Another Railroad.—Rumors are affoat to the effect that the Central Pacific Railroad Company design the construction of a branch line from Humboldt Wells, Nevada, or some point in that vicinity, across the American Desert and around the southern shore of the Great Salt corroborated by a report from another reliable quarter that the ground has been already broken at the Wells, and that the building of the new road is a veritable fact. This is a very important movement, and if consummated. will add much to the importance of Salt Lake City. She will then be the railroad centre of the Territory.

Editor Deseret News:

A young man by the name of Herbert Moy, who came here from London, England, a few years ago, and engaged in farm work, but after seek employment, returned to this placed on the 11th inst., under very sorrowful circumstances, being broand other places, he had often to subsist upon unwholesome diet. He sometimes drank strong coffee without sugar or milk, and ate butter having a very bad taste and suffered from a cold climate, and had often were more cold than the country's climate. It was not thought he was in so critical a condition as was discovered on Monday, the 16th inst., when violent symptoms became apparent at once, and such medical aid as could be obtained here was called to his assistance, but he soon lost his speech and gradually sank, until 3.30 them. For sale by Z. C. M. I. p.m., when he departed this life.

An inquest was held over his body, and the coroner's jury gave the cause of his death to be heart disease.

He was buried in the cemetery yesterday. He has no relatives here, but has a brother working somewhere in Idaho. A. C.
