NEWS OF THE WEST.

Two Boys Have a Narrow Escape from Drowning in Idaho.

HORSE THIEVES IN ARIZONA.

The Veterans' Home Scandal.—A Chinese Butcher Robbed and Beaten, etc.

Says the Lusk (Wyo.) Herald: Grass is on a jump now and there will be good grazing in a very few days.

The assessed value of Sheridan, Wyo., is said to be a trifle over $700,000. Last year the valuation was $150,000, a gain of $550,000.

News comes from Castle, an isolated mining camp in the northern part of Montana, of a fatal conflict between the sheriff's officers and desperadoes.

Two prisoners in Natrona county jail at Casper, Wyo., bored a hole in the floor, tunnelled to the sewer and made their escape. They were recaptured.

Death has ended the suffering of Louis Strom, who was one of the two lives supposed to have fallen off the train near Granite, Colorado. He never regained consciousness.

A cunning little bear, about two months old, has been caught by a gentleman a few miles from Urbana, O. The bear is not much larger than a good size cat and his actions are very amusing.

Sheriff Dugan, at Laramie, Wyo., arrived at San Francisco on Sunday with requisition papers for Treasurer Gale, the defaulting city treasurer of Laramie, who was arrested at the American Exchange hotel a few days ago.

During the year 1891 the output of Carbon county (Wyo.) coal mines was 359,219 tons of lump and 9405 tons of nut coal, employing 779 men, and in 1892 the output of lump coal was 328,493 tons and 16,284 tons of nut coal, employing 542 men.

James Smith, a fireman on the steamer Wellington, was severely scalded at San Francisco, on the chest and arms, on Sunday morning while some repairs were being made on the boiler. He was taken to the receiving hospital and had his injuries attended to.

Last Wednesday night Indians or Mexicans stole twelve head of horses from parties near Palomas, Arizona, and started with them toward the Mexican line. The citizens followed with Indian trailers, and recovered one at the Papago village, but the thieves escaped with the remainder and are now across the line.

Late on Sunday night as a Chinese butcher named Ah Mow, living in the southern part of Sacramento, Cal., was on his way home from the Chinese quarter, and had reached South Ratcer, he was attacked by an unknown white footpad in a lonely quarter, shot twice and robbed. When taken to the hospital he was not able to explain how the affair occurred. He may recover, but is badly wounded.

The Pennsylvania ranch, between Crittenden and Rincalis is one of the finest and most novel ranches in Arizona. The water supply is constant and comes from 150 feet above the level of the land irrigated. It is a ringed pipe seven miles of ditches and carries 100 miner's inches of water. A feature of the canal is a sixty foot waterfall, a pretty sight and a waste that might well be utilized for electricity, for power purposes and light. A township of land is included in the ranch, where alfalfa and fruits of many varieties are grown. A large reservoir is being built to store much of the water at present going to waste.—Tucson Star.

The net is closing in on the men who have mismanaged the Veterans' Home at San Francisco, says the Chronicle. When the investigation committee began its work one of the directors in a fiery speech urged them to pull the pucker strings of the leg and see whom they would find kicking on the inside. The committee has pulled the strings, and it has every reason to believe there is more than one of the honorable gentlemen squirming under the pressure. The work before the association now is to find how much has been stolen and squandered and then to bring to justice the men who are guilty. The status of the institution is its first labor, and then the dishonesty and punishment of individuals will follow.

Pueblo, Colo., is about to have a second electric railway company. For several days interested citizens have been engaged in soliciting subscriptions for a street car line directly connecting the two cities of Pueblo and Bessemer. They announce that sufficient funds are secured, and that, if the present Pueblo City Railway company will not construct the new line at once for a reasonable bonus, a new company will be immediately organized. The movement is in the hands of the proprietors of the Philadelphia and Colorado smelters, the stock yards and packing companies and other manufacturing plants which have no communication with the city, except by private conveyance, although some 3000 people live in that vicinity. The new line will certainly be built this season.

On Saturday afternoon Geo. Reed and Jos. Van Winkle, the latter the son of the rector of Emanuel church, Hailey, Idaho, had a narrow escape from drowning in Wood river. They attempted to leap the dam by sending their boat down the apron. There being a log caught in the middle of dam and the current being very strong the boat struck against the log and was upset, and the daring boatmen disappeared in the deepest channel. This was only for a moment, however, as they soon came to the surface and, their faces blanched with fear, but otherwise self-possessed, they began to swim. The current carried them from the dam, a distance of perhaps a hundred yards, when they managed to get on their feet, and reach the bank. While this was happening the excitement of the fifty or one hundred eye-witnesses of the affair was intense.

Joslin & Park thought they would enlarge their Denver business last summer when Thomas Woods told them a nice story of his skill and capability in dispelling of jewelry, particularly watches, by organizing watch clubs. The business was increased, but they found that it cost them $4,537.70. They applied for writs of injunction and to compel Woods to produce diamonds, rings, pins, watches and chains to the above value in court. Judge Burns granted the writs. The charge is that Woods has sold some of the jewelry and is keeping more of it hidden and refuses to give either money, goods or satisfactory explanation. The injunction is against Woods receiving or collecting any more money on jewelry which he has sold. The contract provided that Woods was to get 35 for every sale of goods of $35 to $7, $10 on $70 to $99 sales; $11 on $100 to $150, and a special commission on larger amounts. From the results of the complaint he (sic) is has proven that Woods figured it out, that only three-fourths commission has ever been paid. He use it all. The complaint charges Woods with fraud and induction to client. Joslin & Park have a branch here in Salt Lake.

John G. Williams, defendant.

The people of the Territory of Utah send greeting to John G. Williams, defendant.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county, or, if served out of this county, but in the district, within twenty days; and in case of your failure so to answer or appear judgment will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The nature of the action is to have a decree of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties, on the ground of the adultery of the said wife, and further relief as may be just and equitable in the premises. Where relief sought is on the ground that you have been guilty of adultery, on divers days and times between April 1894, and the commencement of this action, with a certain man whose name is unknown to the plaintiff, and that since the commencement of this action you have been and are now living in adultery with the said man.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness the Hon. Charles S. Zane, Judge of the Third Judicial District, in and for the Territory of Utah, this 29th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

[SEAL] HENRY G. McMILLAN, Clerk.
By Lewis L. Lorenz, Deputy Clerk.

NOTICE OF SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST.

WHEREAS THE SALT LAKE PICKLE Company, a corporation, on the first day of May, A. D. 1891, executed and delivered to Joseph H. Jacobs, of Salt Lake City, Utah, its certain promissory note for the sum of three hundred dollars, payable on the date of its issuance, payable on the 1st day of September, 1891, with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per month from its date until fully paid, per year, per annum, payable quarterly from date until maturity, and at the rate of twelve per cent per annum from maturity until paid; and

Whereas, to secure the payment of said note, according to its true tenor and effect, the said Salt Lake Pickle Company, on the said day, did execute and deliver to the undersigned, Joseph H. Jacobs, its trustee, or the City and County of Salt Lake, a certain deed, whereby they conveyed to said trustee, in trust, the following described premises, situate in the County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah, to wit: All of lots twenty-seven (27) in Hopkins addition to Salt Lake City, together with all buildings contemplated to be hereafter to be constructed upon the same, and engines, boilers, vats, machinery, etc., therein situate, which said deed was duly filed for record in the office of the county recorder of Salt Lake county, Utah, on the 1st day of August, 1891, at 4 o'clock p. m., and recorded in Book "O" of mortgages, page 104 of the records of said office; and

Whereas, said deed provides among other things, that upon default being made in the payment of said note according to its true tenor and effect, the said trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note, shall proceed to sell the premises and all the property hereinbefore and in said deed described, at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the county court house in the county seat of Salt Lake county, Utah, for cash, after giving thirty days public notice of the time, place and terms of the sale, stating the time and place of said sale, and description of the property to be sold, by advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Salt Lake; and

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note according to its true tenor and effect, and the said trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note, shall proceed to sell the premises and property mentioned, at public vendue to highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the county court house of Salt Lake County, in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1893, at 11 o'clock noon of said day, to satisfy the said note and interest from January 15, 1893, and the costs of executing said trust, including attorney's fee and compensation to the undersigned, as his services, as provided in said deed of trust.
