POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday three "rags" came up for hearing, and were disposed of in short order, proving to have to pay, and one drunk fortified $5 for his non-appearance for trial.

DOCTORING TRAMP ARRESTED.

Sheriff Lacey arrested a tramp named Charles Ward for Carbon County officers. The sheriff was notified by a man from Price that Ward had stolen a watch from their machine house, so the sheriff immediately went out but not finding the tramp on the train between Ogden and Salt Lake City, he was taken into custody by two boys drinking quite heavily and upon arrival here in the possession of a bottle of whisky and a bucket of beer. When asked where he got these things he said: "The whisky he asked me to pull, and the eggs were given me by a lady for his kind advice given her. I was on the road to the sheriff's office to put in a call awaiting further developments.
