SALT LAKE TEAM BEAT EUREKA NINE

Game Lasted Ten Innings With Honors Even Most of The Way.

BOTH TEAMS MADE MANY HITS

The Final Score Was 16 to 14 in Favor Of Dan Hughey's Aggregation of Ball Tossers

The Eureka champions were beaten on their home grounds yesterday by Dan Hughey's Salt Lake aggregation of ball tossers, the score being 16 to 14 after ten innings of hard playing.

For seven innings the contest was good enough for anybody. After that there were many ragged spots, but the game was regarded as being a good one by the 2,000 or more happy fans assembled.

It was a game of many hits, many runs and many errors. Salt Lake made 16 runs, 17 hits and eight errors. Eureka got 14 runs, 18 hits and nine errors. From that it may be seen that the game included about everything known to the national pastime.

For five innings there was nothing to it but Eureka, and that team's supporters went wild with joy. At the end of the fifth the score was five to one in favor of the miners, but in the next inning Hughey's bunch got their big sticks and began to do things to Eureka's pitcher, Chivrell. They got seven large juicy hits, three being good for three bases and a two-bagger. At the end of the hit-feast Salt Lake was four runs to the good. Eureka got even in the seventh and made one besides. Everything was tied up in the ninth again. In the tenth Eureka began making errors rapidly and Salt Lake profited with four more runs.

The detailed score follows:

Park City Won.

The ball game at Park City yesterday between the Park City Juniors and the Utah team for the junior championship of the state, attracted a good sized crowd of fans. The Parkites won by a score of 11 to 10. The game was a good one all the way. It is the last of the season for Park City.

THE BIG FIGHT IS OFF.

County Attorney Christensen Stands Pat On His Decision.

The Wille-Ruhlin fight will not take place tomorrow night. Efforts are now being made to take the contest either to Provo or Ogden, but it is doubtful if this will be done as the fighters do not care to get into the ring for nothing.

County Attorney Christensen declares that the fight will not take place tomorrow night, that he will have everybody arrested who is connected with it. Billy Madden, Rublin's manager, says: "What's the use?" The chances are he will scoopack his belongings and depart for the east. Even if the contest were allowed to go on, he believes ther would not be nough money in the house to fight for. Wille feels the same.

So, although the advertising is out and paid for, and tickets have been delivered and forfeits up, the thing is practically off. It is likely that Bean will make a showing tomorrow night for the purpose of saving his forfeit. In fact, he says the bout will come off in private. Madden says it will not. But if Bean goes through with his part of the program, he believes he will save his forfeit money.

Your Heart

May Be Weak. One Person in Four Has a Weak Heart.

One of the surest signs of a weak heart is shortness of breath after exercise.

Your heart is not able to pump the blood fast enough to your lungs.

Some of the other symptoms of Heart Trouble are: Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulder; Fainting or Weak Spells; Dry Cough; Swelling of Feet and Ankles; Cold Feet or Hands.

No one can afford to allow a weak heart to go without medicine, because weak heart means poor circulation, and poor circulation means weak lungs, stomach, liver, kidneys, etc.

If, therefore, you suspect heart trouble, begin taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. The Heart Cure will do you good, as it is a splendid tonic for the blood and nerves, and will revitalize your entire system.

Finally, remember, Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold under a guarantee that the first bottle will do you good.

If it doesn't—your money back.

"I was afflicted with heart trouble for three years. I would be apparently all right, and without a moment's warning would fall as though shot. The attacks were frequent, and a terrible dread possessed me, as I never knew when or where, nor under what conditions I would be attacked, and whether I would survive them. I consulted and was treated by some of the most eminent physicians of the state. Not finding relief from this source, I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and began to improve at once. I used ten bottles, which entirely cured me, as I have not had an attack for five years."—MRS. JOHN DRESBACK, Leipsic, O.

HART AND GARDNEB.

Reported That the Pair Will Soon be Matched for Fight.

The following comes from Louisville, K.: Marvin Hart is training for a battle. He will box George Gardner within one month. The contest may be pulled off within three hours' ride of Louisville. If the present plans are carried out, an excursion train will leave Louisville at 5 o'clock in the afternoon for the ringside.

The men have fought twice. At the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Southern Athletic club, on May 13, 1903, Hart and Gardner hooked up for the first time. Gardner knocked Hart out in the twelfth round. At the time many people thought and some still believe, that the present champion quit that night. An X-ray picture showed that Hart's hand was broken.

On Jan. 5, 1904, Hart boxed George to a draw in Boston. The referee's decision was unpopular. Hart hammered Gardner from the four sides of the ring and bed him almost out. The Louisville fighter's roughhouse style made a great hit with the Hub sports. Since that time there has been a desire to see Hart and Gardner fight again.

FAKE PICTURES EXPOSED.

Some Made in the East to Represent Britt-Nelson Fight.

Otto Floto exposes as follows the fake pictures of the Britt-Nelson fight. The pictures were made in the east, and it is not improbable that they will be brought to Salt Lake at some time:

The fake pictures of the Britt-Nelson fight have already made their appearance. In a weekly paper today my attention was called to an advertisement which said:

"REPRODUCTION OF THE BRITT-NELSON FIGHT FILMS NOW READY."

Ain't it rich? Just think of it! Here is a fellow in Philadelphia who gets a description of the fight from the papers, and then engages two boys, makes them up as near as possible to resemble Britt and Nelson and then goes through the counterfeit battle. Of course, it is as unlike the real thing as an apple is to a watermelon.

Let us hope there will be no theatrical manager in Denver who will lend himself to the deception and palm off these pictures as the real ones, which are owned by James Coffroth. If any of these managers stoop to a trick of that kind, the spectators should arm themselves with missiles and break his machine.

The scheme of reproducing the pictures is often stooped to, and in many cases the public has been deceived. This time, however, they will be protected for Coffroth has so many friends among the newspaper fraternity thoughout the land that they will expose the imposters every time they attempt to foist their bogus wares on he public.

Coffroth has written to me to notify him just as soon as the "receiving-money-under-false-pretense" gentlemen make their appearance, and he will attend to the rest, and protect his rights, no matter what the cost.

DES MOINES WINS.

First Team Captures the Western Baseball League Pennant.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 24.—The Western league baseball season closed today with two games each at Omaha, Sioux City, and Des Moines. The championship went to the Des Moines club, which has had a safe lead for two months. The principal interest in the last six weeks has been in the race for second place, in which Omaha, Denver and Sioux City have been the competitors. Denver won second place, Omaha finished third and Sioux City fourth, all of them well above the .500 mark in the percentage column, while Pueblo and St. Joseph slumped badly. St. Joseph finished at the bottom, a hundred points below Pueblo. At least two of the clubs have made poor showing and an extensive change in the map of the Western league is anticipated for next year. A meeting of the club owners will be held in a short time to settle its affairs and discuss the make-up of next year's league.

BRITT-HANLON MATCH.

Good Chance That Two Native Sons Will Soon Clash.

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Eddie Hanlon is out with a challenge that offers some enterprising fight manager a chance to get a good attraction for one of the early dates.

Hanlon wants to fight Britt, and he says there will be no difficulty about terms, as all Jimmy has to do is to write his own terms.

A fight between Britt and Hanlon ought to fill any pavilion. The pair have never been in a ring together, and each has enough admirers to make speculation on the result widespread. Hanlon's easy victory over Fitzgerald, even though it was on a foul, shows that he has not retrograded, and Britt's defeat at Colma has multiplied rather than detracted from his popularity.

"I am ready to fight Britt at any place and at any time," said Eddie today. "I think I have more than a chance to beat him. In fact, I think I can turn the trick, and in less time than it took Nelson. There won't be any difficulty about the terms if Britt is willing to consider my challenge. Any honest man is good enough to referee for me, and there won't be any scrabbling of that sort. Also, if Britt wants it, I'm willing to make a side bet that I win. This challenge is on the square. It's up to Britt to accept it or give the reason why."

With fistic attractions as scarce as they are at present, it is not improbable that one of the cubs will offer the two San Francisco boys a date for one of the vavant months.

BISHOP WANTS MONEY.

Declares That Nolan Owes Him for Services as Press Agent.

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—George W. Bishop, commonly known as "Diddy" Bishop, has brought suit against William Nolan and Battling Nelson for $167.40 for his services as a press agent at the time that Nelson was arranging to fight Jack Clifford. The complaint was filed this morning by A. A. Friedlander, attorney for Bisnop.

It appears that Nolan asked Bishop about six months ago to take charge of the work of getting up a match between the two lightweights. Bishop at the time was a matchmaker for the Miners' Athletic club of Grass Valley. He gave up that position and came to this city, but the match fell through. He claims that he paid out for the fighter and his manager $47.40 in arranging contracts, for hiring a hall for pulating, advertising, telegraphing, etc. In addition to this he performed other services as a press agent, which he values at $150. The suit has been assigned to Justice Goldern's court.

Talk from Ballplayer.

New York, Sept. 24.—To the surprise of 200 young men who attended today's meeting of the Harlem branch of the Young Men's Charistian association, David L. Fultz, centerfielder of the New York team of the American Baseball league, was leader of the meeting. He made a speech which was declared to be not only able and impressive, but which contained many good epigrams and held up the national game as a promoter of morals and manliness as well as of physical development.

Fultz opened his address by remarking that any man who has coped successfully with the baseball coaches and empires of the present day ought to be able to make a tolerable showing of language in a prayer meeting. He then took up the subject of athletics in its relation to morals and ethics, and held that the training received by an athlete was conducive to the development of character.

Wiggs Reinstated.

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—James Wiggs of the Detroit club of the American league was formally reinstated as a national agreement player by a decision announced today by the National Baseball commission, and his temporary connection with the Detroit team is made permanent. Wiggs had called attention to his case, his refusal to sign a Brooklyn contract for the present season at a lower salary than he received when in a minor league having led to his becoming an outlaw.

In announcing the decision President Herrmann says: "While there is no rule on the subject it has been, and should be, the custom that when a player advances from a minor to a major league he is to receive a reasonable increase in salary; and a major league club that does not conform to this custom is not deserving of much recognition at the hands of the commission. In my judgment the player was forced into his position by the actions of the Brooklyn club.

"As already stated, the application of the player will be granted and as rule 35 does not make it mandatory upon the chairman to impose a fine, under the circumstances none will be inflicted. The sale of the player from Brooklyn to Minneapolis, and from the latter club to Detroit will be approved. The Brooklyn club will be required to pay the New Orleans club the balance of the draft money due them for the player."

Fight is Postponed.

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Willie Fitzgerald has received word that his fight with Jack Clifford, which was to have taken place at Grass Valley on Sept. 27, has been postponed until Oct. 11. Clifford sent word to the club that he would not be able to get himself in proper condition this month, so he asked for a new date. Jimmy Coffroth has promised Johnny Reid that he will give Fitzergald a match before the Colma club some time in October.
