SALT LAKE BEATS THE GRANITE HIGH

Red and Black Scores First Victory in Race for High School Football Championship.

The fight for the state high school football championship of the season of 1909 is on in earnest and to the Red and Black of the Salt Lake high, goes the honor of scoring the first victory, the victims being the eleven representing the Granite high, the final score being 28 to a goose egg.

It does not require much space to tell the story. The Salt Lakers simply smothered their rivals and the result gave victors great encouragement in their fight to attain the goal they have in mind. Not at any stage of the game was the local goal in danger, while score after score piled up to the credit of the Red and Black.

The Granite boys played with all the speed, strength and determination they could muster and deserve credit for the same, but they were unequal to stem the tide of battle and could not break up the aggressive tactics of "Dad" Conville's sturdy warriors.

It was in the second half that the locals lost the ball for the first time on downs, the Granite taking a brace and making a desperate effort to change the condition of affairs, but without avail. Both teams tried open play with indifferent success and forward passes were broken with monotonous frequency. Romney, the star for the local high, tried three drop kicks and got only one, though many thought he was entitled to another. In open field work, in buckling the line and in drop kicking he showed up wonderfully well. Lagroan, for Granite, was easily the star for his team, but his work did not quite reach his usual brilliant efforts.

The Granite boys are by no means discouraged over the result of the game and promise to be heard from in the future. The end of the season is a long way off and with more work the boys from the south are bound to make a better showing. There was a large crowd on hand, the stand and bleachers being filled and enthusiasm ran rampant. The line-up follows:

S. L. H. S.		Granite.
Gallacher	R. E.	Wilson
Yates	R. T.	Afton
Wallace	R. G.	Pratt
McIntyre	C.	White
Jackman	L. G.	Neilson
Wimmer	L. T.	Sutherland
Kirby	L. E.	Reinersen
Worthman	Q. B.	Sutherland (C.)
Fitzpatrick (C.)	R. H.	Lagroan
Goodspeed	F. B.	Ashton
Romney	L. H.	Hamilton

The officials were: Lieut. Ellis, referee; Fred Bennion, umpire; Ben Harker, timekeeper, and Jimmie Wade, head lineman. Twenty-five minute halves.

WHITE SOX WIN FIRST FROM CUBS

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The Chicago team of the American League won their first game of the series for the city championship here today from the Chicago Nationals, 2 to 1. The Nationals were the first to score, Pitcher Walsh walked the first two men, and the third man up sacrificed after Evers had stolen a base. Chance followed with a sharp hit and Evers was caught, but Sheckard scored.

Walsh then held his opponents safe the remainder of the game.

The American Leaguers started the second with two singles and a base on balls, which filled the bases. Sullivan's long fly to left field scored Dougherty. They did not score again until the ninth. Walsh was retired and Altizer was given a base on balls. Schulte caught Isbell's long fly and Cole followed with a single. Dougherty received a base on balls, filling the bases. Purtell was at bat and Reulbach was preparing to deliver the ball when Altizer started to steal home. Reulbach's attention was called to the man at third and he did not deliver the ball. Umpire O'Day called a balk and Altizer scored the run which won the game. Rain began to fall in the fourth inning and continued throughout the game. The crowd, which was one of the largest ever within the west side enclosure, remained throughout the contest.

The paid attendance was given out as being 26,024. The gross receipts were $16,[illegible], of which the National commission receives $1,624.37; the players' share is $8,[illegible] and each of the clubs will receive $2,[illegible].

MANAGER OF DETROITS AND TWO OF HIS STARS WHOM THE PITTSBURG PIRATES FEAR.

Now that all eyes of the baseball world are focused on the series for the world championship between the tigers and the pirates, the attention of the fans is diverted to drawing comparisons between the individual players and the teams as a whole. If one carefully reviews the past season it can hardly be considered that the Detroit team has not honestly earned all it has won. In many respects it has proved that it is the high class organization of its league, and it has most assuredly been well assisted in its work on the field by the playing of Sam Crawford and the only Tyrus Cobb. Never since that young man has been a member of the tigers has he done better work than this year. In fact, it is these two players, ably assisted by Matty McIntyre, that Manager Clarke of the pirates fears the most. Many times this season this trio have broken up games with their hitting and clever base running. Take that wonderful outfield—Cobb, Crawford and McIntyre—can you beat it? You have perhaps read, heard of or seen great outfields of years ago, but few can compare with the tigers' trio of outgarderers. It is composed of the greatest batting, base running and throwing trio in the major leagues. There is Matty McIntyre, getting on first base as often, as if not more than any other man in the league; there is "Wahoo Sam" Crawford with his timely hits and long swats to either send him home or at least to third base, whence he would be driven home by Ty Cobb. And Cobb? There is a name to conjure with. Put him on the bases, and he is always getting on, and the opposing team is worried. The pitcher and catcher know that something will be doing. Ty is likely to run wild, and there is no telling just what stunt he will attempt to pull off. If a bunt is laid down by the next batter he is more than likely to try to take two bases while the out is being made at first. If only a single is rapped out the boy from Georgia is quite often due to make a dash for home all the way from first base. There is one thing that the fans will be able to do in the present series—that is to size up the ability of the two greatest ball tossers, Cobb and Hans Wagner. Manager Hugh Jennings's one ambition before he retires from baseball is to capture a world championship. He has had two tries, and each time was unsuccessful, but the clever manager says this year's team is more powerful than those of the two previous seasons and that he will surely carry off this year's honors.

WORLD'S SERIES BEGAN IN 1884

It was in 1884 that the first world's series was played between the champion Providence team of the National League and the Metropolitans of New York, pennant winners in the American Association. After that there was an annual struggle up to the end of the season of 1890. Then came the war between the rival organizations and, of course, the world's series was abolished, and as the 12-club National League was formed in 1892, there was no further test, except a meeting of the winners of the first and second "seasons" in 1892.

The complete records of the play follows:

1884—Providence, N. L., 3 games; Metropolitan, A. A., 0 games.
1885—Chicago, N. L., 2 games; St. Louis, A. A., 4 games.
1886—Chicago, N. L., 2 games; St. Louis, A. A., 4 games.
1887—Detroit, N. L., 10 games; St. Louis, A. A., 5 games.
1888—New York, N. L., 6 games; St. Louis, A. A., 4 games.
1889—New York, N. L., 6 games; Brooklyn, A. A., 3 games.
1890—Brooklyn, N. L., 3 games; Louisville, 3 games; 1 tie.
1892—Boston, 5 games; Cleveland, 0; 1 tie.
1894—New York, 4 games; Baltimore, 0.
1895—Cleveland, 4 games; Baltimore, 1.
1896—Baltimore, 4 games; Cleveland, 0.
1897—Baltimore, 4 games; Boston, 1.
1903—Boston, A. L., 5 games; Pittsburg, N. L., 3 games.
1904—No series. New York Nationals declined challenge of Boston Americans.
1905—New York, N. L., 4 games; Philadelphia, A. L., 1 game.
1906—Chicago, A. L., 4 games; Chicago, N. L., 2 games.
1907—Chicago, N. L., 4 games; Detroit, A. L., 0; 1 tie.
1908—Chicago, N. L., 4 games; Detroit, A. L., 1 game.

FRANK LUBBOCK WINS HANDICAP

Traveling the fastest mile ever run on the state fair grounds track, Frank Lubbock, the handsome gelding from the Irwin stables, captured the Inland Empire handicap on Saturday afternoon, making the distance in 1:42, equalling the fastest mile on the longer course at Buena Vista.

When the horses went to the post Little Osage was the strong favorite with Yuba coming a close second in the selections. Little Osage looked good until the stretch was reached when the crowd was set to yelling the mad when Frank Lubbock closely followed and nearly beaten by Kopck dashed over the finish line a winner.

Another large crowd was on hand, the weather was fine and the track in good shape though a trifle too hard. A summary of the harness events follows:

First race, 2:25 trot or pace—
Tom Marshall 1 1 1
Buster Brown 2 2 6
Laura B. 3 4 2
Ben T. 4 3 4

CURTISS REPEATS HIS GREAT FLIGHT

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—Repeating his performance of yesterday Glenn H. Curtiss in his biplane today made a flight around the Aero field in Forest park.

At 6:30 o'clock this morning he had his machine wheeled out of its tent and 15 seconds later his propeller was started and he was in the air headed east. He went to the extreme end of the field, made a wide circuit and veering so he would land with the wind in his face, he alighted from his aeroplane at the place he started.

Curtiss covered a little more than a mile in one minute and 17 seconds.

JAMAICA MEETING BEGINS TOMORROW

New York, Oct. 11.—The first race meeting to be held at the Jamaica course since the close of the season of 1908, will start tomorrow, today being the last day at Belmont Park. Thirteen stakes are offered for the meeting of 12 days. The Pierpont handicap, at one mile and a furlong, for 3-year-olds and upward $2,000 will be the feature event at the opening. The two highest imposts are the Hildreth entry, King James, 124 pounds and Fitzherbert, 120. B. Schrieber's Jack Atkin is third on the list with 118, and James R. Keene's filly Mackelle, regarded as the chief rival to Fitzherbert for the championship among the 3-year-olds, is next with 124. Restigouche, 122; Ojambala and Firestone, 118 each; and King's Daughter, 115 are the next high weights.

ISMAN PURCHASES QUAKER CLUB

New York, Oct. 11.—Felix Isman has purchased the stock in the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club held by Robert Davis, it is understood in baseball circles here, and the Magee—Dooin deal is said to be assured for the next season. Mr. Isman, who is now in this city, would not deny the reported purchase. The Davis stock was held at $40,000, or $12,000 more than he originally paid for it.

Mr. Isman has been anxious to obtain the controlling interest in the Philadelphia Club and put Mike Doolin, formerly of the New York Nationals, in charge as playing manager. To do this, he had practically agreed to trade Magee to New York for Doolin. This would have done away with the services of the present manager, William Murray, whose friends maneuvered to prevent Isman from obtaining control.

GARDNER ASKED TO REFEREE BIG RACE

Frank L. Gardner, local representative of the N. C. A. and member of the board of control, has received a letter from Chairman Kelsey, requesting Mr. Gardner to make a trip to New York in December and referee the big annual six-day race at Madison Square Garden.

This invitation is a most flattering one, but Mr. Gardner says he will be unable to leave the city at that time owing to the rush of business. This offer is a strong indication of the esteem in which Gardner is held and the confidence N. C. A. officials have in him.

"U" OUTCLASSES "AGGIE" ELEVEN

Coach Maddock Demonstrates He Has Another Crack Gridiron Team—Final Score 28 to 0.

In a game of football that was fast and interesting despite the one-sided score, the University of Utah eleven defeated the Logan Agricultural College team at Logan on Saturday, 28 to 0. The game was made interesting because first, of the fast play on the Utah side, and second, because of the game fight put up by the gridiron warriors of the Temple city. The Aggies line proved a strong one and withstood the attacks of the varsity in great style. The play was clean cut throughout and a crowd of 2,000 enthusiastic fans witnessed the struggle.

There were four bright stars in the Utah line-up: Love, at quarter, Lodl, full back, and Sweitzer and Romney. These men were the ground gainers and all of them played brilliantly.

The score would not have been so large but for fumbles on the part of Logan and these mistakes were responsible for at least three touchdowns.

The Aggies kicked off to the U. and Love made a run around end for 50 yards, but was called back 25 for going out of the lines in the run. Sweitzer got the ball on the first play and before he was hauled down he had the pigskin oval on the 10-yard line. Love then carried the ball over and Lodl failed to kick goal.

The next play came in the center of the field and Love made a pretty run of 35 yards and Lodl was hurled over and kicked goal.

The second half had scarcely started when a fumble gave Lodl the ball and he lost no time in making a touchdown. The U. then tried forward passes and runs with great success, the final score being made when 40 seconds were left to play, Lodl getting the oval and making the last touchdown.

KETCHEL CONCEDED A GOOD CHANCE

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—Even money that Stanley Ketchel, middle-weight champion of the world, will last 15 rounds, 2 to 1 that Jack Johnson, the big negro heavy-weight champion, will retain his title after Oct. 16, when the two men will engage in a 20-round battle at Colma arena, were the prevailing odds among the fight fans today.

Despite the fact that Ketchel is training for his first contest in the heavy-weight class, the Michigan pugilist has a large following in this city. There seems to be any amount of the 15-round money, and considerable being wagered that Ketchel will get the decision.

In the presence of several newspaper men yesterday Ketchel tipped the scales at his training quarters at 174 pounds, the most he has ever weighed in training. According to his manager, Willie Britt, he will enter the ring at 5 o'clock weighing not less than 178. As Johnson plans to fight at 196, there will be a difference of 18 pounds between them when the gong sounds.

If Britt's prediction is verified, Ketchel will be heavier than many men who have contended for heavy-weight honors. Jim Corbett averaged 178 pounds in his battles, and a few days before Fitzsimmons knocked out Corbett he tipped the beam at 184. Tom Sharkey averaged 175 to 178 for his battles, and Joe Choynski never equaled the Michigan man's present weight.

Both contestants are training hard for the contest. The negro, having exhausted his supply of sparring timber, has announced that he will meet all comers until he stops training. Ketchel is doing much strenuous work on the road, punching the bag, wrestling the sandbag, going through his own system of calisthenics regularly, and keeping several sparring mates busy.

Seldom has more interest been taken in a championship battle than the local sporting public is showing in the coming contest.

Besides the championship, which Ketchel claims is the prize he cares most about and is determined to win, considerable money will go to the winner. A side bet of $5,000 has been posted with the sporting editor of a local paper.

Of the purse, 60 per cent of the gross receipts, the winner will take 65 per cent, and the loser 35 per cent. Jack Welsh will referee the contest.

Prominent Salt Lakers Will Tour Europe Soon by Automobiles

In the near future, probably the latter part of next month, two prominent Salt Lake business men, with their families, will leave this city for New York and from there sail to different parts of Europe and then begin a tour by automobiles. They are Col. E. A. Wall and Jacob Moritz. The former goes direct to Italy and the latter to Germany. Both will be accompanied by members of their respective families and the parties will be gone several months, possibly a year.

Col. Wall and Mr. Moritz will use Pierce-Arrows as the company making the same is said to be the only one having an agency in Europe, the same being in Paris where anything desired in the way of parts of machines, new equipment and supplies may be obtained, thus saving time and expense.

The man at the wheel for Col. Wall will be Carl B. Redman, one of Salt Lake's well known bicycle riders, who is now in the automobile game. Herbert Scafe of England will pilot the Moritz machine. The automobiles will be shipped to New York within a few days so they will be in New York in plenty of time to be packed away on the steamships. Both machines are of high horsepower and are eight passenger cars.

Col. Wall will be accompanied by his wife, five daughters and Mrs. Crane. Mr. Moritz will also take his family. While the latter will be touring Germany, Col. Wall and party will be going through Italy. The machines will be equipped with everything possible to imagine for comfort and convenience and doubtless the tourists will have a most delightful trip, as most of the winter will be spent in Italy.

After spending several months in Italy, Col. Wall and family will tour France, England, Scotland, Ireland and Germany.

NOTED SPORTING MAN PASSES AWAY

"Al" Smith, Known Throughout the Country as Referee and Authority, Is Dead in New York.

New York, Oct. 11.—The death of Alfred H. Smith, better known in the sporting world as "Al" Smith, reported at the Gilsey House after midnight, removes a man who was highly honored for more than 40 years, by all who knew him. "Al" Smith was for 25 years the court of last resort in all disputes in sporting matters and his word was accepted universally. While Smith achieved much fame as referee in important prize fights, his reputation was built as much on the fact that he had been the stakeholder of millions of dollars wagered in bets on sporting events and on political elections.

Every sporting man of note in America knew "Al" Smith intimately. His life had been devoted to the sporting world. Following a distinguished service in the Union army during the Civil war he returned to his home in Bainbridge, O., and almost immediately became identified with sporting matters. For more than a generation he had made his home in this city where, for 31 years, as a bachelor, he occupied the room in the Gilsey House where he died in his room. Smith had one of the most complete sporting libraries extant. When the library was seriously damaged by fire last spring, Smith was deeply affected. He grieved over his irreparable loss and his friends say he was not well since. In his 70 years he had enjoyed good health until the last few months.

The Fifteenth infantry at Fort Douglas is to have a football team to be proud of this season. The soldiers play the U. of U. Oct. 30.

Athletes of the national guard propose to keep busy this season with indoor athletics. Preparations are under way for indoor baseball and basketball. In the near future games for the guard championships will be under way and some great sport is looked for.

Speaking of his football team, Coach Maddock says: "I admit that I was surprised at the size of the score we ran up to Utah against the Aggies. The eleven worked fine and the new men particularly showed fine class. Both Romney and Love played remarkable games for their first varsity attempt. They each play so hard, however, that it will be one of my greatest concerns to keep them off the injury list. While the score was large, the A. C. team is a comer and with a month of play will be yet vastly stronger than Saturday. Our next meeting will be far from an easy task to win."

At Buena Vista the Pasadena stables heads the list of winning owners with a total of $1,670. 2½ TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT FOR THE SAME MONEY

TUNGSTEN LAMPS make electric light much cheaper. They have two and onehalf times the efficiency of the ordinary carbon lamp hitherto in general use. The filament is made of a rare metal called Tungsten, which yields an intense brilliancy at low cost. In shape and size the bulb is just like any other incandescent lamp. Why not try a Tungsten lamp yourself? Get one of the 25 C. P. size and use it somewhere in your house or place of business instead of one of your carbon lamps, then observe the great difference. Note the clear white light, exactly twice as brilliant and costing you one-fifth less for electricity. Tungsten lamps are destined to displace all others, for both store and house lighting.

Thos. H. Nott

The grocer had a horse. The horse died. It was insured. We collected the insurance. Mr. Nott can now buy another horse. This is one of the many kinds of claims we collect. If somebody, somewhere owes you some money, you better turn in your claim. We collect for everybody, everywhere. We do not like to collect claims when they become more than fifty years old, but we have collected some that were 25 to 35 years old without much trouble. Generally speaking it is better not to wait so long. The commissions we are going to earn on the collections which you turn us will come in handy now. So will the money come in handy for you.
