CAN CLARKE WIN FROM KRAMER?

Speedy Sprinters Matched for Five Mile Race at Saucer.

BOBBY WALTHOUR LEAVES.

Off for Germany, Where He Will be Paced by Gussie Lawson—Bike Races All This Month.

Can little Jakie Clarke, the speedy sprinter from Australia, hold his own in a sprint race against Champion Frank Kramer?

Local bike fans have witnessed this pair in many races, first one and then the other winning.

The supreme test will come on Friday night when Kramer and Clarke will be matched in a five-mile race, and then the question will be answered.

Clarke has many friends here who believe he can hold his own against the champion. He has a remarkable sprint and a five-mile race will show just what he can do when it comes to the final struggle. Of the two Kramer is the stronger, but the grind will not prove hard for the reason they will be paced by four singles until the last two laps when the rush for the taps will take place.

WILL BE FAST RACE.

The riders have never been pitted against each other in a race, and because they have learned during the season is no reason why they should not do his best. When the pair clash on Friday night the races should prove the most sensational of the season. Those who witness it will see real speed.

RACES THIS MONTH.

The "News" has already called attention to the fact that the bicycle racing season has not closed. An impression got out that Labor day saw the finish of the game here for 1907. This is a mistake. The riders will remain here and races will continue on Tuesday and Friday evenings as usual, while the weather permits. Manager Chapman is planning a number of novel events and there will be many match races of interest.

TWO GO EAST.

All the riders will be here with the exception of Bobby Walthour and Gussie Lawson. They left Salt Lake yesterday afternoon and will go to Dresden, Germany, where Walthour is matched for a series of races. Walthour goes from here to Atlanta, Ga., where he will meet his wife who will go with him to Europe. Gussie Lawson will spend a few days in Chicago and will then join Walthour in New York, from which point they will sail. Before leaving, Walthour disposed of his two fast motors, the Samuelson brothers paying $500 for them. One of the machines is the same on which Gussie Lawson made such remarkable time. T. M. Samuelson will fix up the motors and use them to pace W. E. Samuelson.

CROUP.

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes, and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main St. B

GANS FOOLED THEM ALL ON HIS WEIGHT.

Probably no fighter has been able to keep the public more in the dark concerning his weight than Joe Gans. The Baltimore boxer has always allowed the sellers to guess at his weight and has never let out an inkling as to what he really did weigh. A few years ago it was the prevailing opinion that he had graduated from the lightweight class into the welterweight division, and that if he cared to remain in the ring it would be necessary for him to take on fighters weighing around 150 pounds. Less than a year ago there was considerable talk of matching him with Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, while only a few weeks back it looked as though Joe Thomas would be his next opponent.

When he fought Joe Walcott it was presumed that he had stepped into the welterweight ranks, but he fooled everybody by reducing to a trifle over 133 pounds for Nelson, and when ancient history is dug up it is readily seen that the dusky Maryland scrapper has been keeping an ace up his sleeve as to his correct weight. When he was preparing for the Gardner fight, in order to get even with Billy Nolan he tipped his hand a little too soon. Nelson's manager donned his thinking cap when he found out that Gans was not a welterweight and would not be forced to dry out to the last ounce in order to make the ringside stripped. This caused Nolan to spring the weighing-in-with-fighting-togs dodge and as he had Joe up a tree the latter was forced to comply with his demands.

There is considerable discussion about Gans' present weight. The fact that the champion was obliged to quit hard training because he was getting too close to the required notch opened up the old chestnut of what Gans scales when he is not training for a Marquis of Queensbury engagement. Most boxers pick up weight very rapidly after a battle, but Joe is different in this respect and rarely goes over 142 pounds. George Weeden, who was present when Joe Gans and Frank Erne weighed in for the battle in which the ebon-hued mitt-slinger relieved the New Yorker of his title, states that Gans made 132 pounds without battling an eye. Weeden said that Gans didn't have to adopt heroic measures to make the weight at that time, and it is a cinch that he has been hoodwinking the fight managers all over the country as to his correct poundage.

When he was matched with Willie Fitzgerald there was quite a squabble over the weight. Herford, who was looking after Gans' interests at that time, insisted that the men box at 133 pounds at 3 o'clock. Fitz's manager wouldn't consent to this unless the purse was split, feeling that the Fighting Harp would have a much better chance at 133 pounds than at the higher weight. Finally Herford, with feigned reluctance, agreed to allow Gans to make the lighter weight.

When Ben Selig had been posted by Frank McDonald that George Memsic (Jimmy Burns) couldn't reduce to 133 pounds without amputating a limb, and when the articles of agreement were being prepared, Selig insisted that 133 pounds ringside be incorporated, which caused some astonishment, as it was thought that Gans didn't care to come down any lower than 135 pounds. All of these things go to show that during his entire career Gans has been a legitimate lightweight, who has made a wonderful showing against great odds in many instances.

FALL AND WINTER SEASON 1907 MILLINERY AND FURS

THE NEPHI

Is one of the popular Misses' Hats shown at Banks' this season. Imported English felts in white and all the pastel shades, as well as staple colors. Soft, flexible, allowing the milliners' art a wide range in shaping them to suit the wearer.

PLAYER WOULD NOT RUN.

Farmer Knocked Ball Over Fence and Offered to Pay for It.

"Down in one of the bush leagues where I used to play," says Wild Bill Donovan, the Detroit pitcher, "before my name had appeared in the paper more than a half a dozen times, a big, broad-shouldered athletic young fellow appeared on the field one day and asked to be allowed to play. We looked him over and decided to give him a chance.

"When he came to bat the pitcher shot the ball over the plate.

"'One strike,' said the umpire.

"'How is that a strike?' asked the rube. 'I never struck at the ball.'

"'Because I said so,' retorted the umpire. Along came another. 'Two strikes,' the umpire yelled.

"'Here, explain this thing to me,' said the rube. 'Why do you say two strikes when I haven't struck at the ball at all?'

"Before the umpire could reply up came another—a straight one—waist high. Mr. Aamateur let go with all his might and away went the ball, faster and faster, higher and higher, as it sailed away. Just as the ball was passing over the fence I looked toward the plate and there was the numbskull standing stock still.

"'Run!' I shouted, for we needed the tally. 'Run! Don't you see that the ball has gone over the fence?'

"'Run!' he howled back. 'Not on your life. I've done nothing to run for. I didn't mean to lose the ball and I've got the money to pay for it. How much is the damage?'"

DON BREAKS RECORD.

McCoy's Horse Paces Fast Half Mile At Wasatch Driving Park.

At the Wasatch Driving park, Ogden, yesterday afternoon, Tom McCoy's pacer, Don, broke the record for a half-mile. The record was 1:04, but Don clipped half a second from the mark, and equalled the record in the second heat of the race.

In the 2:25 class trot and pace there was a dead heat between Red Bird and Irma D. A. The latter won the second heat, but the two following heats and the race went to Red Bird. Gray Bell captured two heats in the three-eighths event. The summary follows:

Don	1	1	1
Adomonte	2	2	2
Hal Corbett	3	3	3

Times—1:07, 1:04, 1:02 1-6. (Record).

2:25 trot or pace:

Red Bird	3	1	2	1	1
Irman D. A.	3	1	1	2	2
Queen	1	3	*
Red Raven	4	*

Time—2:24½, 2:27, 2:31½, 2:30, 2:30.

Drawn.

Three-eighths mile dash, two heats—Gray Bell, two firsts, Commodore two seconds, Miss Linford two thirds, Keeno two fourts. Time—:38, :38.

One-fourth mile dash—Miss Linford, Keeno, Little Dutch, Wauneta. Time—:25.

PROTECTION FOR PITCHER.

President Pulliam of National League Has Something to Say.

"Could I have my way about it," said President Harry Pulliam of the National league, the other day, "I would put a sudden and effectual stop to one abuse that has been going on in baseball ever since I can remember, and one that always rifles my Kentucky blood; that is the efforts of the coachers and other players on the opposing team to disconcert the pitcher by brutal, sarcastic remarks intended for his ears.

"Of course, there is a rule that is supposed to govern this offense, but it doesn't. The umpires don't enforce it, for the pitchers seldom complain when they are being tantalized and tortured in this way. They don't like to be accused of playing the baby act, and they don't want to admit that they are being bothered by the mean, cutting things that are being said, but it is a shameful injustice to the twirlers to permit it to be done at all. The responsibility of the game is always placed upon the pitcher's shoulders, and he ought to have a free and fair chance to win.

"Can anything more despicable be imagined than the action of some four-flushing substitute in going out in the coacher's box and trying the use of cheap wit and coarse innuendo to spoil the work of some high-minded, hard-working twirler, who is endeavoring not only to win his game, but to give the fans the worth of their money? Protecting the pitchers from this kind of annoyance is but one of the reforms I want to see adopted.

"I would have the players protected from pop-bottle throwers in no uncertain way. I wish the club owners would unite in one grand effort to suppress the low-class 'rooter' who insults the men in uniform and drives decent people from the stands."

NEEL THE WINNER.

Captures the Intermountain Tennis Championship at Country Club.

By defeating Salisbury in three straight sets, Sam Neel yesterday afternoon captured the intermountain tennis championship. The scores were 6-3, 11-9, 6-2. The match was a hard fought one from start to finish and keen interest was manifested throughout. The trophy won by Neel is the Newhouse cup and to hold possession of it he must win it three times in succession.

During the present tournament Neel has made a splendid record, not losing a set. In yesterday's play Salisbury was hardly up to his standard, but even at that he gave Neel a hard fight.

RICHFIELD HORSE RACES.

Many Interesting Events on Driving Park—Day of Sports.

A number of interesting sporting events occurred at Richfield yesterday afternoon, chief among them being the horse races on the fair and driving park track. The results of the horse races follow:

One-half mile dash, between Nelly, owned by A. E. Foutz; Val, owned by Carl Ramsay; Teddy, owned by Will Morrison; Topsy, owned by Evan Borg. Won by Teddy. Time—1:00.

One mile pace or trot, best two in three heats, between the Parry mare and Lewis horse. Won by the Parry mare, which took two straight heats. Time—2:51, 2:52.

One-half mile dash, between Tuttle, owned by George Hick; Bell, owned by Frank Heppler. Won by Tuttle. Time—:54½.

One mile pace or trot, best two in three heats, between Red, owned by Charles Hresch, and May V., owned by Ed Van Wagenen. Won by My V., who took two straight heats. Time—3:21, 3:25.

The Monroe and Glenwood people had a match race, which was captured by the latter. Boys from Monroe and Richfield had a foot race, the latter winning.

ADMIRAL EVANS' FLEET.

Takes it on a Cruise Northward from Hampton Roads.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Admiral Evans has taken his big battleship fleet on a cruise northward from Hampton Roads. He started yesterday, leading the way with his flagship Connecticut. His announced destination is Cape Cod. It is understood at the navy department that the fleet will make no haste in going north, but will engage in drills and various kinds of fleet and squadron maneuvers on the cruise. The fall target practise is to begin next Monday, and this will be the last opportunity the big ships will have to test their great guns before they drop anchor in Magdalena bay, on the western coast of the continent, some time in the early spring.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept 3.—The finding of the dead body of Jerry Johnson, colored, with five bullet holes piercing it, is believed to be the sequel of an attempt yesterday to assault Mrs. W. W. Ellard at North Birmingham. The body of the negro was found in an alley at Lewisburg. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that he died from wounds inflicted by unknown parties.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion; at times I was so despondent life seemed almost a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief, until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one more trial which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nervine and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am very much improved in every way; in body, mind and spirits since. I make a special point to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendations."
A. S. MELTON, Ashville, N. C.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free.
