DESERET EVENING NEWS

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The ladies' dining room at the Y. M. C. A. was opened today.

Mrs. G. Swan and the Misses Swan have returned to Salt Lake, after an extended visit to the Pacific coast.

Frederick C. Sanford, formerly of Birmingham, England, was admitted to citizenship yesterday by Judge Armstrong.

Local dealers report farmers holding back their oats and barley for higher prices, which is considered of doubtful expediency.

The following notice is prominently posted in the Federal building: "Chewing tobacco is absolutely prohibited in this building."

Rev. J. F. Price has resigned from the Methodist mission in Utah and removed to Hazen, Nev., where he has received an appointment.

The contractor in charge of the paving of the east South Temple street extension, has begun active operations on the southern part of the roadway.

Dean Eddie of St. Mark's cathedral has planned a series of sermons on the Book of Ecclesiastes, to be delivered Sunday mornings, during the fall and part of the winter.

The sea birds which are seen so thickly about the Great Salt Lake during the warm season of the year, have migrated to the Pacific coast, not to return until March.

Mark Maughn, a railroad laborer aged 60, dropped dead Monday night, at Barclay, in Parley's canyon, from heart failure. Attempts are being made to locate his brother.

Lieuts. John Lund and Charles Roemer, graduates of last June from West Point, have reported for duty at Fort Douglas, with the Twelfth and Twenty-second light batteries respectively.

Neils Anderson was fined $60 yesterday by Justice Dana T. Smith, for failing to support his family, and in default of the cash, Neils will be entertained free of expense by the county.

There was frost on the ground in the southwestern part of the city this morning, the mercury having fallen to 40 degrees. But no damage was done to fruit or late vegetables as near as can be ascertained.

There has been a halt in building the new First Methodist church on account of delay in the shipments of steel and iron from the east. But as the material left Denver a day or two ago, the delay will be short.

The second local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will be inaugurated this evening, by Mrs. Madeline H. Conkling, most worthy grand matron, and Mrs. Loraine J. Pitkin, right worthy grand secretary of the general grand chapter.

The published accounts of the large suit for damages planted by John Mackay against the Highland Boy smelter stated that the party bringing the suit was County Commissioner Mackay. This is an error, as the plaintiff in the suit is Mr. Mackay's father.

A sham battle was fought this morning at the post, in which the five companies of the Twenty-ninth infantry, and the two batteries of artillery and hospital corps, stationed there, participated. Quite a number of people went up from the city to witness the performance.

Receiver Geo. A. Smith returned last evening from a trip through the Sevier and Sanpete valleys, and says that part of the state was never in a better condition and the farmers are mightily pleased. There has been plenty of water, and the Otter creek reservoir has proven a great blessing.

During conference week this October there will be a reunion of the Samoan missionaries and their families in the Lion house. The date has not yet been fixed, but the program will consist of a Samoan luncheon, and Samoan dancing, singing and chanting. The dates will be announced later.

First Sergt. James O. Fesmire of the Twenty-second battery at Fort Douglas, retires shortly on account of age, and his fellow soldiers presented him last night with a gold-headed cane. The sergeant has seen field service in Indian wars and in Cuba. He will remove with his family to San Francisco to reside.

Cashier Pressbrey of the First National Bank of Boston, and another prominent business man from Massachusetts named Johnson, are in the city, as they are interested in mining in this state. They were entertained by President Frank Knox of the National Bank of the Republic, at the Alta club last evening.

There was a large turn out last evening of the many friends of Mrs. Graham F. Putnam, in attendance on the piano recital given by her advanced pupils. The function was a successful one, and Miss Eleanor C. Putnam, a graduate of Smith college, Northampton, Mass., and who assisted the young debutantes, made a very favorable impression with her soprano voice.

The friends of Rev. George Townsend of the Church of the Epiphany of Provo, have presented him with a beautiful stole made of white corded silk, satin lined, decorated at each end with a Maltese cross within a circle, and all richly embroidered and heavily fringed with gold thread. The stole was designed and made by Miss Elizabeth Groo of this city.

State Supt. A. C. Nelson is sending out letters to the county superintendents throughout the state, notifying them that at the coming state fair, prizes will be awarded for the best display made by school children of flowers, potted plants or vegetables grown by them. He expresses the hope that the competition will be lively and that good results will be shown.

Acting Postmaster Kesler is in receipt of a circular from the department at Washington calling for proposals for performance of regulation screen wagon service between the postoffice and the depots, for four years between July 1, 1906, and June 30, 1910. These proposals must be delivered at the office of the second assistant postmaster-general, Washington, by 4:30 p. m., Dec. 5, 1905. Another circular calls for proposals for the star route service in the western states, for the same time.

The Ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star will meet in this city this afternoon and evening for the purpose of organizing a new chapter in this city and a grand chapter for the state. The meeting will be attended by delegations from over the state, and among the notable personages of the order to be present are the grand matron and grand patron of the order for the United States. The occasion will be marked with events of importance to the order, and will close with a social entertainment.

It is possible that Salt Lake may have a second lecture course here this winter in addition to the M. I. A. course, which books the best men offered by all of the standard eastern bureaus. Fred Anderson yesterday applied to the faculty of the University of Utah for permission to use the name of the university in connection with a lecture course. He agrees to bring a strong line of attractions, and to stand all expenses connected with it. A committee is understood to have been appointed by President Kingsbury to investigate the merits of the case.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. Joseph F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

WILL GIVE PARADE.

Grocers and Butchers to Advertise Pure Food Exhibition.

The grocers and butchers, at a meeting held last night, decided to give an illuminated parade as a feature of the Pure Food exposition scheduled to open on the 28th. The parade will be given the evening of that day and will be made up of 200 beautifully decorated delivery wagons; an equal number of butchers in white suits, caps and aprons; 200 grocers wearing aprons and carrying scoops; 12 floats; state and city officials in carriages; 200 demonstrators in floats and carriages, and a novel illuminating display along the entire line of march. The exposition, which is owned and controlled by the Salt Lake Grocers and Butchers' association, will be given at Utahna park, Sept. 28 to Oct. 7, inclusive, and promises to be decidedly interesting.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus With One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggists sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one twenty-five cent bottle cured the three of us." For sale by all druggists.
