THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Visiting Weather Office—Quite a number of conference visitors are calling at the weather bureau for meterological information which is freely given them by the new section director.

Endeavor Society Entertainment—The First Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society will be entertained next Friday evening in the church parlors by Prof. Ruth Storer and John Barrell.

Dairymen to Meet—The Utah State Dairy association will meet Wednesday next at 10 a. m. at the state fair building of the Agricultural college. The meeting is to be free and all dairymen are invited.

Heavy Day For Treasurer—John A. Groesbeck, county treasurer, experienced his first heavy day yesterday in the collection of taxes. About $10,000 was paid in which brings the total amount received $60,000.

Indian War Veterans.—The Utah commission on Indian war veterans is in session in the office of Secretary of State Tingey, city and county building, where the members will welcome veterans in the city during conference.

Funeral of Mrs. Vera Whyte—The funeral of Mrs. Vera Whyte was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 905 Eighth East street, with Rev. P. A. Simpkin conducting the service. The Harmony quartet furnished music. Interment was in city cemetery.

Rydalch Moves Here—W. E. Rydalch, who for a number of years has been among the most prominent attorneys of Utah county has decided to turn his attention to Salt Lake City. Mr. Rydalch has moved his family to Salt Lake City, and is now officing with Edward McGurrin.

Funeral of Harry Blanchard—The funeral services of Harry W. Blanchard, the actor, was held this afternoon from O'Donnell's chapel with interment at Mt. Olivet under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. The deceased belonged to Susquehanna Lodge, 189, of Williamsport, Pa.

Daughters of Pioneers—An important meeting of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers is to be held immediately after the adjournment of the afternoon session of conference tomorrow. The meeting will be held in the Assembly hall and the officers of the society request all to be present.

Information Wanted—Mrs. H. M. Mudy of Carretas, Janos, Distrito Galeana, Chih., Mexico, who was a grandaughter of Benjamin Aber who joined the Church in New York, and died in Nauvoo, seeks information of any descendants of his second family. A favor would be conferred by writing Mrs. Mundy at the above address.

New Rector For St. Mark's—St. Mark's cathedral is to have a new rector and dean in the Rev. Dr. Calladay who graduated this summer from the Berkeley Divinity school of the Episcopal church at Middletown, Conn. He will be in Salt Lake Nov. 1, so as to preach the first Sunday in that month. Mr. Calladay is said to be an excellent preacher and reader.

Active Sale of Coal Lands—Utah coal lands are having quite an active sale, to judge from recent purchases of such tracts by various individuals. William Schrenkner of Walker, Kansas, and Harry Work, of Ellsworth, Kansas, yesterday purchased through the federal land office in this city 155.58 acres of coal lands for $7,800 each. The land is situated on Miller creek in Carbon county.

May Deport Austrian—Frank Seaman, an Austrian who came to this country about three years ago, and who is now an inmate of the mental hospital, Provo, will be deported to his own country where he has a wife and three children. It has been found that the cause of his disease originated before he left Austria. He will be taken to New York by J. C. Hise, a local immigration officer.

Return From Fishing Trip—L. H. Smyth, chief deputy in the office of the United States marshal and E. D. B. Thompson, register of the land office, have returned from a fishing trip to Fish lake, Sevier county. They report that the lake has been largely denuded of its supply of speckled beauties, on account of the inroads made upon it by fishermen and the state fish and game department for trout spawn.

Field Officers Take Ride—The first battalion, Fifteenth infantry left Fort Douglas on a three days hike to Warm Springs, the second battalion to follow Thursday. Colonel Scott with Majors May, Arrasmith, Rowan and Purviance left yesterday on a horseback test ordered by the government, their route extending to Nephi. Lieut. Adams has succeeded Lieut. Elliot in command of H company, the latter having been transferred to another company.

Special Car Service—The Utah Light & Railway is putting on a specially heavy extra car service for the current week. On Wednesday there will be 126 cars in operation. Officials of the company are so impressed with the phenomenal building-up of the North Bench that they express belief that within three years there will be a street car line along Twelfth avenue, around north of City cemetery to Poperton.
