DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock EDITION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 53. THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVIII.

MEXICO'S WAR FEVER

A Spirit of Patriotism Manifest Everywhere.

THOUSANDS READY TO MARCH.

Guatemala President Relying on the Interference of Spain if Need Be.

COMITAN, State of Chiapas, Mex., Jan. 24.—The government has pushed fresh forces to the Guatemalan frontier almost daily, and camp quarters for a large body of men have been arranged for near this place. Some Guatemalans living in this vicinity have fled to Mexico rather than to present themselves for enrolling service.

Guatemala is using every effort to work up a feeling of patriotism among the people. Nearly every horse for miles from the border has been secured by one means or another. The accommodative policy of the Mexican union government in taking a very serious effect upon public order. The colonels of the frontier fear an invasion of mounted Mexican horse. It is generally felt, should war come, that the frontier would be so overrun by troops and pillaging peonages that life would be a burden.

FUGITIVES FROM GUATEMALA.

TAPACHULA, State of Chiapas, Mex., Jan. 24.—Fugitives from Guatemala are arriving here almost daily. They number many families from the Guatemalan interior, but are for the most part native Mexicans who have taken up residence in Guatemala. Large parties are on the way from Quezaltenango, Northern Guatemala, either afraid to remain at home or coming with the purpose of enlisting against the government they have left behind.

NO INVASION YET.

ACAPULCO, State of Guerrero, Mex., Jan. 24.—The report that the United States marines forming a cordon around the steamer Ecuador, off the coast of San Jose, in anticipation of a revolution, is not true. The steamer ship was loaded with munitions and provisions of war for Guatemala for the supply of Mexican troops ostensibly, in the guise of San Benito and Santa Cruz in the southern coast. Having discharged its commodities, it is now on its return trip to Mazatlan, where it will await further orders.

THE PACIFIC SIDE WAVE.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 24.—With the numerous demonstrations of sentiment in this capital, the war feeling throughout the republic is intense and interior points are showing a spirit of patriotism among the people, and it is probable other great popular gatherings will occur in many cities.

A full report of the proceedings was sent by the Guatemalan representative to President Barrios at Guatemala, and it is said to have created a profound impression in government circles.

This city is quiet although the effects of the patriotic storm are easily discernible. The volunteer movement is rapidly extending, and it would evidently be possible to raise 25,000 volunteers in the city alone within a day or two if the general government only hastened the proper assistance. A telegram from Guatemala says the president minister in Madrid will interview anyway to justify the question with Mexico.

Intelligence that Barrios expects the first Spain, on account of his bold stand.

Eloped With His Stepdaughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—John H. Harvey, who was formerly a waiter in a restaurant in this city and has worked as a cable car conductor, eloped with his pretty stepdaughter and stepmother, leaving his wife in destitute circumstances. Harvey married his present wife at Santa Rosa, in 1888. She was a widow and had six children, the eldest of whom, Florence, is the heroine of the present sequence.

Hawaiian Volunteer Legation.

HONOLULU, N. Y., Jan. 24.—The Hawaiian volunteer legation, organized here by Captain William Mossman, is assuming substantial proportions. Four cabin cabin infantry and telegraph have been received offering services and money. A retired army officer wires from Philadelphia that he will organize a company in the legation there and Col. H. C. Miller, at the Grand National Guard, has offered his services to Captain Mossman. The latter will go to New York this week to arrange to remove to Honolulu a number of people of help being given by those interested in that city.

WILL BE PROSECUTED.

The Man Who Signed over the Money of an Insurance Company.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The World this morning says: The man who sponsored the $1,000,000 cash capital and assets of the American Casualty Insurance and Security company will have to answer to the criminal law. The officers of the company with liabilities exceeding the assets by over $1,000,000 were one of the most startling financial events that have made the last ten years notable. Some of the men who were most directly connected with the wrecking of the company have been indicted by the grand jury. The men are Col. Henry G. Bentley, William E. Haigley, Vincent R. Schenck and John W. Taylor. Bentley is now in the Tombs. He was treated on Dec. 14 on a charge of feloniously transferring a check for $10,000 and was placed under $25,000 bail. The men indicted are members of the bankrupt firm of Bentley, Schenck & Co. This firm acted as a corporate capacity as the general managers of the business of the American Casualty Insurance & Security Co. One of the members of the firm of Bentley, Schenck & Co., Col. Henry G. Bentley, is one of the president, was a director of the American Casualty Insurance & Security Co. and Wm. Haigley, another member of the firm, was the president of the American Casualty Insurance & Security Co.

All the reports that have been made public by those who attempted to reorganize the defunct American Casualty and Fidelity and Security company, and to receive their assets, have placed the responsibility upon the firm, alleging that the firm in the capacity of general manager, but, as General Henry Bentley expressed it, "received it in trust" for the American Casualty Insurance and Security company. The indictments found were upon the complaint of the Long Island railroad company, a creditor of the American Casualty Insurance and Security company to the amount of $115,000. The indictments were the outcome of interviews based to the railroad company by the American Casualty Insurance and Security company, which became lost when the railroad company had transfer up the company's assets amounting from the great Vanderbilt domain. The indictments that cost of the Long Island American Casualty Insurance and Security company to collapse.

Several financial men have been engaged in public work in the city for years, have resigned as special policemen and are given two days' work each. Strenuous efforts are being made to feed the hungry. A large amount of relief money and provisions have just been received from England. Thousands of people have starved in orderly demonstrated and shipping. Hunger are approaching it as a last resort. A report of trouble is expected for to-morrow. Thousands of the clergy to the catholic world. Pray and to bring out the Mexican Union, the United States and Canada.

THE DATES ARRANGED FOR.

Northern Pacific Land Grants.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Senator Power introduced to the Senate and received his efforts to pass a bill for the adjustment of the unearned lands of the Northern Pacific grant. He is typical of securing the passage of the House and secure a government, and was in day vested that no more patents would be issued to these lands while the present Congress is in session.

National Printers' Home.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Jan. 24.—There has been in contemplation for some time a plan to establish a National printers' home at this point. The Excelsior Springs company has interested itself in the project and has agreed to give ten acres of ground, or more, if necessary, for the site. The general idea of the home is that it shall be national in character, with contributions, under rules, to the needy members of the craft in all sections of the country.

Will Resume at Work.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 24.—At a largely attended meeting of coal miners at Belleville, Ill., last night, called in consequence of the recent general strike throughout that district, the submission sentiment prevailed and the men will resume at work.

President Not One Term.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The House committee on election of President and Vice President today agreed to report a joint resolution amending the Constitution so as to provide that the President shall be eligible to serve but one term. There was no dissenting vote.

CONFLAGRATION WITH CANADA

Regarded as Inevitable by the People of Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 24.—Confederation with Canada is becoming more and more favorably received daily. The political parties regard it as inevitable. Efforts trying to settle the other in the matter of securing favorable terms of admission into the Dominion. Articles on the subject from Canadian papers are being copied with favorable comments.

Sir William Whiteway will succeed Hector Grace, the representative of which commissary, R. S. Monk, has lately died. His election is considered certain and it is probable that he will have no opposition.

Upon his return to the legislature he will undertake the management of public affairs. He is after that he will be able to carry unbeatable early. His followers in the legislature intended to resign the government unless he and the other leaders of Liberal party were reinstated. The energy is doing so continue and will be prolonged this work.

EXERCISE IN HIS HOUSEHOLD.

The Experience of a Wealthy Farmer.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 24.—In 1891 James T. Strong, a wealthy farmer of this county, was afflicted with insanity and sent to the asylum. During his trial in the entire seventy he asserted that his administrator, John Donnelly, in collusion with Mr. Strong, had given to him a drug calculated to poison him or destroy his reason. The Strong estate consisted of several thousand dollars worth of personal property and for sale at valuable land. During Strong's confinement Donnelly, acting as guardian of the estate, sold some of the estate and substantial of the property.

Strong was finally released in sanity and returned home. His wife then refused to live with him longer. This he attributed to the service of Donnelly, and began a number of suits, which resulted in setting aside several of the conveyances made by Donnelly.

Strong continued to assert that his mental sanity was passed by Donnelly and Mrs. Strong by the use of some drug and Donnelly eventually brought suit against Strong for $10,000 damages for slander and defamation of character. Mr. Strong was cured by divorce, the custody of the children and a division of the property.

During the last two years Donnelly and Strong, who were both well to do, have squandered nearly all their property in fighting each other through the courts. Donnelly is over 70 years old.

Scott's Narrative Shown.

OMAHA, Jan. 24.—A special to the Bee from O'Neill, Neb., says:

The work done was done in the Scott case yesterday, when Attorney Gen. Churchill was here, has been profitable of important results. There are a score of farmers living between O'Neill and the Niobrara River who were known to have some knowledge of the kidnaping. When the attorney general guaranteed them protection fully twenty of them admitted that they had been approached and asked to join the marauders. Others had seen the band during the transportation from to which the tragedy occurred, and had heard a pretty connection of the identity of some of the captors.

SEALING REGULATIONS.

Said to be Agreed Upon Between This Country and England.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 24.—A dispatch from Washington, stating that Great Britain and the United States have agreed upon regulations to govern fishing sea lot fisheries during the season of 1895, has created much surprise here, to official circles nothing whatever is known of it. Sir Charles Tupper could not believe the story to be true. It is known that last year Canada objected to the provision for the seizure of ships on Canadian soil, and it is believed strong representations were recently forwarded to the home government, pointing out the injustice which a provision of this kind worked last year against Canadian sealers and pointing against a similar arrangement being made for the coming season. But the Washington dispatch includes this objection provision to the regulations, which it alleges to have been adopted.

WILL ADJOURN.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Jan. 24.—Agent Pennoyer of the Union Consolidation, says that seventy-five Knots in the city for the seventy seventy-six stones as a meeting of the council in Pinsbach hall, have refused their names to an agreement to adjourn the present labor troubles to a board of arbitration. There is much satisfaction at this aspect of the situation.

Fifty mounties were left Flushing Avenue station this morning to open the Crosstown lines. The cars were started by Lieutenant Gilmore and the Flushing Avenue. The first car which left the stable was held at Franklin street and there Point avenue by the strikers. All the windows were broken, but the police soon had their clubs freely and the car was taken through the mob. The motorman was hit by a brick and flying glass. No one else was injured.

At 5 o'clock a car on Grand street car was stoned at Hamilton street and the court street crowd was dispersed by the police.

ANOTHER STRIKER KILLED.

Thomas Kearney, the roofer shot in the head by a policeman at Ninth street and Third avenue, yesterday, is dead.

WILL COMPEL THE ROADS TO ARBITRATE.

Submit the Public.

Justice Gaynor of the supreme court located down a motion today on application of Joseph Lemon for a mandamus to compel the Brooklyn Heights railroad to agree to the case in sufficient numbers to accommodate the people in Fulton street district, the Fulton avenue, Clinton and Clarke and Tompkins avenue lines. He signifies the intention of granting the mandamus, the form to be determined upon after argument of counsel in court tomorrow.

Lemon, upon whose application the writ of mandamus is issued, is a shoemaker who alleges his business suffers by reason of the failure of the company to operate the lines. Judge Gaynor will hear counsel tomorrow on the question whether the writ shall be peremptory or alternate.

STRIKERS DESPONDENT.

At the strike headquarters today it is the general opinion that the city strike is about to run its course. The strikers seemed despondent. There will be a conference this afternoon, it is said, to discuss the propriety of calling off the strike.

ATTACKED FOR VIOLATION OF HABEAS CORPUS.

Joseph P. Pattee and John Coupon have applied through Benjamin N. Hitsons to Justice Gaynor of the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus looking to the release of twenty-six motormen and conductors alleged to be imprisoned in Henry street station. The writ was granted, returnable at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Pattee and Coupon say they and others were brought in Monday under false pretenses, having been given to understand by the railroad company that they were to work on the elevated lines. They got here on Wednesday evening and said that they have been confined in the station ever since. Pattee and Chaplin compel from the court and reported to the authors' headquarters.

Money for Brooklyn Strikers.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—At a meeting of the executive board of Boston street car men's union 587, American Federation of Labor, at union headquarters, it was voted to send $500 to the Brooklyn strikers. It was voted to assess every member of the union weekly until the end of the strike, and a committee was appointed to go to Brooklyn and confer with the executive board of said district assembly to ascertain in how they can best aid the street car men of Brooklyn. The board also appropriated the sum of $100 for the striking shoe workers of Haverhill.

Probably the Citizens.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan. 24.—A steamer's hull, probably that of the Citizens, was seen floating off Glenn Haven, twenty miles north, at noon today.

Ya Yamato and other Japanese warships were landed commissions or marines, who, not with but Reels resistance from the Chinese troops, supported by the guns mounted ashore. The fire of these guns was answered from the Japanese boats and the Chinese eventually dispersed when the guns of the Japanese warships opened fire upon them.

The Japanese landing was effected without any loss being sustained by the invaders, and the best place previously mentioned were occupied by the marines landed from the Ya Yamato. Immediately after were the landing of the Japanese troops began and was easily accepted when the Sahoma Maru left Yung Chang Sunday last.

Two English women, one German woman and two Chinese women, who were found in the district of the Shan Tung neighborhood, were placed under some pay as they had been receiving, and were instructed in the business of commercial and other traffic at sea.

KILLED BY A JURY.

A Newspaper Man and a Witness in an Important Case.

No Republic in Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—In the discussion of Lodge's Hawaiian resolution in the Senate today, Gorman (Maryland) made a similar argument to show that there was no popular suffrage and no real republican form of government in Hawaii.

The County Court.

At yesterday Commissioner's session of the county court Robert R. Alderson was appointed to sell the books of the late county clerk for the year 1893-4, in pursuance of the resolution adopted at the last session.

Another real superior was "let out," it is stated, the victim being George Kilgore, of Murray. Kilgore disregarded the order of the court regarding him to cease work and continue to put in time watching people work out their poll tax.

George E. Ford and J. Hoffman sent in applications for appointment as expert accountants, which were filed. Similar action was taken on the application of George E. Ellis, for a position as foreman at the boiler house.

The board will meet again tomorrow at ten o'clock.

A DISPUTED WATER RIGHT.

An Action Lodged Against Beautiful City in Regard Thereto.

Ann Marshall this morning placed a suit in the Third district court against Beautiful City and Lamont Holmes, mayor, under these circumstances: Plaintiff has been a resident of Beautiful for the past twenty-five years and during the entire period has owned and occupied some twenty-five acres of land there. She states that in early times the mill creek ditch stream was diverted from its channel to Denver and she, a petition of the water board appropriated by plaintiff for irrigating purposes. The ditch conveying the water she has maintained in the entire interval. Defendants now claim, however, to have some right or interest in said land and water, which claim, she says, is without foundation, that she made a good upon her title, and that defendants threaten to enforce the sale of her irreparable injury.

Hence she prays that they be enjoined from further interference in the premises, that they be required to set forth in their answer the nature of their alleged right and title to said land and water rights, and that her rights be confirmed in the premises. Dominus are also prayed for in the sum of $2,000 and costs.

Williams Thomas and J. A. Hamilton are the plaintiff's attorneys.

MORE TIME CONTINUED.

The matter of the Ogden Hot Springs was then called upon Mr. Hilton stated either the attorney, Mr. Morris, had been notified of the case. City on important business, and he doubted the case be ready for today.

Judge Hoge said he was anxious to get Morris to be with the case, but if it must go over he desired that it be positively for the last time.

Mr. Hilton was willing that the testimony of Frederick Butler, in the Herald, should be taken, and he was therefore sworn. He produced a having received $10 from Mr. Hoge and $7.50 from Mr. Hilton for the position. In answer to the question, "Is Morris, the Times being the real owner of the Herald, tell Mr. Hilton stated there was a mistake in the publication of the notice and the matter was compromised by Hilton paying $7.50. Afterwards Mr. Hoge came and paid the full amount, $10, stating that there was no mistake in the notice. Witness said Mr. Hilton could have his money back when he would call for it.

The other witnesses were excused and the case was set for Tuesday, January 31st.

Married Today.

A Salt Lake couple named Philip Dietz and Jennie Peck were united in marriage this afternoon by Commissioner McNulty, in the presence of a few friends.

FROM SOUTHERN UTAH.

Silver is a Grandstone—Brilliants Miners—Prospectors Leads.

HELENA REST, January 9, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

The discovery of silver in the vicinity of this place was one of the wonders of this age. The opinion of miners previous to that discovery is well illustrated by an incident that occurred to Pardee. In that game there was no assayer who almost invariably gave large assays. He was followed with the premier locality of being able to extract the precious metal from the worthless rock. Pardee said, "The miners concluded to let the abilities in assayers. Accordingly a piece was chipped from a grindstone and sent to the unsuspecting assayer. The test was made, showing a fourth of an ounce to the ton. Mr. Hogan and Mr. Mr. Mr.
