A CLAIM FROM OVER JORDAN.

I. A. Benton and fifteen others presented the following:

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council:

SALT LAKE CITY,

Your petitioners would respectfully call your attention to that strip of ground by which the line of the Jordan and within the city limits and north of North Temple street. That part of the city runs a large new dry and necessarily is a serious menace to the health of the adjacent portions of the city. Your petitioners have seen bodies of dead horses and cattle and dogs and cats and human beings in the Jordan River and in the canal that runs along the east side
