Hand Receptions at Park City—Dinner at the Daly West—Back at Gal Thus for Homeward.

Special to the News.

PARK CITY, August 12.—One hundred and fifty members of the Elks outing party were the guests of Park City today. They were given a royal reception. On their arrival from Salt Lake this morning a committee of welcome was delivered to them by Alderman Pedley in behalf of the citizens, the Mayor being in the east on vacation.

From the depot they were driven in carriages to the great Ontario mine three miles distant. Here about 100 of the visitors went down into the earth fifteen hundred feet and shown where either in its virgin state is dug and blasted from the rock. At this depth there is a general impression and exclamation of the workings and a good idea obtained of the extent of the veins metal from the regular and low variable elements by which it is surrounded. It was the first time that the great majority of the visitors had been permitted to peep into a mine and witness the mysteries of wealth creation. It was the first time any of them had ever stepped within the famous Ontario, the crowded silver producer of earth, which has already paid $10,000,000 on its stockholders. All were greatly pleased, many beyond power of expression, and simply looked on and stared with eyes of awe across bewilderment.

On emerging from the Ontario they were driven in carriages to the Daly West, another great white metal producer, and there given a dinner as fine as could be furnished at Delmonico's. The other mountain ash and the Cecilia standard upon the hill gave the pleasure seeking tighter an opportunity to kick at a thousand feet and have the pleasure of gazing upon the wonders of nature's laboratory.

Hon. John J. Daly, Hon. Lucien Lake and Fire Chief Pete of Park City rendered great service on the way of entertaining the commissioners as well and Councilman Wilcomb and Assistant Fire Chief Dunton of Salt Lake. The former city will pay a special $ whistle, and the central at Salt Lake will be with that of the fire people will have for their eastern home over the fire brigade at Salt Lake evening. A new city will remain for a longer period. Two or three will go to the Pacific coast to see relatives and friends.

SOME OLD TINTIC MINES.

Properties that Have Lain Idle for Years to Be Worked—Also Up W. H.

Special Correspondence of the News.

MINERAL FARM, Aug. 10.—By the mining deal which took place here several days ago Mr. H. Lane and Mr. Hiter became the purchasers of some first class property—the Park and Elvergy properties.

These gentlemen are both well known mining men, and will thoroughly push the work of developing the Park and Elvergy mines. It is reported that the shaft of the Elvergy mine is down some considerable depth and before it can be worked properly it will require a good hoist which it is understood these gentlemen will commence the work of construction in a very short time. There will be considerably more excitement at the park and Elvergy mines in a few days.

There are several men now operating on the workings of the Ajax company which is situated just a little west above the Ajax mine on the same property, and it is a pleasure to state that the men have been very successful in taking from the Copperopolis workings which Riordan on. Little did the Eagles a money thinks of the Ajax days when they gave up the famous mineral product that there still added on the property they mineral and which extend there long. One assay of the ore gave away, but success in gold and a large percentage in copper and silver.

The Ajax company have are shipping first class ore which now away up into the hundreds, and the stuff being taken from the old Copperopolis which has been open and exposed to any one, passers by and specimen hunters who visited the old workings and carried away piece of mineral; some would bring assay and carry away with them as money as they could; this we been doing in the years under the eye of the Ajax company they would say nothing to the simple reason they were under the impression that the ore was was only copper stained, and was of very little value. the Ajax company discovered some four months ago that there was still some good ore in the Copperopolis workings, hence the large shipments which the company are at present making.

The Ajax and Copperopolis which are now and the same property, will shortly blossom out again into a great producer in days of old.

The Dromedary Mining company will pay their employes on the 5 month last.

The Stock Consolidated Mining company will distribute checks among their employes on the 20th inst., the company is making regular monthly dividends of rich ore and consequently every week.

The board of directors of the well known Emerald mine were out of Manassas inspecting the property yesterday.

A large water tank is being placed on the mountain side about half a mile north of the Hotel Hammond. This will be to supply the Hotel Manitou with plenty of water from the springs which are known as the Jerry Lane springs west of Eureka and about four and a half miles from the Hotel Hammond. It is expected the work and pipe will be completed in a couple of months.

After a long spell of idleness the Cleveland Mining company have given a contract for a Hundred and fifty feet of tunneling. Thomas was let to work the beginning of last week and have already put in several feet. They have not informed why the work is resumed or expected to give good returns. It is sincerely hoped they will have good always patient, as the property has been one of the most disappointing objects in the Tintic district, considering the large amount of work that has been done in the Cleveland mine. There is now quite a good many stockholders of the Cleveland stock in Salt Lake who will be pleased to hear that the company's property is showing up in good sight.

Funeral.

Little Author Roberts says that with two of three exceptions the county officers have paid up all arrears with the State in full. In some of the two exceptions the tendermen are waiting to quarter of the million to be in the accounts of the officers in question, whose bonds their sureties are out. Mr. Roberts says that while his half yearly report to June 30th showed the collections to be behind so materially to take would put them in a much more favorable light, as most of them have balanced up and are straight with the State.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - AUG. 13, 1896.

War and Rumors of War.

Peace appears to be a belligerent spirit abroad in this city the last day or two. Tuesday morning Bert Northfield, a struggler in the Vance drug store, and J. W. Smith a tender, engaged in what Police Officer Bishop described as "a regular Missouri screen." Mr. Smith went into the drug store and some hot words, a disagreement in regard to the price of a cigarette or cigarettes, each says the other made the change; at any rate words led to an encounter in which both was knocked down and Northfield had a cuttle wound over his left eye. About this time Officer Bishop appeared on the scene and separated the men. A warrant was sworn out for their arrest on the charge of fighting. They had a hearing on that charge in the afternoon before Justice Bailey. There was not sufficient evidence to show that fighting, as suspected by the officer, had been indulged in, and the charge was dismissed.

Monday evening two men indulged in a row in one of our saloons, in which some words was thrown down for a free issue, as reported to the News correspondent by a reputable eye-witness, but the officers could not find any one who knew enough about it to warrant the swearing out of a complaint; they are still waiting on the case.

Four men engaged in a fracas and broke light Monday evening, in the northwest part of town, but no arrests have been made.

A Bold Thief Escapes.

Tuesday morning two men entered the O. H. Wood Mercantile company's store in Springville, one of them asked for some items, which was down cellar, O. H. Wood was the only clerk there, went down for the items, accompanied by the customer. After being there a short time Mr. Wood heard the bell of the cash drawer ring, he turned up and looked for other men behind the counter; the other man was without and came to discharge about $25, which is the last taken from the drawer, but in the excitement the man effected his escape. City Marshal Dunn was immediately notified and he succeeded in overtaking Brown at the last near the timber was supposed to have come towards Provo. Mr. Brown went some distance south of Provo on the U. P. track, with the idea of meeting him if he came this way. A man was coming from Spring Ville and when he saw the sheriff in the distance he hurriedly ran the feeds into the sloughs skirting Utah Lake. The sheriff followed him for some distance, and failing to capture him returned to Provo. In the afternoon Marshal Dunn and Mr. Wood came over, and with Sheriff Brown and Deputy Sheriff Fowler made a thorough search for the culprit. He, however, had succeeded in covering his tracks and was not apprehended.

Notes and Personals.

J. T. Alvord, of Pleasant View, Weber county, was advertised to leave last night, in the county court house. He was not noticed "Modern Times," but the people minded not to the court room, and only H. S. Hawkworth and the News man showed up. Mr. Alvord was somewhat surprised but not disconcerted, and Mr. Hawkworth extended the gentleman that this was the opportunity of his life, and tendered a free opinion by asking an instance where some prominent lawyer followed his advice to our sorrow. The case stood to the honoree to be a good one and he decided not to disappoint his audience, so taking off his coat and hanging with the a speech advocating a system of mileage based on wind, interspersed with slings—but it is unknown if the audience was with usage. He read the following accounting caught, said to be from a W. H street circular, issued in 1892 and signed H. Zimmerman, secretary: "Organize and protect itself in every possible manner, through combination and legislation. The enemy must be called to our aid; the most to achieve, bonds and mortgages foreclosed as rapidly as possible. When through, cheap of law, the common people have lost their chattels, they will be valuable and easily governed—through the influence of the steam arm of the government by a central power of imperial wealth under the control of money kingdoms. A people which will not organize with their fellows will not quarrel with their chains."

At any criticism might be offered it is due to state that Mr. Alvord's address was not quite so long, although he had two other gentlemen and the city marshal come to be listen to him before he found. It isn't the occasion to convey the idea that the city marshal is not a gentleman, but he didn't stay very long, and he is reported to by his officers to be a stickler of respect.

Mr. Alvord speaks upon tonight and many might to have a good house so he wrote to be an earnest and concerning may what is manifest, and place "sleep easier the people. He speaks in other towns through the county during this and the coming week.

James Shaw, of Springville, reported yesterday to the sheriff's office that his son, Hyrum, had been stolen by a man named Henderson or Hayes, near Hawlin, Wyoming, last Tuesday. He was wounded in the neck, in the shoulder blade and below the ribs on the left side. The sheriff does not believe the wounds dangerous. Young Shaw and Henderson engaged about some mining property, and the stabbing was the result. Two sons of Mr. Shaw have died in the same locality in Wyoming, within the last few years.

County Superintendent of Schools Christensen and the trustees of the county met yesterday and formulated rules for the government of the schools for the coming year. There will be two vacations, from December 24th to January 4th and from April 2nd to April 9th. The schools in the inner districts will commence September 7th, and in the smaller districts October 12th.

There was a very large number of people at the Sunday school excursion to Castle Tuesday. It is estimated that fully two hundred attended. There were no accidents and everything passed off pleasantly, the only possible circumstance that could mar the pleasure of the occasion being the fact that the crowd was too large for the train.

George Backner, a young man who lives in the Third ward, was brought in from Tintic Tuesday, suffering from a blow log and other wounds, inflicted by an accidental fall over a 10-rod wind in the Eye mine where he has been at work. Dr. Pike was called to attend him and he is progressing as well as can be expected.

Wednesday morning about 4 o'clock Mr. Hosley discovered a fire in the wood-shed back of the Dancing Pavilion. The fire department was called and succeeded in putting out the flame before much damage was done. It is supposed the fire started from an smoking cinder.

Andrew Aakup of Kanab, the county of Black Hawk, who is serving a term in the State prison, is again in Provo with a number of Indian friends. He will interview Governor Wells relative to Black Hawk's pardon, tomorrow when he will meet a committee of the council of the Indian tribe.
