THE STRIKE A FAILURE.

Sweeney Finally Recognizes the Fact and Admits It.

BETHLEHEM, Aug. 24.—At midnight tonight, head of the switchmen's strike, officially recognized the fact that the strike movement of the switchmen of which was begun twelve days ago was declared off. The men will, beginning at daylight, be notified by local officials that they now are at liberty to go back to their places if they can. A meeting of the executive committee of the Knights of Labor was held today at Easton, and among those who were present were Master Workman Arthur and Master Workman Sweeney of the district assembly. The conference broke up about 7 o'clock. Sweeney presided at once to a conference with the representatives of the press and the proceedings lasted until after 11 o'clock. The representatives of the press were called into a small room adjoining the conference chamber and to them Mr. Sweeney announced that the conference had been reached by duly authorized representatives of the switchmen, to the effect that it was to the effect that the strike ended at midnight tonight.

The word was carried out toward the last Buffalo yards at once by runners who had before down the line with the news that it was at liberty again to work wherever they can.

SWITCHES WILL BE REPLACED.

It is estimated by Arbitration Commissioner Donovan, who called upon railway officials in behalf of the men that nearly fifty per cent of the strike switchmen will be employed, chiefly the people who by specially chosen, local militia being left to crush such protection as may be necessary.

Work of the Christian Endeavor Societies.

Those who say there is nothing new under the sun would be easily put to it to find two counterparts of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society. When before this year of grace has the north thrilled to the tread of 1,200,000 young people bound together under a single pledge? Nothing like it. Public is ready for anything a brand new sort. Not so much the novelty as the substance of the pledge. Read it and pay every day, to take part in every prayer meeting, support their own church and engage in active Christian enterprises. There's a new aspect of young America for you! Young America! I should rather say Young World.

It may be thought that Christianity is amenable to the sufficient answer to the jeering of 1,200,000 young people marching with the early rising of Christ's Kingdom and with the buoyancy of youth. Joy and fun are our Christian liberty, his disciples. "Alas! no, the deluge." Trust enthusiasm for Christian, honest, earnest faith. Look at the young people in religious societies of this kind and you will have no fear for the church of the future in their hands.

To see what follows all this it is to be hoped attention to that there are souls who never heard of the Christian Endeavor movement, who do not know how, only eleven years ago last February, from the humble of a revival in a church in Maine, an earnest pastor and faithful people, have established the new period of the church's empire, the Christian Endeavor plans. What was attractive about it? Where was the power? It was a simple thing, a little thing, the uniform, the rules and mottos, the glitter and poetry that all the world can appreciate and understand. Nothing if not popular of the kind, nothing popular if it be so long after the world was ready for it. The movement is profound gratitude for the new ritual brought with show whether it is a sufficient improvement over the present one to be adopted by the supreme lodge. The report of the committee is to be finally acted upon tonight.

Tomorrow the supreme lodge will elect officers for the coming two years. Supreme Chancellor Shaw will retire with the distinction of the most supreme chancellor. He will be succeeded by William Worth Blackwell, of Kentucky, now supreme vice-chancellor. Present supreme vice-chancellor Walter B. Ritchie of Iowa, is supreme representative from the State, and R. T. Blackmer of San Diego, Cal., supreme judge of the supreme lodge, are candidates. Well informed Pythians say that Ritchie will be chosen tomorrow and his years hence he will become supreme chancellor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—The publication announced now about hope that a passenger on the steamship "Australia" which sailed from Honolulu here said that it seems that the Louisiana Lottery company had agents in Honolulu, the object being to obtain a charter from the Hawaiian legislature.
