A MIGHTY INSTITUTION.

Z. C. M. I. Stockholders Hold Their Annual Meeting Today.

Report of the President as to the Business Done Last Year and the Prospects for the Future.

The stockholders' meeting of Zion's Cooperative Mercantile Institution was held in the institution's office today, Monday, April 6th, at noon. There was a full representation of stockholders present.

The principal business before the meeting was the president's twenty-seventh annual report, which was read by the secretary. It states that the sales during 1895 were $197,575.14 more than they were the year previous, upwards of one hundred and fifty new lines of wares have been marketed at remunerative figures; but the dried fruit market has been very dull and prices have ruled low. It is probable that unless the fruit growers of this state take more care, and put up a better grade of dried fruit, their market will be an extremely limited one; as the California evaporator dried fruit, while not as flavored as our own, is put up in a much more attractive manner and commands a ready sale. In the Z. C. M. I. factories have been manufactured 75,000 pairs of boots and shoes, and 18,000 pairs of overalls and shirts. There was paid for freight and express charges during the year $135,722.97, 2 a cash receipts have been $4,868,913.46. Nearly all departments have done well.

On the 5th of October last the old corporation would have expired by limitation of law. On the 20th of September a new corporation was formed, and out of 10,770 shares, 10,074 were represented personally or by proxy in the new corporation. The term for which the institution is now incorporated is fifty years from the 20th of September, 1895. The regular business was not interrupted for a single day, as the books of the old corporation were closed, and the balances carried forward to the new on the same evening and night.

Hereafter there will be but one meeting of stockholders annually, on the 5th of April of each year.

The profits for the year ending the last year's business have been $121,918.06. A dividend of four per cent was declared for the last year ending April 5th.

In conclusion the President's report states that there has been abundant cause for thankfulness for the prosperity of the institution. The few past years have been trying ones for all engaged in business, and many have succumbed to the pressure of the times; but with the blessings of a kind and merciful Providence, the patronage and consideration of its friends and customers, the institution has succeeded in earning a fair return upon the capital invested, and enters upon the first year of its reincorporation period thankful for past favors, and with confident expectations of greater success in store.

The election of officers and directors will be held this year. The new corporation provides that the officers shall serve until April, 1897, when the annual election will be held.

FROM THE SOUTH.

Elders Holt and Leishenberg Return And Report Their Labors While Absent.

Elders William M. Holt of South Jordan and F. F. Leishenberg of Logan gave the NEWS a call this morning and reported their return from the Southern States mission field, whither they went on December 16, 1893. The former labored the greater part of his time in the Mississippi conference, and the latter spent all his time there. They have nothing but words of the highest praise for the people residing in that state and the treatment they have received has greatly encouraged them in their labors.

Elder Holt has been in the Louisiana conference since its opening on October 8, 1895, he having gone there in company with Elder William A. Kerr of Ogden, commencing the work of the ministry in the city of New Orleans. The prospects for the spread of the gospel in that state are very encouraging, the citizens taking kindly to the Mormon missionaries and treating them with much respect. The results attained speak very highly of the young Elders now out in the field and state that they are doing much good among the people. Elders Holt and Leishenberg were with Elder Barton at Kaplville when the death occurred some time ago in McCombs county, Miss. They return in the best of health.

Pottery Building Query.

A NEWS correspondent, whose name and address are T. Jones Davidson, No. 125 Minerva street, East Liverpool, Columbiana county, Ohio, writes, "Is there any talk or prospect of building a pottery in Salt Lake. Being a potter myself, skilled in all the branches of the business, I would like to know." It might be well for any person or persons interested to communicate with the writer at the address given in his query in the NEWS.

Important to Missionaries.

The brethren who have been called on missions will please report, to be set apart, at the usual time of the Temple session tomorrow, Tuesday, at two o'clock p. m.

The missionaries will please call at the Historian's office in the morning previous to being set apart, to give in their genealogies.

THE Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

A Very Large and Notable Gathering Assembles at the Theater.

Ministerial opposition apparently gave the Y. M. C. A. sixth annual meeting a tremendous impetus for when the Theater doors opened shortly after 7 o'clock last night it was upon a crowd of people that would very nearly if not quite have filled two such buildings. The crush was such that personal locomotion at times was rendered impossible and the aid of several officers of the police force had to be invoked. Heating and standing room were alike taken from the most remote part of the place to the topmost bench in the upper circle.

The meeting was commenced by the rendition of the Coronation song and the reading of a Scripture lesson by the Rev. Clarence C. Brown. The Rev. E. G. Hunt then offered prayer, after which Elder B. H. Roberts of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was introduced with the announcement that his theme would be, The Influence of the Christian Young Man in Business and Public Life.

The subject was earnestly and ably handled, and at times the rather unusual demonstration—for a religious gathering—of applause-giving, was freely indulged in. The difference between the Christian young man and the young man who is not a Christian was clearly shown, and the influence of the two types pointed out.

The annual report of the association was given by Secretary Adams, and hymns were sung in admirable style and most feeling by the world famous Mackay and Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins.

A call for the subscription of money to liquidate the association's indebtedness resulted in the raising of $1,775.

A Dividend Payer.

To the Editor:

The employees of the Salt Lake City Railroad have a mutual benefit association which tells in their report for the year just closed:

Cash received during the year	$1,202.25
Disbursements	1.00
Leaving a balance in treasury of	$ 201.25

On April 1st they paid each participant a dividend of $5.50 making the total dividend of $472.05, and leaving a balance in treasury of $278.45 which is large enough for a year's use.

GEORGE N. KIMBEY, Treasurer.

AMUSEMENTS.

The coming performances on Saturday afternoon and evening of the "American Girl" engagement at the Theater were what was to be expected when the verdict had gone out after the first night's performance of this play. The attendance at the matinee was enough to make an anxious manager, with salaries to pay, feel that life was not worth the living. The evening performance was more liberally patronized, but this fact was not due to any merit the company possessed, for there are numbers of people who attend Conference with a portion of their hard earning saved up to spend in amusing themselves when they come to town, and this partially averted the frost that was predicted at the matinee for the evening performances.

The week opens to-night with Mr. Richard Mansfield in "Beau Brummell at the Theater, "Quincas" at the Grand, "Midge" at the Lyceum, and the concert at the Tabernacle. Mr. Mansfield has been seen before here, and the public are anticipating a treat in his rendition of "Beau Brummell." He will arrive today soon with his entire New York Garrick Theatre Co. over the Rio Grande Western from Denver in a special train, consisting of his private car, two Pullman cars and three sixty-foot scenery and baggage cars. Tonight Beau Brummell, Tuesday night a Parisian Romance, Wednesday night Prince Karl and Thursday night Tom Story's Rochlin the Student. Mr. Mansfield will be supported during the engagement by his own New York Garrick Theater Street company—the organization which he had engaged for his Boston long season in the metropolis. In the company there are such well known players as that steadily grateful and winsome actress, Miss Beatrice Cameron, and Miss Jessie Eustace, Miss Christine Dempsey, Miss Elenor Carey, Miss Alice Lodge, Miss Florence Lloyd, Miss Harriet von Canahl, Miss Nora Lankes, Messrs. D. H. Harkins, Orrin Johnson, Edmund H. Hogan, A. G. Andrews, W. S. Griffith, J. W. Weaver, Louis Dutton, Kenneth Lee and others.

The Grand Music company's representation of Queen's Knight and continuing until Wednesday night will afford an opportunity to those who did not see this play to do so now. The cast includes Mr. Ingersoll, Mr. Webster, Mr. Edwards, Madge Carr Cook and the chorus of the original cast excepting Mr. Ward.

The farewell concert given by the choir in the Tabernacle just prior to their trip to California will no doubt draw a crowd tonight.

The Great Soap Factory.

Foremost in the ranks of home industry enterprises may be classed the Great Soap factory who turn out a goodly array of soap including toilet and laundry soaps, their latest production is the celebrated Hoe Hive laundry soap.
