San Francisco, March 1st, 1855.

Mormon Book Depot,

And General Agency of the Church of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints, for the Pacific Coast.

Parley P. Pratt respectfully announces to the public, that he has established an Office and Book Depot in San Francisco, Cal., near the corner of Dupont and Sacramento Streets, where will be constantly on hand and for sale the standard works of said Church,—among the most noted of which are the following, viz:

Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, Voice of Warning, O. Pratt's Works, Key to the Science of Theology (not yet out of press), Pearl of Great Price, Spencer's Letters, Hymn Books, and a variety of Periodicals, Debates, Defences, Tracts, &c., &c.

This Agency is in correspondence with the Missions of said Church, in all parts of the world, and can order or send out, on the shortest notice, all works connected with its interests, whether in English, French, German, Danish, Spanish, Italian, Welsh, or any other language. Office open from 10 o'clock, a.m., to 4 p.m.

It would seem high time for the public to lay aside sectarian ignorance or prejudice on the subject of a system which is revolutionizing the world. And we would say, with all due deference,—Procure the Works and read for yourselves; "There are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in our philosophy."

San Francisco, March 2d, 1855.

SHOCK OF AN EARTHQUAKE IN NEW BRUNSWICK.
—We were visited yesterday morning by what might be termed an earthquake in the real sense of the word, if such a phenomenon can be judged of by the state of our feelings. It happened about a quarter to 7 o'clock, a.m., accompanied by a rumbling noise which lasted for some seconds. The houses shook, some more and some less, according to locality. The vibration may be compared to that which we experience from the blasting of a rock, without hearing a loud report—or to that which we feel when on board a steamer, from the working of the engine. The general impression among those who heard the noise was that a number of heavy wagons on wheels were passing over a hard road, divested of snow; the windows, stoves, tins, and other metal substances were all in a violent agitation for some seconds. Some thought their chimneys were on fire, from the rumbling noise, and ran into the street, much alarmed, to ascertain if such were the case.

Most people were asleep in their beds, and were suddenly awoke, as if they had received a galvanic shock. The sensation was more perceptible and alarming in stone and brick buildings, which shook as if they would fall to pieces. In the Portland Valley, in the vicinity of the church, the shock was perhaps the greatest.

We are informed that children lying in their beds were aroused and jumped up with fright. It was not a local affair, as is generally the case with earthquakes, but was felt in various parts, perhaps all parts of the province at the same time—also in the neighboring State—as we learn by telegraph to Reading Room.

At Fredericton it was very perceptible—the same at the Fend. At Dorchester it was so severe that windows were broken, and "a large stone building shook like a leaf." It was also very severe at Sackville, and at Cabot. The shock was very distinctly felt at Halifax, Dartmouth, and Windsor. In Chatham it was felt severely. In Sussex Vale it lasted two minutes. People walking the streets were brought to a dead halt; they felt the ground shaking under them, and could scarcely stand.—(St. John News, Feb. 9.)

A MATTER OF FACT, MAN.—When Dr. Bradon was rector of Eltham, in Kent, England, the text he one day took to preach from was—"Who art thou?" After reading the text he made (as was his custom) a pause for the congregation to reflect upon the words, when a gentleman in military dress, who was marching very sedately up the middle aisle of the church, supposing it to be a question addressed to him, to the surprise of all present, replied—"I am, sir, an officer of the 17th foot, on a recruiting party here; and having my wife and family with me, I wish to be acquainted with the neighboring gentry and clergy."
