people should be represented, and justice be done on every hand, and the Republican party be triumphant in November.

Mr. James had a statement read from the secretary and treasurer of the county Republican committee.

Geo. M. Cannon presented the secretary's statement, which told of the organization of the party throughout the county, and showed that the Republicans had at least 1,500 majority in the county. The registration had been larger than was anticipated. No headquarters had been opened, but the work had been going on, very little money having been expended.

S. H. Hill read the treasurer's report from Oct. 31, 1892. Receipts to March 21, 1893, $1,230.00. Disbursements to March, 1894, $1,153.85. Receipts since Aug., 1893, $190.85. Disbursements $5. Balance on hand $148.87.

Mr. James then named George B. Squires, of Bingham, as temporary chairman of the convention.

Chairman Squires thanked the convention for the honor conferred on him. He felt that in November the Republicans would ascertain that Bingham was still the "old reliable." If every precinct works as well as Bingham would, he had no doubt the next delegate to Congress would be a Republican.

F. B. Platt was named as temporary secretary and read the call for the convention, consisting of 257 delegates.

M. M. Kaighn moved that a committee of credentials be appointed, one from each precinct.

Frank Pierce moved that the committee consist of seven, one from each city precinct, and two from the county.

The amendment was carried.

The chair appointed Frank Pierce, First precinct; A. W. Haywood, Second precinct; A. S. Gedden, Third precinct; Levi Axtell, Fourth precinct; L. D. B. Thompson, Fifth precinct; Mr. Ferry, Sandy precinct, and F. L. Cushing, Bingham precinct, as a committee on credentials.

A committee on permanent organization and order of business, consisting of nine members, five from the city and four from the county, were named as follows: Sam. J. Kenyon, H. G. Bolton, W. L. Dykes, H. G. McMillan, F. L. Ritchie, J. A. J. Williams, Joseph Stratton, Tom Ferguson and John A. Sharp.

J. J. Greenwald moved that a committee of nine be appointed, five from Salt Lake, one from Bingham and three from the county. The motion was thrown out as not being in order.

An adjournment was then taken pending the reports of the committees.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - SEPT. 6, 1894.

Dog Fighters in Contempt.

Yesterday afternoon directly under the windows of the Fourth district court room a brutal dog fight occurred. A large crowd gathered to witness the combat. Both dogs were cut and bitten in a horrible manner. Judge Smith was holding court at the time, and he instructed the deputy marshal to arrest the owners of the dogs. Deputy Ballantyne arrested James K. Wadman and S. E. Detreck, who claimed the ownership of the animals, and took them before Judge Smith who after hearing their statement ordered the clerk to enter the following order:

James K. Wadman and S. E. Detreck having been engaged in promoting a dog fight in the immediate view and presence of the court and while the court was in session, they are both adjudged guilty of wilful contempt of court and they are each fined $25 and stand committed till said fine is paid.

The marshals have been instructed to arrest others that encouraged the fight.

Notes.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to James Wylie, 30, and Mrs. Annie M. Maxwell, 28.

Yesterday the jury returned a verdict of suicide in the case of the man found lying dead on the Rio Grande track about three weeks ago.

Sheriff Belnap left last night for New York to bring back ex-Treasurer Heitrich.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - SEPT. 6, 1894.

Fourth District Court.

In accordance with the proclamation of the Governor, the September term of the Fourth district court commenced its session here on Tuesday morning, Judge W. H. King presiding. So far only three civil cases have been actually tried, but several where only points of law were involved have been disposed of and others continued for the term. The Bible trouble over the furniture for the court and chamber was satisfactorily disposed of by the county court, which ordered the bills paid.

The Agricultural College.

On Tuesday morning the sound of the bell at the Agricultural college was heard for the first time since last spring. Students commenced to flock into Logan on Sunday evening, and every train has added to the number. It is expected that the attendance this year will be larger than ever before.

Spraying of Trees.

The report submitted to the county court yesterday by Prof. Hickman, tree inspector for Cache county, makes a very satisfactory showing of the results of spraying. Where the work was intelligently performed and the law fully complied with, worms are almost impossible to find in orchards which formerly were so badly infested as to render the fruit almost worthless.

On Pleasure Bent.

W. S. McCornick, J. C. Taylor, S. H. Hooper and D. L. Cable, all of Salt Lake, arrived in Logan on Monday evening, and on Tuesday morning started for a hunting, fishing and pleasure trip up Logan canyon.

The B. Y. College.

The preparatory department of the B. Y. College will open on the 17th.

Labor Day.

Labor Day was generally observed in Logan by the closing of the stores and cessation of business generally, but there were no meetings or demonstrations of any kind. In the evening a grand ball was given at the Thatcher.

Accident to a Child.

Wallace, a little son of H. W. Sloan, fell from a tree on George W. Thatcher's premises, and broke two of the bones of the elbow joint.

Glee Club.

A glee club has been organized by twelve of the best male voices in Cache county. Many of the members belonged to the once famous Sage Brush glee club. Prof. Fagelberg will be musical instructor and conductor.
