A LEAF OF MY JOURNAL.

An Interesting Record of Conference and Kindred Events in New Zealand.

TAKAHIWAI, New Zealand, Oct. 25, 1895.—Cloudy and stormy. Your correspondent in company with the native Saints of this place are anxiously waiting the arrival of Saints from adjacent branches, as tomorrow is the day appointed for our district conference.

Our waiting has not been in vain, for about 5 p. m. the arrival of President Gardner, Elders J. H. W. Goff, C. H. Bartlett, Jos. Markham and a company of native Maori Saints was announced by one of the native sisters who welcomed them from a distance in the old familiar style, "E Hoare mai Hoare mai."

After shaking hands and rubbing noses till all were quite satisfied, a warm nourishing supper was served out in earthen dishes and a nice white cloth spread upon the floor served as our tables, supper over and the remainder of the day was spent talking with old friends whom we had not seen for a long time.

At 7 p. m. the bell rolled the hour for Karakia, which consisted of a hymn, chapter from the scriptures and prayer, at the close of which the natives of this place arose and greeted their guests and the Elders; natives in turn responding according to Maori singing and all apparently peace happy, especially did the Saints' countenances assume a cheerful glow while our worthy president, Brother Gardner was speaking in reply to these many speeches of welcome and respect to him, as he referred to his first visit to this village and the fond remembrances of the past in connection with those Saints, he being the first to convey the glad message of great joy and admonisher to ordinances unto them.

About 10 p.m. lunch was prepared and we partook of the same freely, after which small crowds gathered in different parts of the building, sang hymns and talked, at a late hour all retired to rest. About 3 o'clock a.m. our peaceful slumbers were disturbed by the arrival of Brother Andrew Jensen and Saints who left Whangarei per boat but had been delayed very much, calling on friends at Graham's town, and inconvenience rendered from the tide and darkness of the night. Beds were soon prepared and all retired to the arms of Morpheus.

Saturday morning October 26, still raining, 7 a.m. all assembled for morning karakia, breakfast. About 9:45 a.m. the people began gathering in our white karakia (meeting house) until the hour of service arrived, there were about sixty persons present.

Elder J. H. W. Goff, president of the Whangarei district, called the conference to order and gave out hymn page 94, President Wm. Gardner offered the opening prayer, sang from page 81.

Elder Goff then arose and made a few opening remarks, explaining the object of our gathering together and the importance of Elder Andrew Jenson's mission amongst us; closed his remarks by encouraging all to be firm in the good work we have started out in.

Historian Elder Andrew Jenson addressed us for about an hour, Elder Goff interpreting. He had brought a special greeting from the First Presidency of the Church and from each of the Twelve Apostles.

He spoke briefly on the early history of the Church and how the Gospel had been taken to the isles of the sea; of the islanders' great progress in industry, and delivered a special greeting from them to our New Zealand Saints, concluded after giving a short account of his travels from island to island.

Wiki Te Pirihi, one of the leading chiefs and president of the Takahiwai branch, arose and expressed his great joy in meeting with the Saints and Elders. He desired all to live their religion as he knew it was true.

Service commenced at 2 p. m. by singing from page 100, Koutou katea ra. Prayer by Kair Machael; hymn page 108.

Elder Chas. H. Bartlett, president of the Bay of Islands district, addressed us for about an hour on Church organization, showing that Prophets are indispensable officers of the Church of Christ; quoted from 1 Cor. xii, 27—31; also gave us the key whereby we might know true and false prophets.

Te Taiona, a native, and counselor of the Te Hoto branch, expressed his joy at being present; encouraged all to be faithful. The world call us the new church; it is not new, but the old Church of Christ revealed again to the children of men, and I know it to be true.

Elder Thos. Finlayson, president of the Kerepehi branch of Opawahanga, said he was pleased to meet with the Saints and mingle his voice with the rest of them. He dwelt a short time on the principle of tithing, showing how he had been blessed since practicing that principle, to the end that he is about to obey another one of God's great commandments, which is gathering out from Babylon.

Evening services called to order at 7 p.m. Sang from page 136. Hoani Taniwi Pita offered prayer. Singing. Harmewera, Maori Elder and president of the Te Hoto branch, spoke a short time on the fall of Adam; quoted from Romans v, 12-19, and bore a strong testimony to the truthfulness of the Gospel.

Elder Jos. Markham, of the Bay of Islands district, was next spoken. He showed how many different creeds there were all claiming to be true followers of Christ; quoted Eph. iv, 4. Encouraged all to be faithful as he knew Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God.

The following speaker, a Maori, Kaumoana, president of the Hora Hora branch, spoke briefly encouraging all to be faithful and give heed to the teachings of the Elders, as he knew this doctrine is true.

President Wm. Gardner said it gave him great pleasure to see so many gathered together on this occasion. He spoke briefly on the Book of Mormon showing how the Savior called the Apostles on the Western continent. Said it was Book of Mormon was wrong then Joseph Smith was a false prophet; he knew of thousands that testimony that it is true, and that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God. The speaker encouraged all to be firm to the truth.

About 10 p. m. lunch was prepared after which we sang and talked till a late hour when all retired to rest.

Sunday, 27th—Cloudy and stormy. Toilet and the bell rung for morning service and the people assembled. After devotional exercises we had a recess till about 10 a.m. when all assembled again for worship.

Meeting called to order and sang from page 69, Wiki Te Pirihi offered prayer; continued by singing (same page) 170, Ka haere mai a Iho.

Henare Te Pirihi, native of Takahiwai, spoke briefly on the duties of the Saints. Quoted from James 5 14-20; says he knew the Gospel was true.

P. H. C. Going, of the Opawahanga branch, spoke (Bartlett interpreting.) He said he felt pleased to be present with so many Saints and wished all to live in the teachings of the Elders as they are just as binding to us as were Peter's and Paul's in their day.

Eru Hewett, a Maori, also counselor of the Te Hoto branch, expressed his joy at being present and desired to be faithful as he knew the Gospel was true.

Elder Andrew Jenson spoke through an interpreter impressing upon all the necessity of keeping one's own name; said the day would come when we could trace our genealogy right back to Father Adam and Mother Eve. He showed how we came into possession of the holy Priesthood, quoted Matthew 16, and referred how Peter, James and John appointed to Joseph Smith and conferred upon him the holy Priesthood. Closed his remarks by invoking the blessings of the Lord upon all.

Sang hymn No. 104 and H. B. Hales offered benediction.

Afternoon services began by singing hymn 22, Ha, ka pule mai a Ihu; prayer by Thomas Finlayson; continued singing No. 192.

One child was blessed and Tetohe Heuhana was ordained to be ordained a Priest.

The sacrament was administered by Elders Goff and Hales.

Pres. Wm. Gardner spoke very encouragingly to all; quoted 1 Cor. 12; also showed how the Gospel was taken from the earth and again restored, Rev. 14, 6-7; closed his remarks by asking God to bless all that we may enter at the straight gate.

Your respondent spoke briefly on the coming forth of the Book of Mormon and quoted from Ezek. 37, 15-20, Psalms 85, 11, Is. 45, 8-19, showing how it was delivered to Joseph Smith.

A Maori from Wonganui Hoani Tautahi Pita, president of the same, reported his branch as being in good condition, and bore a strong testimony to the truth of the Gospel.

Singing from page 105. Tetara Te Pirihi dismissed.

Evening services commenced by singing hymn No. 18; prayer by Henare Te Pirihi; continued by singing No. 91.

Hoani Hoshiana, Maori of Takahiwai, said he felt good to be present and bore a faithful testimony.

Maui Te Pirihi, a young Maori of the same place, greeted all; said he felt well in the Gospel and desired to live his religion; closed by bearing testimony that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God.

Elder Jensen spoke of the angel appearing to Joseph Smith and instructing him concerning the work the Lord was about to perform, and later how Moro appeared to him and showed the keys of the gathering to him, also Elijah, "to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the children to the fathers." The speaker stated he had enjoyed himself very much the few days he was here.

Te Haitana, a Maori from Te Hoto, greeted all who had gathered together. He quoted from Luke 12, and Deut. 4, 27, and he knew the Gospel was true. Sang hymn No. 185.

President Gardner got up to greet the people before leaving and delivered a powerful sermon upon the duties of Saints; told them to be humble, as the evil one is ever about, trying to lead astray the children of God. James 4, 7-8. He closed his remarks by invoking the blessings of God on all.

Continued by singing hymn No. 133 Kahore rai kaoei, He waai rumaa mow. Benediction by Brother P. Nordstrand.

Thus closed another very successful conference in the north, all feeling highly paid up its effect.

Monday 27—All were very busily engaged preparing to return to their fields of labor, some looking for horses others were rolling blankets, etc., etc.

President Wm. Gardner and Historian Andrew Jenson left on the Wellington for Auckland, other Elders and Saints going to different parts, all feeling encouraged in the good work of the glorious plan of life and salvation.

HIRAM B. HALES,
Secretary of Conference.

Handling Surplus Honey.

In handling the heavy surplus arrangements full of finished honey on the simplicity hives, an Iowa contributor to The American Bee Journal uses a "bench screw elevator."

It has four three-eighth inch rods bent in at the bottom rods and hung to the four corners of a frame. This simple and cheap contrivance has been a source of comfort and a saving of much heavy lifting. The ease with which it can be manipulated and the surprise it causes the bees as seeing their queen's surplus sour immediately without apparent cause, would bring a smile on a sourer face. It profits to a full case raised that scarcely a bee ever leaves the cellar to interview the delighted operator. Nor protested.

If will be rare news to the Pioneer Boots, 105 res. Main, J. M. Marcuse, P. O. Only 10 cents for 10 days.

Stop! You have just as much laid aside for Xmas presents. Jensen, the Jeweler, can fill that want.
