DESERET EVENING NEWS.

COAL AGENTS TO MEET.

Members of the New Combine Will Canvass the Situation on Wednesday Next.

The horoscope of the coal exchange is still clouded and threatening. Its members are fearful that the judicial storm that is brewing will be a severe one and in order to get in as good shape as possible before it comes a meeting will be held on Wednesday next and arrangements made to take the combine's options collars in case affairs still continue to present a gloomy aspect at that time.

Believing in the adage that in a multitude of counsel there is wisdom, the exchange will endeavor to have a full representation at its adjourned meeting. It expects also to have the advice of strong attorneys. Present prospects are that the exchange will dissolve or at least "take its hands off" and allow competitors to go into the field for public favor and patronage without any restrictions from them whatever.

The Case-Hall Contest.

Much interest is manifest among the local sporting fraternity in the proposed meet on Wednesday evening next between Dick Case, an unbeaten boxer, and Charlie Hall, otherwise known as the "Chicago butcher boy." Both men are in the "pink" of condition and promise the club an interesting set-to. There will be preliminary bouts between some of the amateurs. The exhibition will be the first of the winter series to be given in the old Independence hall, under the auspices of the Salt Lake Athletic club.

Some money has been placed in the hands of stake-holders by Salt Lake sports on the result of the Maher-O'Donnell fight which is scheduled to come off in New York tonight. Maher is looked upon as a pugilist of the first rank and O'Donnell has achieved a reputation for ability as the trainer and sparring partner of Corbett that entitles him to more that ordinary attention. The fight is for twenty-five rounds though it is in all probability will not last that long.

Lost Spectacles.

Several weeks ago a gentleman who was conversing with Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Stake, in Zion's Savings bank, left a pair of gold rimmed spectacles there, and has not called for them since. As Brother Cannon cannot recall to the gentleman who, he desires the News to state that the spectacles can be obtained by the owner upon calling at the office of the president of the stake.

A RAUL OF CHICKEN THIEVES

Made Yesterday Morning by Officers Gillespie and Sheets.

A very neat and important arrest was made yesterday by Officer Gillespie and Detective Sheets, in the shape of a capture of three purloiners of chickens, turkey, geese, and everything else of value that the trio could lay their hands on.

It came about in this way: On Saturday evening last, a message was received at the police station to the effect that a party of chicken thieves had visited the quiet little burg of American Fork, and after unknowingly depositing quite a number of the feathered tribe of that locality in a conveyance used by them for that purpose, had made their way to this city. A very accurate description of the party and their holdings, accompanied the message, but as the theft had been committed some time prior to the receipt of the news, the officers had very grave doubts as to the possibility of a capture.

However they tried it, and just as they were about to give up in despair, Officer Gillespie rung up the station from the vicinity of his home and asked that the "hurry up" and an officer be sent in double quick time, to 57 north Seventh West, where a party answering to every particular, the description received from American Fork, was busily engaged in unloading the results of an apparently successful night's raid.

The wagon arrived and in it were found 137 chickens, 10 turkeys, 2 blankets, 1 saddle, 1 harness and three men an excellent Sunday morning capture—and all of which were speedily transferred to police headquarters. The men were identified to be non-communicative but upon being interrogated as to their proud titles, they gave the names of James Determore, Gus Lees and Jarvis Hall, aged 34, 31 and 22 respectively. The men were placed behind the bars to await the arrival of the American Fork authorities, but of course they claim to be entirely free from guilt of the charge that is hanging over them. Much credit is due the officers who landed the men in jail, where they apparently properly belong.

DENVER FESTIVAL HALL.

What the Citizens of the Centennial State Capital Are Doing About the Eisteddfod.

Denver Republican: At the meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce last night, the proposition to construct an auditorium for the special purpose of accommodating the visitors to the Eisteddfod, which will be held here next autumn, was brought up and discussed. The Welsh people of the city have agreed to raise $10,000, and they say they have that amount actually in sight now. They have appealed to the chamber of commerce to take hold of the project and endeavor to provide some suitable accommodation for the crowd which will be here. Unless this is done, the only thing left for the people who have charge of the Eisteddfod will be to erect a large tent or wigwam on a cheap scale. But it is thought that with the $10,000 to start with, and the manifest necessity of providing a large place of meeting, together with the long-cherished desire to build an auditorium of some pretensions in Denver, it will be possible to secure money for that purpose.

Last night, because of the absence of President Crocker and other members of the board, it was decided to postpone consideration of the subject till next Tuesday night, when it will be made a special order of business.

Pleasant Valley Notes.

SCOFIELD, Nov. 7, 1895.—Winter seems to have set in at this place. We have about four inches of snow and the mercury has fallen below zero just to remind us of what we may expect between now and the time the blue birds fly and Reilly and his army march to Washington.

We have about the most quiet mining camp in the country. Our citizens are so peaceful that when the election did not create a disturbance.

They have found the coal in No. 1 mine again; it has jumped down ten feet.

While at Price recently your correspondent observed a fine town hall in course of erection, a brick building 55x45. Price is a thrifty farming settlement. There is considerable railroad business done at that point, but the freight and express is unloaded there for Castle Valley, also for Uinta county and the reservation. Mail for upwards of a dozen postoffices is handled at Price. The pleasant weather, beautiful grounds, etc., furnish ample evidence of the industry of the people. The town has a population of about 700 inhabitants. It has only been settled fifteen years. In fifteen more at the same growth and improvement it will be a beautiful city.

WHAT A PROMINENT CHEMIST HAS SAID.

H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 217 N. 3d St., St. Louis, writes: I had been left with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve, until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my sister, who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommend this syrup to my friends.

John Cranston, 93 Hampshire street, Quincy, Ills., writes: I have found Ballards Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 50c.

Bellore's Sore Liniment.

This liniment is different in composition from any other liniment on the market. It is a scientific discovery which results in it being the most penetrating Liniment ever known. ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McCombey finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. The same the track race, Joe Berg taking second in the novice, Fowler first, Weiler second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class B, all "Rambler" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Cortez third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit led the lead and fell, Cornibear and Weiler being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties and the race left to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Berg second and McCombey third. Fourteen prizes in one day is going enough for any one.

Poets may laugh and people may cry,
And days may be hot if they please,
But Rambler's win races wherever they go,
Regardless of how others freeze.

Moral—Buy a Rambler! Ride a winner and you'll be a spinner.
