TELEGRAPHIC.

LENZ THE CYCLER.

HOLDING HIGH TO ATTAINS DURING THE HARVEST.

SOLVED THE MURDERERS KNOWN

Residents, Who Hold in Search of the Missing Pittsburg Man, Arrive in Denver.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 23.—A number of people who have come from the south in search of Frederick Pitzer, who was missing while attempting to ride around the world on a bicycle, are here.

It is reported that William A. Rockefeller has sold to Marcus Daly, in the form of a mining property, in the form of a mining property, in consideration of $1,000,000, the mines of the Anaconda, Butte and Boston.

BOOK PAGES OF DEATH.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 23.—F. B. Hall, superintendent of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, and Dr. C. H. C. Ayres, who were murdered at Hong Kong, were passengers from the Orient on the steamer City of Peking, which left Hong Kong on April 18. The steamer is expected to arrive in this port on the 27th. Mr. Hall was on his way home to spend a year with his family in Chicago. Dr. Ayres was a graduate of Rush Medical College, and had been in the employ of the Chinese government for some time. The murders were committed by the crew of the steamer, and the men were taken to Hong Kong and turned over to the British authorities.

A CONDITION OF WRECK.

Of Sailing Vessels of the Pacific Northwest.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—The Treasury Bureau, in its monthly report of the commerce of Oregon, Washington and Alaska, shows that there were cleared during the month of April from Portland, Oregon, 17 vessels, of 12,000 tons, for foreign ports, and 3 vessels, of 1,000 tons, for Australian ports, and 1 vessel, of 1,000 tons, for Victoria, B. C., and 1 vessel, of 1,000 tons, for Victoria, B. C., and 1 vessel, of 1,000 tons, for Victoria, B. C.,