OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, MAY 30, 1895.

Schools Closed.

Our public schools close today. Yesterday some of the scholars had their closing exercises, outside programs having been dropped. A rain in Ogden is the cause of the schools closing one month sooner than usual.

Sales.

George F. Barnhart, Jr., and Mrs. Amelia Jones, both of Farmington, Davis county, were married here by Judge Powers yesterday.

Yesterday the Lawrence Hotel had a fire on the third floor. The firemen got promptly to work and saved the building from destruction. The loss is covered by insurance.

The Utah Federation Clubs are holding their convention here. The interesting program for the first half was a most enjoyable affair. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. Emma J. McCune, president; Mrs. Ella Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. Lizzie Chambers, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Parker, treasurer. Members of clubs, consisting of Madame Anna Carlson, A. B. Pickard, G. R. Waite, G. P. Walker and W. C. Jennings, Fox and Mrs. Ambrose.

The issues of the commencement will be a still by the 16th dames. On Tuesday morning the graduating exercises will be held and degrees conferred, and in the evening a grand ball will be given.

The College has had a very successful year. The enrollment was larger than during any previous year, and the spirit of the institution is more good than ever.

Memorial Day.

Decoration day will be properly observed in Logan by a general assembly at the Agricultural college, which is the public building nearest to the cemetery. Rev. Dr. Hill of Salt Lake will deliver the address of memorial nature and the University choir will furnish appropriate music. The Logan and visiting members of the N. G. A. R. and the Logan Grenadiers will assemble in full uniform. At the conclusion of the exercises at the college all will adjourn to the cemetery, and decorate the graves of their dead. Prof. Paul has written a poem for the occasion.

Mining News.

Peter Gibbons has found a gold mine in Green canyon, near Hyrum. The mineral lies in pockets. He has had several assays, the highest showing $400 in gold to the ton.

The prospectors in Blacksmith Fork canyon have been joined by a number of parties from Salt Lake, Ogden and Brigham City, all of whom are pleased with the showing being made at the William Hyde silver mine, where there is an unlimited quantity of ore in sight.

Some fine copper has been found by Charles Wilson in the canyon. He has found one vein of red and white, and one of pure white ore.

Hurt in a Runaway.

A young man named Elsberry was badly hurt in a runaway near Bacchus, near Blacksmith Fork bridge, on the road between Hyrum and Logan. A long gash was cut in the boy's left eye. He received another and still longer cut just above the forehead, and his left shoulder was badly bruised. A runaway team passed Carl J. Chiesen and a young lady named Tolleson were also thrown out. Miss Tolleson was not hurt to allow of more injuries, but the lady escaped with but slight injury.
