Secretary John J. Thomas of the state board of equalization today finished the compilation of the number of horses and mules, cattle and sheep in the State of Utah and their value for the current year. The tables which follow show that the horses and mules number, according to the assessment rolls, which of course, are considerably shy, 71.690. Their value is placed at $2,139,-234. The cattle number, 217,639 and they are estimated to be worth $3,519,080. A are estimated to be worth $5,31,050. A failing off in the number of sheep is shown. For instance, the state is credited with less than a million and a half head, the exact figures being, $1,453,993. They are assessed at nearly four millions of dollars, or to be specific, 3,922,636. The others found these focuses are found tables giving these figures are found

Nothing has been learned concerning the identity of the man nor the exact manner in which he came to his death. It is thought, however, that he either pleased the Indians and enabled them pleased the Indians and enabled them to secure their mounts without delay. Upon receipt of the check I paid all concerned and wound up the affair with satisfaction to all. If it is possible to send the photographs they will be ap-preciated by the Indians. For myself and the employes accom-panying me. I desire to express my complete satisfaction with our treat-ment and that of the Indians. It is very gratifying to know that our efforts fell from the train or was struck by it while walking along the track. There was no money on the man's person, but a small bottle of whicky was found in one of his pockets.
