CANNON-BROWN

First United States Senators from Utah.

CANNON 43 VOTES; BROWN 41

Cullom and Morrill Bolt the Republican Caucus.

BENNETT, ONE VOTE; GOODWIN, ONE

Democratic Last Twenty Ballots Solid for Rawlins and Thatcher for Senators.

The interest manifest among the people of voting for senators in the Legislature this afternoon was very marked. President Cullom in greater numbers than previous days sent to the Legislative halls the sergeant-at-arms of both houses. Among the visitors were a considerable number of ladies. Cannon and Brown were elected. In the Senate they received the full Republican strength and in the House Cannon was given all of the votes at the disposal of his party—41—while Brown, his colleague, got 41. Rawlins and Thatcher, in both branches, got all the Democratic votes.

The Senate was called to order at 2:00 p. m. by President Cannon, after which prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Sutton. The journal of yesterday's proceedings was read and disposed of without amendment.

A communication from Governor Wolcott was received accompanied by the printed report of the board of equalization of the State for 1895. Filed.

Communications were received from the House announcing the passage of the bill to protect employes and allowing them to belong to labor organizations; the passage of the bill ceding the "Arizona strip" to Utah; the passage of the bill providing for regular and contingent expenses of the first State Legislature; the passage of a resolution for H. R. 17, relating to justices of the peace; the passage of the joint bill appropriating $500 to Private McDonald, a member of the National Guard, seriously and permanently injured while in the discharge of his duty; the return of the Senate the silver memorial introduced by Allison. The bills named were referred to appropriate committees while the memorial was passed by a unanimous vote.

Allison presented "by request" a petition from the citizens of Ogden city and Weber county asking that the anti-polygamy law and police law be not repealed. Referred.

Allison introduced a bill for an act to provide free county intelligence offices for youths (boys and girls), to indentureship and training youths in their homes, to imprisonment of youths apart from all criminals, and to protect children in disciplinary and immoral cases.

The committee on judiciary reported adversely on a dozen of bills and in each instance their report was adopted.

THE VOTE FOR SENATOR.

The time for voting for United States Senators in accordance with the Constitution and resolution previously adopted was announced by President of the Senate Cannon. A viva voce vote was immediately taken resulting in the election of Hon. Frank J. Cannon and Hon. Arthur Brown, who each received twelve votes, the full Republican strength.

Hons. J. L. Rawlins and Hon. Moses Thatcher were given the votes of the five Democratic members present. One Democrat, Senator Barnes, who is still a very sick man, was absent.

The President announced the election of Messrs. Cannon and Brown, whereupon there was a ripple of applause from the Republican side of the House, after which a recess of fifteen minutes was taken.

House Proceedings.

After the roll call in the House today, John Henry Smith, the president of the Constitutional Convention, took a seat on the stand and was introduced to the assembly by Speaker Denny.

The reading of Saturday's journal was then proceeded with, and after its approval, the committee on penitentiary bill return, in reporting on H. R. No. 18, recommended its approval with a few minor amendments. On motion of Taylor the report was laid over to be considered by the committee of the whole.

The committee on rules recommended the non-passage of the amendments offered to rules 29 and 35, and on motion of Clardon action was deferred to take up in the committee of the whole.

The committee on ways and means having had under consideration H. R. 37, recommended its passage with a few minor amendments.

The special order of the day, that of voting for United States senators, was then proceeded with, each member rising and naming his choice. The result is as follows:

For Frank J. Cannon—Beard, Bolton, Candlish, Cattle, Critchlow, Cushing, Dixon, Clark, Ferguson, of Carbon, Gibbs, Harris, Heiner, Lewis, Lowrey, Morrisch, Merrill, Nebeker, of Salt Lake, Nye, Radalia, Rooney, Stevens, Sweeney, Shaler, Seary, Taylor, Thomas, Thompson, of Sanpete, Thompson, of Millard, Wilcox, Mr. Speaker. Total, 43.

For Arthur Brown—Beard, Bolton, Candlish, Cattle, Critchlow, Carter, Clark, Farnsworth of Salt Lake, Ferguson of Carbon, Gibbs, Harris, Heiner, Lewis, Lowrey, Merrisch, Nebeker of Salt Lake, Nye, Radalia, Robinson, Rooney, Stevens, Sweeney, Shaler, Seary, Taylor, Thomas, Thompson, of Sanpete, Thompson, of Millard, Wilcox, Mr. Speaker. Total, 41.

Hon. C. C. Goodwin and Judge Bennett each received one vote, Morrill supporting the former and Cushing the latter. All the Democratic members stood firmly and solidly by their candidates, Joseph L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher, each receiving 14 votes.

When the vote was announced a committee of three was appointed to conduct the successful candidates to the House chamber, and after a few minutes wait they entered amid tumultuous cheering and applause.

Senator Brown spoke substantially as follows: I have come at your request to return unto you my heartfelt thanks for your action in my behalf this afternoon. In doing so I remember the great responsibility which will devolve upon me, and however unequal to the task I may be, I can assure you that I will always be found trying to do my humble duty to the people who sent me to represent them. One of my greatest aims will be to hoist the cause of silver, at the needed ratio of 16 to 1, and not only will I use my greatest efforts in behalf of silver, but I hope I will always be found striving in my weak way to work for the advancement of Utah's interests in general." (Great applause.)

Senator Frank J. Cannon then arose and said in part:

Citizens of Utah, for what you have conferred upon me I think you. It is beyond what I at present deserve, but not I hope above what my future actions will deserve. In your voting today you have voted for free men, and in electing Mr. Brown and myself to represent you in the legislative halls of the nation, you send us as representatives of a free State. The actions of this legislative body in electing us, have been actions unstained and unblemished. For the present condition of this State we should thank God and for the honor you have conferred upon me I thank you most heartily.

On motion of Condon of Weber, the House adjourned until 12 o'clock tomorrow.

THIEDE CHILD ADOPTED.

Daughter of the Notorious and Doomed Wife Murderer Given a Home and New Name.

Little Anna Thiede, the only child of the notorious Murray wife murderer whose life is shortly to be terminated under the affirmation of the highest judicial tribunal of the State, was today given a new home and a new name.

Hereafter she will be known as Mary Louise Keenan, the adopted daughter of Mrs. Louisa C. Keenan, who brought little unpleasant notoriety here a year or two ago by the elopement of her husband with Miss Degen. The application for adoption was heard by Judge McNally, and as there was no objection to such a proceeding, the case was speedily and formally disposed of. The career of little Anna, or Mary as she will now be called will be closely watched by persons who are given to the study of heredity and psychology. She is said to be a child naturally fractious to evil ways and the possessor of a temper like unto that of a savage. Mrs. Keenan fully realizes the responsibility she has incurred in the adoption of the waif and will make every effort to educate her in the ways of uprightness.

W. C. A. Smoot vs. Pacific Lumber & Building company; motion to retax and for new trial heard.

Judge Young announced this morning that Judge McNally would hear all probate cases until further notice.

Judge Hawat's Court.

The following business was disposed of before Judge Hawat today:

Deseret National Bank vs. Little-Roundy & company; asked leave to intervene for certain labor claims; granted.

H. Dinwoodey vs. Maria Schooley; decree of foreclosure by default and $200 attorney's fee allowed.

Salt Lake Lithographing company vs. Ibex Mine company; J. T. Richards and R. K. Smith leave given to file amended answer to cross-complaint of W. S. McCornick.

McClure vs. Little; demurrer to complaint and motion to strike out.

Louis Snyder, Sons & Co., vs. E. Henrichs Graham et al; motion set aside, default and leave to answer, argued and submitted.

Hooke, Arnold & Co. vs. Henry Kinsman et al; demurrer to complaint; motion to strike out heard.

Chas. Bachus vs. E. E. Rich; stricken from the calendar by consent.

John W. Smith vs. Andrew Gabbardi et al; demurrer to complaint; argued and overruled.

Caroline Wallack vs. L. Thompson et al; decree for quieting title.

Before Judge Hiles.

Judge Hiles heard cases today as follows:

A. Kahn & Bros. vs. John Harrington et al; motion for a new trial; argued and taken under advisement.

H. P. Bauer vs. Salt Lake Hardware company; case under consideration this afternoon.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Manti Sentinel: Several good prospects have been found close around Manti during the past few days. Assays have given as high as $17 in gold. There is not much excitement, but the work is going on all right.....Mrs. Thomas Wesley died on Friday morning of pneumonia. She is one of the Nauvoo Mormons, and has seen all the changes incident to the settlement of this country.....The city council had an extraordinary session last night, and decided they would not give the usual license to the saloons. So our saloons will close tomorrow night and we will once more become prohibitionists.

Mt. Pleasant Pyramid: There is quite an epidemic of measles in town which has been prevalent for some time. The family of Robert Brown of Indianola died eight days with the affliction.....Hyrum Vance came down from Fairview last week to have ground a wound which he received in Independence day by the bursting of a gun. No serious effect will follow the accident.....Mrs. Madsen, whose husband was accidentally killed some years ago by having a rock fall on his head while digging a well, sustained a fracture of her left ankle one evening last week by falling on some ice. She is getting along very well.....Peter Peterson of Fairview was in our city last week to have injuries attended to. While cutting timber east of Fairview, he struck his axe into a log, which lay on a incline, to swing it around. It glanced rather like he expected it would, and he was thrown a distance of several feet, sustaining a fracture and dislocation of the radius of the left arm.

Iron County Record: So far this winter Cedar City and Iron county in general have experienced very mild weather, with a few exceptions. In fact we are now having healthy weather, with warm sunny days.....There is at best the industry in the neighborhood that seems to be paying, and at the same time benefiting the cattle range, Mr. Hope Hicks, who some time ago stacked an ant factory in our county, is now doing quite a flourishing business. As stated in another article in this paper, he recently bought eight head of cayuse ponies for a little over 15 cents per head, from which he extracts from three to five gallons of oil each. For this he finds a ready market at $1.25 a gallon.

Bingham Bulletin: It is announced that O. H. Harry has turned over his electrical franchise in this camp to the Salt Lake City and Ogden Electric Light company, and that the corporation propose to at once extend the lines to Bingham to supply it with power and light. This is great news for our mines, and mill and business men.

Eastern Utah Advocate: Taylor Wilson, of Wellington, skipped out last summer with a warrant for attempted rape close behind him. He gave himself up a few days ago surprising, it is said, that Carbon county has a new prosecuting attorney. Wilson waived examination in Wellington and was held in $1,000 bonds. In default of the amount he is holding down the county jail. The case is a very aggravated one and will be fought to a finish.

Brigham City Bugler: The wager between D. H. Peery Jr. and A. E. Shaw, mentioned in the last issue of The Bugler, should have read: $750 deposited, $500 by Mr. Peery and $250 by Mr. Shaw. The former bet that Frank J. Cannon would be elected, the latter that he would not. Cannon's election is made a sure thing by the Republican caucus Tuesday evening unanimously demaring in favor of him, and so Mr. Peery will rake in the stakes.

Personal Paragraphs.

E. H. Snow, of Corinne, is at the Walker.

O. E. Ames arrived from San Francisco this morning and registered at the Knutsford.

E. Kent and J. A. Sears, of Butte, are guests at the Knutsford.

O. S. James and wife, of St. Paul, E. W. Tyman, of New York city, and Frank W. Taylor, of Chicago, are arrivals at the Templeton this morning.

NO GUM CHEWING IN CHURCH.

CREASYTOWN GIRLS WERE FINED FOR INDULGING IN THE HABIT.

A very interesting case was heard recently in the police court in Cumberland, Pa., in which two young and pretty girls figured as prisoners before the bar of justice. Rev. Mr. Gilliam, pastor of a church at Creasytown, a village six miles from that place, swore out a warrant against the girls, charging them with disturbing public worship. They were brought to this city and committed to jail, when they were taken before the public judge for trial.

Rev. Mr. Gilliam was placed on the stand, and stated that he had been conducting a revival, and that the girls had a habit of taking a front seat in the church and chewing gum to such a noisy manner as to disturb his congregation. He also stated that he had a brother of one of the girls about it, when his sister came down and up the aisle and made a mouth at him. The minister remonstrated with the young woman, when her sister jumped forward, and he placed his hand on her shoulder and told her to go out and never come back again.

The girls went out and dared him to come in the middle. He went out, when a regular scene took place. One of the girls shook her fist in his face and called him a liar. Several other witnesses were examined, who swore that the girls had cultivated public worship by chewing gum and laughing and talking. The magistrate imposed fines and costs amounting to $25, which were paid.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

JUSTICE FIELD

Will Retire and be Succeeded by Judge H. M. Ross.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—A special to the Daily News from Washington says:

Associate Justice Field will go upon the retired list at the end of this term of court, if he keeps the promise he made recently to the President and Senator White, of California. The senator is authority for the above statement and for the information that Justice Field's successor has been practically agreed upon in the person of Judge Erskine M. Ross, whom President Cleveland in the first term appointed on the United States circuit bench in California. Judge Ross' nomination will be satisfactory to Justice Field.

JUSTICE FIELD DENIES IT.

Washington, Jan. 21.—When Justice Field was asked today regarding the report that he will retire at the end of this term, he said:

"No such statement has been authorized by me. Of course a man at my time of life may retire from the bench any time. If my health should not permit me to attend my bench properly, I should not hesitate to leave the bench, but as long as I could attend to these duties with ease, I have no intention of retiring. At present my health is very good. Should I again be ill as I was last year, I should not hesitate to retire. Those stories in regard to my intention of retiring have been circulated repeatedly, but without any authority.

Kentucky Senatorial Election.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 21.—Notwithstanding the promise to postpone the senatorial election till next month, both branches of the legislature balloted today separately as follows:

Senate—Hunter 18, Blackburn 18, scattering 3.

House—Hunter, 52; Blackburn 40; scattering 7.

Total—Hunter, 67; Blackburn, 58, scattering 11.

Blackburn did not hold the Democratic vote.

Poer (Populist) voted for Clarence F. Bates, Populist. If he had voted for Hunter as expected, the latter would still have been one short, as sixty nine votes are necessary to a choice.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, JAN. 21, 1896.

Reception to Senator Cannon.

Committees have been selected to make arrangements for a public reception at the Reed hotel to F. J. Cannon on Wednesday evening next.

Notes.

At the meeting of the city council last night Mayor Spencer sent in the same nominations which he did at the last meeting—H. H. Henderson for city attorney, R. C. Home city assessor, E. H. Sprague street supervisor. Council of Councilman Jones each nomination was laid on the table.

At the regular meeting of the county court yesterday, Probate Judge Corey was absent, being no longer a member. Salesman Collins was appointed chairman. Rich Elder county asked to borrow $10,000 at the sinking fund at Weber county interest 6 per cent per annum.

It is reported that the Ogden Power Power company has closed a deal with eastern capitalists which gives the company a million and a half dollars to continue work with.

Mrs. Pingel, who resides at 2208 Adams avenue, had her clothing, which was hanging out on the line, cut all to pieces last night.

Mrs. Myrtle Shaw, one of Ogden's old and respected citizens, died yesterday at the age of 51 years.
