BASEBALL AND ATHLETIC SPORTS

WORLD'S SERIES; TIGERS VS. PIRATES

Almost Certain Championship Games Will Be Between Pittsburg and Detroit—Fight in October.

A New York dispatch says:

Turn over the pages of your almanac till you come to the second week in October. Underline this with a blue pencil and you will hit upon the date wherein is the end of the week when Pittsburg and Detroit will open the world's championship series for 1909.

The Pirates will breeze in with the National league pennant. That is, barring accident to one of the main cogs of the machine—Leach, Wagner or Fred Clarke. The club isn't going to slump, evidently. The Buccaneers have about the niftiest bunch of hitters ever collected and their old pitchers are standing the gaff, with the good stick work, in grand style. Clarke really doesn't need the pitchers when you come to think it over. With the hitting his pals can furnish he can spot every ordinary team half a dozen runs and still win out.

Detroit looks better right now than at any time since Jennings took command. The acquisition of Tom Jones and Delehanty has strengthened the infield of the champions fully 25 per cent. The outfield speaks for itself. For the first time this year Detroit's pitching staff is in shape. "Wild Bill Donovan, saved all season for the pinch, can work every third day if necessary. Mullin is showing that early spring form that made him the terror of the league, and the big fellow does not mind working as often as Ed Walsh. Killian, one of the best left-handers in baseball when right, seems to be right. Summers is a crackerjack twirler, and Willette is no slouch. With this staff Detroit should have no fear of being beaten out of a third straight pennant. The pitching corps right now is the best in the league. In other respects the champions have had their company outclassed ever since the race began.

The Cubs have just a drowning man's chance to figure in the big show this fall. Chance has a game team, which is never beaten till the end. The world champions carried Pittsburg into submission a year ago, but the task this time seems impossible. Pittsburg is a stronger club this season.

No one in the country is grudging Pittsburg the pennant. It is a good thing for baseball to have the championship travel around a little. Chicago and Detroit in the third straight world's series would just about kill all interest in the affair. But Detroit and Pittsburg will be an altogether different matter. Two representatives could not be picked to furnish better sport. The series would bring together two of the most talked of men in baseball—Wagner and Cobb. It would oppose two slugging clubs such as have seldom been seen on the diamond. And hard hitting is what the majority of fans glory in.

OCCIDENTALS WIN FROM INDEPENDENTS 5 TO 4

In a close game of baseball down at Walker's field yesterday afternoon the Occidentals defeated Bert Margetts' Independents by a score of 5 to 4. After Langford was taken out of the box in the second, the game became a pitcher's battle, Papworth for the Independents and Harrison for the colored boys being the opponents. Both got out of tight places several times and pitched splendid ball. The Occidentals, however, got their hits when needed and managed to squeeze in the winning run. The diamond was muddy, making fast fielding and sensational plays out of the question. The detailed score follows:

BASEBALL MEETING

The question of whether or not a series of ball games will be played this year to settle the dispute as to which team has a right to the claim of state champions, will probably be settled this evening at a meeting of managers in the office of John F. Tobin, in the Judge building. Word comes from Park City and Heber that there is still snow there and it would be difficult at present to play any games. Bingham and Eureka and other teams will be represented at the meeting and there is still a good chance that the series will be arranged.

SENIORS ARE VICTORIOUS.

There was a lively ball game yesterday afternoon between the Seniors and the Sugar House Juniors. The game was won by the former by a score of 13 to 9.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR PRESIDENT TAFT

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Special arrangements are to be made at the West Side baseball park so that when President Taft witnesses the game between the New York and the Chicago National league teams Thursday he can watch it as a real fan.

He is not to occupy a special box but will set in chair 12, section 4.

The much-worn seats will be replaced with comfortable arm chairs. The "presidential seat" is in the first row in the grandstand, directly back of the players' bench of the home team and opposite first base. That, they say, is where the "fans" seek their seats.

He is to be surrounded by 2,500 members of the Hamilton club.

LEACH, WHOSE NAME IS CONSPICUOUS IN BASEBALL'S HALL OF FAME.

When in future years baseball fans and critics are discussing players who have helped make diamond history the name of Tommy Leach of the Pittsburg Nationals will always be prominent in the controversy. "Tommy the wee," as he is called, is one of the greatest ball tossers that ever donned a uniform and has surely earned a place in baseball's hall of fame. For many years he has been an important member of the Pirates' brain department. As a third baseman he had few, if any, equals. His playing at station No. 3 was superb. Last season he informed Manager Clarke that he would like to play in the outfield provided that the management could obtain a youngster who could hold down third base successfully. Since the opening of the 1909 campaign Leach has covered center field in admirable style. As a batter he ranks next to Wagner on the Pirates' roster and for many years has been up among the leading run getters in the National league. Leach started his career with the Auburn club in the New York state league. This was back in the late nineties. From there he went to Louisville. In his first season with Louisville he was tried out from time to time at second, short and third, but never showed enough form to take the job away from the regular man. During the following winter the Louisville and Pittsburg clubs were merged, and in the excitement the management forgot to fire him. He was consequently carried along as utility man. This was the year that the baseball war broke out, and the season was not very old before Jimmy Williams, then third baseman of the Pirates, jumped to the American league, and Leach was put on third to fill in. He became a star in a day. He had "found himself," and from that day until he insisted on being sent to the outfield his master as a third baseman did not come into the big leagues.

Considerable Attention Has Been Paid To Big League Catchers This Year

Of all the ball players in the country, none probably have figured more prominently as a class than the catchers this season, and of the bunch none have caused more comment than Roger Bresnahan, the clever and capable leader of the Kids.

The great showing that the Duke has made with the St. Louis Nationals has brought praise from all quarters.

The Browns also furnished some "catcher" news, with Jack O'Connor as the receiver. "Diamond Johnny" was sought by Owner Hedges, presumably to do some scouting, but it is all cut and dried for Rowdy Jack to succeed McAleer as the manager of the local Americans next season.

Then Boston's catchers have jumped into the limelight. Frank Bowerman, who was made manager of the Doves at the beginning of the season, found the job a tough one and quit in disgust.

Another receiver, Harry Sith, has been appointed his successor. On the other Boston team, the Red Sox, Eddie Spencer, the former Brownie catcher, also caused some surprise by "jumping" the team.

Of course, the case of Johnny Kling, Cub holdout, is of the longest standing. Since the season opened "Noisy John" has also figured as the possible manager of several clubs and has been named in a deal with almost every club in the league.

But John is still taking in nickels in his Kansas City pool hall.

Pilot Sullivan of the White Sox, the man selected to take Fielder Jones' place, is also having his troubles. Billyam is said to have had enough of the job and is ready to again become only a regular as soon as Owner Comiskey sees it that way.

Charley Street of the Nationals, "Nig" Clarke of the Naps, and Larry McLean of the Reds have all "jumped" their respective teams. Clarke and McLean have figured in "near-deals," but the latter is now out for good with a bad kneecap. Street is back in good standing with Cantillon.

CLUB MEMBERS TAKE ALL SEATS

New York, Sept. 13.—Stanley Ketchel now weighs 158 pounds and says that he will not be under 155 when he enters the ring for a 10-round bout with Sam Langford at the Fairmont Athletic club in this city next Friday night. Ketchel is working like a beaver and is apparently in as good condition as ever he was.

After reeling off eight miles in a dog trot on the Westchester county roads, the Montana cowboy returned to his quarters, stripped and took on four training partners for four rounds each in succession. Each bout was a fast and hard one and with the conclusion Ketchel did not seem to be in the least winded. Instead of showing any distress he punched the bag for 15 minutes at a lightning pace.

Reports from Boston indicate that Sam Langford is preparing himself for what he considers the most serious battle of his career. It is not believed that he will weigh more than 160 pounds, possibly 158. A large delegation of his supporters plan to accompany him to New York, but there is little likelihood of these witnessing the fight, as only record members of the club will be admitted and these members have already engaged all the seats.

LEWIS AND BURKE.

Fighters Sign Articles for Ten-Round Bout in New York.

New York, Sept. 13.—Willie Lewis and Sailor Burke have signed articles to meet again in a 10-round bout in this city on Sept. 24. The weight is fixed at 155 pounds at 8 o'clock, but it is not likely that Lewis will reach more than 152. Lewis thinks that he can beat Burke this time more decisively than in their previous affair, when the sailor avoided a knockout by dropping to the floor for the final count.

BRANNAN CLIMBS UP.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 13.—William Brannan, who umpires in the Wisconsin-Illinois league this season, quit that league Saturday to join the National league corps of arbiters. Brannan last night left for New York, where he will report for work Tuesday. Brannan is a giant standing six feet three inches.

GRAVESEND'S MEETING WILL OPEN TOMORROW

New York, Sept. 13.—Gravesend's fall meeting opens tomorrow for 12 successive racing days. The features for the first day are the Flatlands stakes and the First Special, which have attracted all the best horses in training. The speculation stakes will be run on Wednesday, the Hitchcock steeplechase on Thursday, while Saturday's features are the Brookwood steeplechase, the Junior champion stakes and the Culver handicap.

THREE-CORNERED MATCH BIKE RACE

Iver Lawson Leads Kramer and Clarke By Nearly a Lap but Is Disqualified and Kramer Wins.

New York, Sept. 12.—Frank L. Kramer today won a three-cornered one-mile match race at the Vailsburg, N. J., bicycle track from Jack Clarke and Iver Lawson. Kramer took the first heat handily in 2:17 1-5, with Clarke second and Lawson third. Lawson led by a lap at the finish of the heat, but was disqualified for going through on the pole, and Kramer, who was ahead of Clarke at the end of the mile, was awarded the race. The time of the second heat was 2:17 2-5.

From the above it would appear that Iver Lawson did the "Burglar" McCormack act but could not get away with it, as it seems he was expected to go around the riders and not out through on the pole. In all probability the speedy Salt Laker is dissatisfied with the result and will get another chance at Kramer.

The purse for the race was $500 of which Kramer got $300 and Clarke the balance. Lawson started in the two-mile event but got nothing better than fourth. Kramer and Clarke are having a great fight for first honors at Vailsburg. When the season closes the latter will go with Floyd McFarland to Australia. Mack tried to sign up Kramer to go to the antipodes and made an offer of $500 with assurances of double that amount, but the champion says he would rather remain by his own fireside.

FIFTEEN DAYS' MEETING STARTS AT OGDEN TODAY

The 15-days running meeting under the management of W. M. Murray opens at the Ogden fair grounds race track this afternoon. There will be six running events daily and with the classy field of many horses on hand it will be a big surprise if the meeting does not prove a success. The fall races closed Saturday and while the meeting was quite successful the race fans do not take kindly to mixed events—running and harness races.

For the meeting which starts today, Manager Murray has arranged for a special train to be run over the O. S. L., leaving Salt Lake at 12:45 and returning after the last race. The round trip fare is $1.10.

There was some excitement occasioned Saturday afternoon by the arrest of a fellow named George Kelly, on the charge of drunkenness. He resisted arrest but after being subdued a jockey's sweater containing a battery, used on a horse during a race, was found on him. When found the battery was useless. Kelly claimed it belonged to Jockey Palms. Track officials are making a thorough investigation of the affair. Manager Murray had the following to say about the matter:

"The police brought the battery and the facts to us after Kelly's arrest. Kelly has been employed as a valet for several jockeys, but owing to his continual drunkenness he has been ousted from the track. As to the battery, an investigation showed that it had been used for trotting purposes. The matter, however, is being sifted to the bottom, and if the ownership of the battery can be placed, summary measures will follow.

"We expect a great week starting Monday. We will be able to run a race meeting and will offer the same kind of sport that took last spring. Ogden is a mighty good town and we are going to give it the best racing possible. We have a better class of horses by long odds than appeared in the spring. We are going to see that no more boys ride at a short weight in the future. The disqualification of Rustling Silk Saturday cost us a lot of money, but just the same we are going to run the game right."

BUENA VISTA TRACK IS INSPECTED BY PUBLIC

Buena Vista, the new mile race track, was visited by many followers of the turf yesterday and from expressions heard the visitors were pleased with the conditions they found. Particular attention was paid to the well-banked turns and the wide stretches. The recent rains saved considerable labor as the downpour had the effect of properly packing the track.

After going over the mile course the interested ones visited the stalls and looked at the scores of thoroughbreds stabled there. The horses were dressed in their best and with tails and manes bedecked with ribbons they presented a pleasing picture.

All the rough work at the track has been completed and there is not much more to do. The management stated yesterday that everything will be in readiness for the opening of the meeting, which starts next Saturday.

MADE MANY ERRORS BUT COULD HIT SOME

"I can tell you a story about outfielders making errors," said "Rube" Vickers the other day while talking shop with several Tigers on the Detroit bench. "Why, I saw an outfielder have 14 flies knocked to him in one game, all easy flies, and get but one of them."

"How could he miss them?" was asked.

"Well," replied Vickers, "he'd either misjudge them or drop them."

"And he couldn't land but one?" asked Ed Willett.

"No, he only landed one and 13 hit the earth."

"How long did they deep him—an hour after the game?"

"Well, that's what they intended to do, but I told them they were making a mistake. I said the man who made 13 errors of omission and commission was a ball player and they would make a mistake in letting him go."

"He must have been a ball player to miss 13 easy flies."

"Well, I tell you. It is true that he only got one out of 14, but he was at bat four times that afternoon and he got a homerun, a triple and two doubles. A man hitting like that, I figured out, could be kept on a ball club for his hitting, even though he couldn't field much.

"You see this man was a pitcher when he came to us. He had lots of speed and a nice curve. But he could not get control, and after he lost a few games because of his wildness they sent him to the outfield, hoping that he'd make a holder and knowing that his hitting would not decrease.

"He won the game in which he made those 13 errors and after considering my advice the owners of the club decided to keep him.

"He improved in his fielding and he seemed never to have a batting slump. His batting was the talk of the 'way down east' territory and after awhile he left us."

"Back to the bushes?" asked one of the audience of players.

"No, up to the Majors," replied Vickers.

"We ought to have heard of him, who was he, 'Rube'?"

"Well, yes, you've heard of him. The man was Claud Rossman and the club on which he played was Holyoke."

NO MORE BOXING MATCHES IN ARKANSAS

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 13.—Following the personal complaint of the wife of Tim Donaghey, there will be no more so-called boxing matches in Arkansas. If the sheriffs of the various counties obey the orders of the governor to carry out the law against glove contests.

Mrs. Donaghey, an ardent baseball enthusiast, lover of football and other outdoor sports, called the attention of her husband to the revival of pugilism in Helena, and registered a complaint stating that "prizefighting" is not only brutal, but that it is the only form of sport she really objects to.

The governor has notified the authorities that the law is plain, that in his opinion all forms of boxing matches are "prizefights," and as such are forbidden by the law.

WESTCHESTER MEETING.

New York, Sept. 13.—The Westchester Racing association has announced the program for the fall meeting at Belmont park. There will be 12 consecutive week days, from Sept. 28 to Oct. 11. The most important event is the Matron Stakes, to be run on Sept. 29.

RAIN STOPS TENNIS.

Owing to the heavy rains of Saturday the Intermountain tennis tournament play had to be called off and the matches scheduled for Saturday will be played some time this week. The challenge match in men's doubles and the match between Miss Hutchinson and Miss Williams were on the card for Saturday.
