SENSATIONAL ELOPEMENT.

Mrs. John Young and James Mitchell Leave Utah for Chicago Together.

Information has come to this city of a sensational elopement from Fort Duchesne. C. W. Caldwell, who resides there, and who is a man of considerable business experience, arrived in Salt Lake from there yesterday evening and at once applied to Chairman Jennings of the police commission for advice, as he was greatly troubled over the runaway.

Mr. Caldwell says that he is the operator of the stage line between Fort Duchesne and Price. Among his employes was one James Mitchell, with a wife and three children. It appears that he fell desperately in love with Mrs. John Young who is a daughter of Caldwell, 35 years of age, and who has a husband on a mission in New Zealand where he has been for the last two years.

Caldwell's passion for Mrs. Young seems to have been reciprocated and they recently disappeared, and on investigation it was discovered that Mitchell had deposed of a team at Price belonging to Caldwell for the paltry sum of $25. In addition to this, however, it was known that they had at least $140. They were traced to Salt Lake and spent last Thursday at the Walker House, occupying rooms 7 and 8. It has also developed that on Friday they purchased tickets for Chicago and checked their baggage to that point. Assistant District Attorney Howat has refused to issue a warrant for their arrest for the reason that there is no evidence, in his opinion, that they have committed a crime in Utah. The fact that they occupied separate apartments at the hotel he thinks is proof of his statement.

Mrs. Young is said to be a very handsome woman. She has no children. The shipment has caused a great sensation in the locality from which the runaways came. Whether or not they will now be apprehended is uncertain.
