ROME FOR THE POPE.

Wealthy Spaniards Thinking of Purchasing Italy's Capital.

AND RESTORING PAPAL POWER.

Roman Catholics in this Country Place no Credence in these Rumors.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Roman Catholics of Chicago place little credence in the story from London that there is a project on foot, advanced by a number of wealthy Spaniards to purchase Rome from Italy and thus free the pope from what is construed his imprisonment, although voluntary, and make him again a temporal ruler.

Taking everything into consideration local dignitaries and laymen who are more or less familiar with papal possibilities and conditions, look upon the report as originating in some source for notoriety, or the product of an overzealous and imaginative individual. It is not believed Rome could be purchased from the Italian government for any purpose, and then, admitting such a possibility, the pope could not give his consent to accept the dominion. The attitude of the pope in holding that the papal throne has been deprived wrongfully of its power, is known throughout the world, but he wonders how will right the wrong without any worldly question of money or even of force.

NO SIGNS OF INDIANS.

Gen. Coppinger Says Jackson's Hole is in No Danger.

MARYSVALE, Wyo., Aug. 5.—[By courier to Market Lake.]—General Coppinger is now satisfied that the Jackson's Hole country is freed from Indians. Scouting parties sent out a week ago by the soldiers are coming in with reports of no signs of Indians.

Scouts came in today who secured the entire country south at Yellowstone Park to Marysvale and east to the route taken by tourists into the park. They saw no Indians nor signs of any.

Authentic information was received by General Coppinger that the Indians to the number of 200, who quitted Jackson's Hole valley, have returned to Fort Hall reservation. They were on the way to Jackson's Hole but turned back when they learned troops were going into the region. The commanding officer Coppinger, will remain at Marysvale at least until the detachment of scouts sent out into the Hole's hole returns, which will be in ten days. Marysvale is the central point of the threatened region and Indians who might come from any of the four surrounding reservations can be needed all from this point and turned back.

Disappearance of a Good Woman.

ARCADIA, Neb., Aug. 5.—This section of Nebraska is much disturbed over the remarkable circumstances surrounding the sudden disappearance of Mrs. E. T. Gardner, who left Arcadia July 8th to attend the Christian Endeavor at Boston. She was a leader of these allegiance to the cause, a delegate. Then all traces of her were suddenly lost and the most diligent search has failed to solve the mystery surrounding her disappearance.

Stabbed to Death.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 5.—An alleged has been held upon the body of Jesus Olmoy Contreras, the newspaperman and journalist was assassinated in Puebla. It revealed the fact that he had been stabbed forty-two times to the chest and would probably have been stabbed oftener had not one of the daggers been broken, the blade remaining imbedded in the muscles. The heart was traversed twice by a weapon wielded by a very strong hand and with sure aim. Other stabs might apparently have been given by blind men, as will was their direction. Nothing at present is known as to the author of the deed, but indications show clearly that it was an act of private vengeance, done by men who so filled their crime as to elude the vigilance of two policemen who were in the neighborhood of the street where the body was found.

Exceptionally Pretty Process.

TACOMA, Wn., Aug. 5.—Homing pigeons sent out by the Union with mountain climbers have returned with messages stating that Fred H. Cowles, Walter M. Bosworth and Fred Evans, nearly all experienced mountain climbers, had been badly frozen in attempting to reach the summit of Mount Tacoma. The messages say the wind is blowing a gale. The pigeons were released at a height of 12,000 feet, at a point known as the "Camp of the clouds."

Alleged Bigamy in Jail.

ASTORIA, Oregon, Aug. 5.—Joseph Wingers (Rogers), recently sentenced as the champ of Hoboken, is in jail here charged with obtaining $25 from Father Diemann, a Catholic priest of Portland, under false pretenses. He arrives here yesterday on a steamer from Portland and at once began operations, introducing himself to Father Diemann as the Catholic bishop of Hoboken.

Only Two Days Left.

TABER, Iowa, Aug. 5.—The Holiness people have been holding meetings in this city the last week. They claim to have had a divine revelation that the world will come to an end within ten days.

The Holiness adherents here united (unbelieve this a fraud and the meetings are attended by multitudes).

Some of their leaders announce positively the early destruction of the world and many other converts are looking prepared to meet death.

MOB VIOLENCE.

Negro Rioters Attacked by Indignant White Laborers.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 5.—For London, Wyoming, of which Indianapolis and company houses near N. Y. Central, inhabited and of exclusively to colored men, was the scene of a mob, by a crowd of 300 white laborers in the city and gives a total of about 700 men. Last Night that occurred. Five months ago 100 negroes were brought here to take the place of white men who were on a strike for higher wages. Last night the white laborers to the number of 300 marched to the place of the negroes, and gave them a warning to leave town. Last
