IN MATABELELAND.

The People of Bulawayo Now Panic-Stricken.

NATIVES SWARMING LIKE BEES.

Boers Secretly Preaching a Crusade Against the English—Reinforcements Coming.

BULAWAYO, April 11.—A feeling of apprehension as to what the outcome of the recent Ilima Matabele will be, pervades all circles here. Information coming from the country around moves it certain that the natives are preparing an offensive movement against this place. The number of Matabeles reported gathering at points near by is sufficient to appall the hearts of even experienced fighters. There is a cloud in the minds of many that the place is in danger of being overwhelmed by a rush of hordes of Matabeles, and the inhabitants put to a siege beside massacre.

The fear of treachery is added to the apprehension of overwhelming numbers. Many believe that just as soon as the war parties of equipped (mostly armed) natives, which are now in the hands of the natives, are ready to take the lives of their neighbors. Here was the origin of the Jameson raid, and they have changed it quickly and easily.

STEPS TAKEN TO SUPPRESS THE NATIVES.

LONDON, April 17.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Mr. Chamberlain said that the government had decided to replace the troops withdrawn from Natal and Capetown, therefore a battalion of the line and a body of mounted infantry will be dispatched to these places as soon as possible. This movement, he added, was connected with the decision of the government to permanently increase the strength of the garrison of Cape Colony, a step which had been urged by the military authorities.

The announcement of Mr. Chamberlain was greeted with loud cheers, and was taken upon as meaning that the government has finally decided to send adequate reinforcements to South Africa.

Senator Tillman in Kansas.

WICHITA, Kan., April 17.—Senator Ben R. Tillman of South Carolina arrived in Wichita this morning and was met at the depot by a large number of people. At 4 o'clock the Silver men in a circus tent, erected for the purpose, Senator Tillman made an address two hour's speech, taking in one of the large audiences that ever gathered here.

In an interview, Tillman said, in answer to a question: "If Whitney of New York is nominated at Chicago, I would walk out of the convention. If Morrison is nominated, I would feel like walking out, but would wait until I heard of his record. I don't know where Morrison stands on the silver question, and I have not seen anybody in twenty years who knew."
