NEWS OF THE WEST.

Los Angeles' City Chain Gang Makes a Wholesale Break for Liberty.

A RAILROAD COMPANY ATTACHED.

Fire at a Children's Home—Bitterroot Suicides—Salvation Army Charioteers.

The supervisors of San Bernardino county, Cal., have repealed the jackrabbit bounty.

The Portland, Wash., savings bank, which was closed last July, has resumed business.

A new lode on the 1,000-foot level at the Dead Horse mine, near Sugarloaf mills, Tuolumne county, Cal., injured Albert Noel Jr. He will recover.

A big sale of Rock Springs coal land, near the Wyoming North Platte, adjoining Lord acres, and owned by English capitalists, has been made by C. D. Clark to the Union Pacific.

The largest cinnamon bear ever seen in Humboldt county, Cal., has just been shot and killed, thirty miles north of Chico. The bear had been a terror to sheep-raisers.

Thirty thousand sheep have been driven into San Bernardino county, Cal., outside to Inyo. The owners refuse to pay taxes, and suit to collect the county tax, which amounts to $1,000. Thirty sheepmen have been arrested.

The town was full of tramps, if they can be called such, Tuesday, says the Gloversville Spring Journalist. They were begging on every street. Some of them were superior to dog men in the average tramp that goes through our state every spring and fall.

The Salvation Army gave a rousing farewell on Tuesday night to its band of charioteers at San Francisco. They set out morning on a "hallelujah tour" through the southern part of the state. They will carry a tent with seating capacity of 500, and anticipate many converts.

Alkali is rapidly obtaining a firm hold in the estimation of the stockmen and farming interests of Western Nebraska, as well as in Nebraska and Lincolnville. Inquiries have been made in greater numbers than ever before, and while many failures have been reported the general expression is one of satisfaction in the adaptation to the soil.

The Children's Home at Tomales, Cal., was burned to the ground on Tuesday afternoon. The fire occurred at such an hour, however, that the children found it an easy matter to escape, and the attendants removed the infants without any trouble. It was a very fortunate fire in some ways, or had it occurred at night there would undoubtedly have been some loss of life.

On Tuesday afternoon the entire city chain gang at Los Angeles, Cal., made a dash for liberty. Four or five unfortunate good their escape, while the remainder surrendered when the guards began firing with revolvers. Investigation revealed the fact that the rifling were nearly filed at the joints, requiring but a gentle tap to serve the tool. The men have objected to working in the sun, and it is presumed had their plans carefully with the hope that if a general break was made the majority would be able to escape from the two men who guarded them.

The San Francisco and San Mateo Railroad company has been attached by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment of $15,000 recently awarded by a jury to Mrs. Mary Mahoney. Some months previous Mrs. Mahoney's husband was killed near Ocean View by an electric car. He clearly proved negligence on the part of the motorman, and the jury awarded the widow damages. The company immediately secured a stay of proceedings and agreed to file a bond to pay the judgment in the event of defeat in the Supreme Court. This the company did not do in time, however, and Mrs. Mahoney's attorney took out an execution on the company's property.

Henry Gunson, in the employ of a dairyman some three miles from Fulton, Cal., committed suicide on Tuesday by cutting his throat. On Tuesday the cattle were driven from the upper ranch to the home farm. Gunson was left in charge of the former place. During the night the milk house took fire and was entirely consumed. This seems to have affected his mind, for as soon as he had finished his string of cows he walked to the gate of the corral, saying "Goodby, John," to the owner's brother, who was still milking. Taking a razor from his pocket he swept it across his throat, making a gash that severed from one to ear, nearly severing his head from his body. With such force was the blow given that nearly the entire edge of the razor was in the wound. The deceased was a native of Switzerland and aged 40 or 45 years.
