"LITTLE BO PEEP

had lost her sheep and couldn't tell where to find them." So the old nursery rhyme says, and it goes on to bid her "Leave them alone and they'll come home and bring their tails behind them." All this may be true of lost sheep, but if you have lost your health you cannot afford to leave that alone. It will not come back of its own accord. Some people brag that they never bother about colds. They "let them go the way they came." Alas! too often the victims go—to a consumptive's grave. Until very recently a cure for Consumption, which is universally acknowledged to be scrofula affecting the lungs, would have been looked upon as a marvelous, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it if taken in time and given a fair trial. This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state when other means have failed. It is the most potent tonic, or strength restorer, alterative, or blood-cleanser, and nutritive, or flesh builder known to medical science. For Lingering Coughs, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, "Liver Complaint" and Dyspepsia or Indigestion, it is an unequaled remedy.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing. 50 cents, by druggists.

REVELATIONS CONCERNING THE SALVATION ARMY.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

"THE INDIAN WAR."

Captain Norville Says it is Over.

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 25.—Captain Norville, special agent, has just returned from Fort Bennett and reports that the Indian war there is over. The Indians were afraid they would be massacred or they would have come in before. After the Indians arrived at Bennett councils were held to determine whether they would give up their arms or not. Agent Palmer said: "No arms, no rations or blankets." This soon brought them in time and all the arms are now stacked up at the agency.

Captain Hearst, the commanding officer at Fort Scully, has arrived and reports the capitulation of 174 Uncapas, from Rosebud Agency. Narcelas Narcelle, a farmer, brought in 412 of Big Foot's Instars. Out of these ninety-eight stands of arms were collected. Sitting Bull's men want to remain at Cheyenne and say they are afraid to return to Standing Rock. All have surrendered and the best of care is being given them. Many of the leaders among the Indians acted very ugly in making the final settlements.

EVERYTHING QUIET.

OTTAWA, Dec. 25.—According to reports received at the mounted police department it appears that the Commissioner three weeks ago issued orders to the border patrols to disarm all United States Indians coming into Canadian territory and collect a duty on their ponies, or else turn the Indians back. The instructions were carried out, with the result that everything is quiet in all the Indian reserves.

WHAT THE INDIANS FEAR.

OMAHA, Dec. 25.—A special from Pine Ridge says the Indians in the Bad Lands are still in council. Couriers came in today with the news that Sitert Bull said, if the Government will agree not to disarm his men nor take their ponies, he will come in. The Indians are holding out in fear that they are to be given oxen instead of ponies.

A wagon train left Pine Ridge today with camp supplies for the ninth cavalry, which marched yesterday. Fighting is looked for if the hostiles don't come in soon.

ANOTHER VERSION.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—The Inter-Ocean's Pine Ridge special says five of the friendlies who went out to negotiate with the hostiles returned today and reported others coming. The hostiles, they say, are wholly unmanageable and will not listen to reason. It is now thought that the Ninth Cavalry will take the field against the hostiles. Some of the returned dancers are trying to sneak away from the agency.

THE SCOTCH STRIKE.

The Strikers Accused of an Attempt to Wreck the Train.

GLASGOW, Dec. 25.—A railway chair was found fastened to the track on the line between this city and Kallside, but was discovered in time to prevent an accident. The purpose was to derail the night train, and the strikers are accused of the fiendish act. Numbers of the Aberdeen strikers are resuming work. The prospects are that the strikers in Glasgow and Edinburgh will consent to arbitration.

It is now estimated that nine thousand men are out on the various railways in Scotland. Traffic on the North British Railway has almost ceased. Many assaults by the strikers are reported. The employes of the Caledonian Railway Company are gradually joining the strikers. The Glasgow docks are closed. The gas supply at Perth is threatened with exhaustion, owing to the inability of the companies to obtain coal.

STRIKERS AT HULL.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—One thousand railway men at Hull have struck for shorter hours and more pay.

NOT ALLOWED TO LAND.

Italian Paupers Returned from the United States.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The 403 Italians who arrived today on the steamship Hindustan were evidently the output of some poorhouse, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot that ever arrived at this port. They carried no baggage, and were clad in barely sufficient clothing to cover themselves. Nine of them were detained by Dr. Jutintes on account of sickness or old age, two of them were lame, one was blind in one eye, and one had a tumor on his forehead. They will all be returned, as they had but a few cents each, and only one box of clothing among the party.

INTERVIEWING PARNELL.

He Never Hoped to Win at Kilkenny.

DUBLIN, Dec. 25.—In an interview today before his departure Parnell said: "Being aware of the condition we had to fight at Kilkenny, I knew the carrying of the seat was almost hopeless. I never expected to win. The pressure brought to bear upon the mass of the people, who would have voted for us had they been left to exercise their own judgment without intimidation, was untreated of. Was it kind for a priest to hold over his flock threats of spiritual penalties? It is a serious matter certainly. Interference with the liberty of an elector cannot be tolerated. This is not all. Cases occurred, of which there is the fullest proof, that threats of personal violence were used. It is a remarkable and encouraging fact that in the districts where the people were not coerced by priests, we polled 90 per cent of the votes. I wished to penetrate the district around Castle Connor, but was prevented by fear of bloodshed. Scully is a strong Catholic, but he sees clearly if the priests are permitted similarly to influence coming elections Ireland will be lost. The general elections are not far distant, and I shall push forward preparations for them."

"What views do you hold of the prospects of the different parties?"

To this question Parnell replied: "Should dissolution occur soon, Gladstone will have very little chance of returning to power. As to my position, time is on my side."

O'BRIEN AND GILL AT BOULOGNE.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—O'Brien and Gill arrived at Boulogne this morning and were met at the landing place by McCarthy and Sullivan. They said that they were overjoyed at the result of the election in North Kilkenny.

When interviewed by a reporter O'Brien refused to express an opinion on the present situation in Ireland. He started for Paris this evening. Sexton and the others will return to England.

PROFANELY ENOUGH.

Something Wrong About the Funds of the Salvation Army.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—The Times announces that Commissioner Smith of the Salvation Army has resigned. The resignation, the Times says, is most important, because he formed a substantial guarantee that an earnest and business-like effort would be made to execute the practical part of General Booth's scheme of social reform. The authorship of "In Darkest England" is now common knowledge, but charitable hypothesis assigns General Booth credit for having written at least two chapters of the book. Booth's explanation is that he supplied a professional writer with materials for the work.

The Times believes that when the whole story is revealed it will be found that the substantial parts of the scheme of city and farm colonies originated with Commissioner Smith.

"Nothing but sense of duty," the Times says, "could have induced Commissioner Smith to resign at so important a juncture. There must be something wrong with the scheme or management of the funds. Those who promised donations are now entitled to withhold them until a full and satisfactory account of Smith's resignation is given. He was the life and soul of the social reform wing of the army. It is likely his resignation is destined to be the death blow to Booth's more ambitious scheme.
