NOTICE.

To Sunday School Superintendents of Salt Lake City, Farmers, Sugar, Forest Dale and Cottonwood:

The general committee having in charge the arrangements for the Latter-day Saints' Sunday School convention to be held Nov. 20-23, desire to call your attention to the work recently sent you relating thereto. A subsidiary committee so respectfully asks for a ward, and some outlying, for names of delegates who will attend the convention. As the time for the convention is rapidly drawing near, the committee would appreciate prompt answers and names forwarded to the undersigned at the earliest possible date. Sunday, the 20th inst. will be a good opportunity to have this matter attended to. Some of your members have the more large enough to attend to the matter, and kindly hand in the names. Secretary, 60 Templeton building. Delegates from city wards will be made up of an equal number of officers and teachers in the Sunday school offices and teachers who can attend the meetings, or have some one else attend in their place, and take part in the exercises. Close contact of a number of delegates, as a ward, will be more choice of adjournment or delegates made.

GEORGE REYNOLDS,
JOSEPH W. SUMMERHAYS,
GEORGE D. PYPER,
Committee.

For Grazing Cattle.

The Strawberry Valley cattle company has filed a suit in the office of the clerk of the Federal court against J. M. Thomas Jr. and Byron Angelo to recover $2,000 for grazing defendant's cattle on the Uinta reservation, in the year over the north line of the Uinta Indian reservation in Wasatch county, Utah.

Wanted for Arrest.

A warrant has been issued by Justice Mulcahy for the arrest of Bruno Jarvinen on the charge of bootlegging. The complaint was sworn out by Charles E. White who lives at 66 over Second North street. Jarvin is a son of some 16 years of age, and is reported to be an honest lad, and is charged with entering the residence of Mr. White on the afternoon of the 4th inst. and selling a quart containing a little White something for a money.

Salpa of the Hot Springs.

It is stated on good authority that Hot Springs has lots needed by the Denver Road and Security company. It is known that ex-United States Marshal Joe Rush is in possession and has been since Monday morning. The property involves in a small way. The property was bought in 1884 at a tax sale. A few days after words acted for the property was never redeemed.

Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Company, Nos. 1, 3 and 5 Main street, is the largest and oldest Savings Bank in Utah. Its accounts are now opened since the bank was established in 1873. Have you an account? If not, start one now.
