CARRINGTON PARDONED

Brigham City Abortionist to be Liberated from Boothler County Jail.

ALLEGED VICTIM WAS MRS. IDA PAGE.

Defendant Said to be a Physical and Moral Wreck. Night-Jerseys Denied a Pardon.

Dr. J. D. Carrington, convicted of procuring an abortion on Mrs. Ida Page, at Brigham City in 1895, and later sentenced to one year in the Boothler county jail, will, in all probability, be dinner with his family tomorrow, the defendant having been pardoned by the board of pardons yesterday.

The case attracted considerable attention at the time owing to the prominence of the parties. Dr. Carrington, Miss Nicholas to Brigham City in '95, as to our church, and

Dr. Carrington was released on bail and joined his bride. He was subsequently convicted of Denver, on the indictment of his husband and taken back to the Salt Lake prison, pending a trial of the case.

The second upon which he parties was argued today was by physical and mental condition, which was said to be so bad that further incarceration would probably result fatally.

Carrington served six months of his term.

The board also passed upon other cases yesterday.

The application of Night Jersey for a pardon was denied.

Application of David Mackay for parole was postponed upon the request of applicant.

Application of Geo. E. Booth for parole was postponed on applicant's request.

A decision upon the application of Geo. N. Kennedy for parole was reserved until the next meeting of the board.

Building Permits.

Following are the building permits issued by Inspector Folsom during the past week:

Henry Novell, 247 E. First South, two story brick, $6,000.

H. D. Ritchie, 225 south Twelfth East, two story brick, $3,000.

E. C. M. I., rear of Co-op, two story brick stable, $1,000.

Joseph Pierce, 232 West Fourth South, brick cottage, $700.

Miscellaneous, $100. Making a total of $12,800.

CAMBRIAN DAY AT SALTAIR.

A Large Crowd and a Pleasant Time at the Big Resort.

Cambrian day at Saltair yesterday was an immense affair. From every point of view, attendance, music, and a few time-everything particularly to a happy occasion was everywhere visible. Here and there were groups converging to the mother tongue, and when their native songs were sung their enthusiasm was boundless. All ages were represented from the prattling baby to the man and woman of advanced years.

The partaken indulged in in the afternoon was as usual, bathing and the facilities for the purpose, which are well known to be ample, were taken advantage of.

The exercises in extension occurred late in the afternoon.

In the swimming contest for men, W. P. Davis was declared the winner and in the latter contest, Mrs. J. H. Hanson bore away the honors.

In the evening Prof. Stephens delighted the audience with some choruses that are to be sung at the approaching Eisteddfod. They are All Men, All Things, Praise the Lord, Night Song, and All Through the Night.

Madam Swanson also entertained her hearers very delightfully with two ladies' duets, Sweet Spring Time, and When Love is Kind. D. R. Davis sang very acceptably, Miss Wilde Ty Wenlen, the audience joining with a will in the chorus.

Mr. Aldrich of the Roger school rendered Pop Goes the Weasel, the audience joining in chorus of laughter at his exquisite impersonation.

Prizes were awarded in the competitive exhibitions, and prizes awarded as follows: Best "Beauty of poetry," Ann Elizabeth Jones; "Beauty of the Alone, Man and Mrs. Wyman, the oldest woman, Ann Jones, aged 71 years, and the first born in the new dancing contest, Percy Phillips, aged 6 years and 3 months, and W. H. Jones, aged 40 years, the third.

The oldest woman at the beach was 85 years of age, and the oldest man by the person of D. J. Thomas, was 81 years, and a member of T. Evans has the most descendants of any one, bore away the honors. Mrs. Edwin Thomas had the largest family of children.

The visitors from Utah Ogden were seven from Ogden, the Mormon, Kimball, and Lake Utah, 1,000, 1,200, 1,300, 1,400, 1,500, 1,600, 1,700, 1,800, 1,900, 2,000, 2,100, 2,200, 2,300, 2,400, 2,500, 2,600, 2,700, 2,800, 2,900, 3,000, 3,100, 3,200, 3,300, 3,400, 3,500, 3,600, 3,700, 3,800, 3,900, 4,000, 4,100, 4,200, 4,300, 4,400, 4,500, 4,600, 4,700, 4,800, 4,900, 5,000, 5,100,