PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Overpowered the Guard, Took His Gun and Clothes and Stole a Horse and Buggy.

Four convicts escaped from the State prison yesterday afternoon. Two escaped in broad daylight, and the other two had to remain in the prison for the night. The escape was effected by the prisoners taking the guard, who was alone, by surprise, and then locking him in a cell. The guard was then stripped of his clothing and left in the cell, while the four convicts made their way to the barn, where they secured a team and buggy belonging to the prison, and made their escape. The guard was found by the turnkey and released, and the alarm was sounded. The men took the buggy and proceeded up the canyon to a point about three miles from the prison, where they abandoned the buggy and took to the hills.

Mr. Van Hooker returned to the prison and gave the alarm, and a large number of men were soon on the trail of the escaped convicts. Word was also sent to Park City and other places in the county, and it was thought that the fugitives would have Jack Frank Edwards, W. H. Dixon (murder) David Jones and Harry Tracy, the three penitentiary birds at work with them, but made no attempt to get away. A reward of $50 has been offered for the capture of each of the runaways.

The men were all new recruits of the State prison, Edwards having been sentenced to ten years at Ogden on September 13th last. He also is Charles Oliver, the boy who killed Officer Dee. He is 5 feet 7 inches in height, weighs 154 pounds, has gray eyes and brown hair.

W. H. Dixon, the robbery, was sentenced to three years for robbery on April 9th last. He is 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighs 145 pounds.

Harry Tracy was sentenced at Provo on July 19th to one year for burglary. His complexion is light, with blue eyes and dark brown hair. He is 23 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighs 137 pounds.
