Petition for Rehearing Denied.

The Supreme court this afternoon denied the petition for a re-hearing in the case of the State vs Hokan Olson, appellant.

Kiesel & Co. Restrained.

In the circuit court, an order in equity was granted today in the case of J. H. M. Hennessy et al vs F. J. Kiesel & Co., by which the latter are "hereby perpetually enjoined from keeping, offering for sale or selling any brandy not being the brandy exported and bottled by the complainants, put up in bottles, and wrapped with labels of the form, device, and in the manner complained of," in imitation of complainants brandy or bearing any imitation of the name of Hennessy."

Levy vs McCune.

In the case of Wm. Levy vs A. W. McCune for the payment of $8,200, claimed to be due from the defendant to the plaintiff, the demurrer of the defendant that the facts alleged are not sufficient to constitute a cause of action and that the complaint is unintelligible, etc., was overruled.

Motion to Dismiss.

In the case of Salt Lake City vs E. G. Pollock, Assistant City Attorney C. B. Stewart made a motion before Judge Norrell Saturday asking that the suit be dismissed upon the defendant paying the sum of $15 and costs. The motion was granted. Pollock is the man arrested last fall for allowing a female in his saloon, after 9 p. m., and who was fined $50 in the police court.

Married Five Months.

E. C. Elise filed a divorce suit against his wife, Arsley Maggie Elise, in the Third district court today, alleging that the marriage took place in Ogden last November and that since the 18th of March, of this year, the defendant has been living in a house of ill-fame at Eureka. The defendant has accepted legal service of the complaint and asks until May 1st to answer. Failing to make reply on or before that date, she consents to having a default judgment entered against her.

A BOY AND A GIRL.

The friends of Bishop Orson F. Whitney were giving him congratulations today, in fact the congratulations were two-fold; the cause was the arrival at his home of twins, an event which occurred on Sunday evening, in the birth of a boy and a girl, and both as well as the mother are in good condition.

JIM "DID HIM UP."

Laid Out a Lively Nuisance at the County Building.

Jim Lynch of the county assessor's office has again demonstrated himself to be a "scrapper" when "scrapping" is necessary. Jim is regarded by all who know him as a peaceful and unoffending citizen. More than that he was never known to go fishing on a Sunday. Saturday night Jim and the rest of the boys were told by Barney Quinn that the extra heavy work that had come in to the office recently would require their presence Sunday. Jim demurred and said something about "meeting," but, with the rest of the office help was on hand early yesterday morning. Nothing unusual happened until about 9 o'clock last night when a fellow peered through the southeast window where Jim and the rest were at work. Jim told the intruder to move on; the intruder told Jim to go to. Jim went outside and found the fellow had committed a further nuisance. Jim's Irish was then fairly aroused. Jim glared at the man; the man glared at Jim. Jim again told the fellow to move on, but the fellow looked at Jim and breathed a bold defiance. The clerks in the office were astounded for they knew what was coming. The man threw himself into a pugilistic attitude intended as a posture of defense but the next thing seen of him was as he lay stretched on the ground biting the dust. No arrests.

LOMBARD STILL MISSING.

Guy Lombard, the recalcitrant stock broker, is still among the missing, and no one seems to know anything of his whereabouts, not even his partners in the stock business. Mr. Lombard was a member of the firm of Andrews & Lombard and departed for unknown fields Friday evening, leaving, it is said, several creditors in the lurch. The firm will settle all legitimate transactions, say they, but will have nothing to do with his private affairs. His motive for leaving cannot even be surmised.

THE HOLD-UP CASE.

Roy Forman Identifies Arthur Johnson as Being the Lone Highwayman.

At three o'clock this afternoon the preliminary hearing of the hold-up case was taken up in Judge Timmony's courtroom. Mr. Gunter was present on behalf of the State, while Attorney Hamilton looked after the interests of the young mulatto defendant Arthur Johnson.

Roy Forman the assistant property man at the Salt Lake Theater was the first witness called. He positively identified the accused as being the man who held him up on the early morning of the 10th inst. He stated that the man followed him from the Valley House saloon. The man who held him up, he said was dressed in a dark blue square-cut coat without brass buttons and wore a moustache; continuing he further stated that the individual followed him a couple of blocks and seemed to be in a semi-intoxicated condition, finally on stepping alongside of witness he pulled a gun on him, the gun he said was a small one, so small that the hold-up's fingers extended to the end of the barrel of the revolver. Finally the hold-up went through him and took away a shirt and handkerchief and a tie that he was carrying.

Johnson at the time of his arrest was clean shaven; a search of his room at 22 N. First West revealed the fact that he had in his possession a torn handkerchief that the witness failed to positively identify owing to the fact that the markings on the same had been apparently torn off. A soldier's coat was also unmarked, the brass buttons of which were held in position by matches that were inserted in the shanks, which fact, according to the police, substantially establishes the theory that the prisoner changed them at his will for ordinary bone buttons.

CASE OF EXTRADITION.

Young Man from Texas Charged with Converting Mail Bags.

In Commissioner Twomey's court today the case of Ernest Anstee, mail carrier of Texas, who was charged with converting fourteen canvas mail bags in 1897, between Abeline and Haskell, Texas, was considered, and Anstee held on bond.

An indictment by a Texas grand jury was found in January, 1898. The present case is in the nature of an extradition proceeding, to take him back to the State of Texas to answer the accusation.

Mrs. Anstee, the young man's mother, a lady of refined manner, stated to a "News" reporter that she had been two years and a half in this city and had been back and forth to this city from Denver for ten years past. Young Anstee said that on the star route between Abeline and Haskell he drove from March to Sept., 1896, and that at the time he quit, he turned over all the mail bags to the driver on the connecting route. After a few days he came to Salt Lake, all his friends in Abeline being informed by him of his departure. When it was discovered that the mail sacks were missing, Anstee was indicted in the following January. He declares he knows nothing of the sacks and never heard of his indictment nor knew that the sacks were missing.

The mail sacks could not be used by anyone, nor sold. It looks like a case of carelessness somewhere.

WILLIAM H. LETT ASSIGNS.

Files Petition in Bankruptcy Today—Liabilities $2,084.

Wm. H. Lett filed a petition in bankruptcy today. The unsecured claims amount to $2,084.06; secured claims, $10.

The resources are household goods of the value of $89.50, policies of insurance of $1,000, and property claimed to be exempt to the value of $1,089.50.

In the bankruptcy case of Lee Hollander, the demurrer by the bankrupt to allegations of the creditors was sustained, and objecting creditors were given ten days in which to file amended specifications of objections.

RESIDENCE FIRE.

Mrs. F. A. Woolley on Fourth South Street the Loser.

At 12:28 today an alarm came from box 26 to headquarters, and two seconds later away the laddies went westward. The clanging of the apparatus gongs gave warning to those on the streets. Hose No 1 and the chemical engineers even. Johny Lawson held the ribbons that guided the hose wagon while Jo Barlow sat behind his pets attached to the chemical. In this manner they raced neck and neck down to 232 east Fourth South, to a one-story brick residence owned and occupied by Mrs. F. A. Woolley. By the time the department arrived the roof was well alight, but the blaze was subdued after 250 feet of hose had been strung and fifty gallons of chemicals turned on the fire. Forty-five minutes later the boys limbered up and returned.

Damage to the house amounted to $150. No insurance.

The residence and contents are valued at $2,000.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Theater this evening the Devil's Auction company opens an engagement of one night; the stay cannot be prolonged owing to engagements in other cities.

* * *

At Christensen's hall on Saturday the University Dramatic club, under the direction of Prof. Maude May Babcock, gave its second rendition of Sardou's excellent comedy entitled A Scrap of Paper. It was quite an ambitious undertaking on the part of the amateurs, to essay something which Salt Lakers very well remembered from having seen it performed by Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, Mr. Ingersoll and Rebecca Warren and others; but the young people acquitted themselves surprisingly well, in fact the general verdict was one of extreme gratification, the main honors falling to Miss Horne and Mr. Little, whether a repetition will be made or not is not yet decided on.

WITH THOSE WHO DEAL IN STOCKS.

The Day Was Not a Boom One, by Any Means.

VALUE REACHED $8,971.50.

Business On the Utah Exchange—Mollie Gibson Cuts the Vein—Other Mining Items.

The exchanges today did business amounting to 60,700 shares, for the sum of $8,971.50. The small value is accounted for from the fact that low-priced stocks were dealt in, those securities taking the lead in the day's trading. The Salt Lake exchange sold 25,300 shares for $5,724.97, while its neighbor to the west made a record of 35,400 shares, for which buyers paid the sum of $3,246.62. The day was rather a gloomy one for stocks, although the clouds may be dispelled before morning and business assume its normal shape again.

ANTLER THE LEADER.

This Stock Heavily Dealt in on the Utah Exchange.

Antler was the banner stock on the Utah Exchange today, 13,000 shares changing hands at figures ranging from 1¼ to 1⅝ cents a share. The day on this board was a fairly good one, the record being 35,400 shares for $3,246.62. Ajax was a seller at $1.45, while Dexter was dealt in at $2.60, Daisy at 29¾ cents, and Four Aces at 36 cents. Highland Boy Changes.

The new president of the Utah Consolidated, to succeed Samuel Newhouse, recently resigned, is Albert C. Burrage, a representative of the Standard Oil company. It will be remembered that Mr. Newhouse engineered a deal some time ago transferring to this syndicate a third-interest in the Utah Consolidated or Highland Boy mine for $4,000,000. At that time the gentleman disposed of his own interests and practically severed his connection with the company. Thomas Weir, general manager, has also resigned, but his place has not yet been filled by the appointment of another. Messrs. Newhouse and Weir propose giving their individual attention to their other Utah interests, among them the Ajax, Dragon Iron and Kismet.

South Sunbeam Contract.

The South Sunbeam, one of the most promising prospects in the Tintic district, will let a contract on the 26th inst., for an additional 100 feet of sinking, this putting the shaft to a depth of 225 feet. The property is looking well and shows fine streaks of quartz carrying native copper, as well as light values in silver and gold. Its owners are highly elated over the outlook, and propose pushing development until a mine has been opened up.

Mollie Gibson Cuts the Vein.

The Mollie Gibson of Tintic has cut the vein at a point 100 feet in the crosscut from the bottom of the shaft, the latter being 100 feet deep. This done, the company expects to commence stoping at once, which will enable them to hoist and ship ore by the first of May. This property is located at Silver City and has as fine a showing as any of the youngsters in that part of the district. R. G. Wilson is one of the owners.

Strike in the New Year.

There are not many square feet of ground in the Wasatch or Uintah Mountains that have not been traversed and prospected by one or another of the parties who form the company officially known as the "New Year Mining company," and composed of C. B. Hancock, J. E. Hosmer and Alma Eldredge. And at last their efforts seem to have proved successful. For only recently slight developments on one of the company's most promising locations revealed a rich copper ore bearing gold and silver. The mine is about fourteen miles north of Coalville in the vicinity of Croydon. Further developments will be prosecuted without delay, one hundred thousand shares having been set aside for development work, and the property will at once be placed on the market.—Coalville Times.

Amendment Filed.

The Gold Note Mining and Milling company filed amendments to its articles of incorporation today making the capital stock of the company $100,000 divided into 500,000 shares, valued at 20 cents each.

MINING NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sheets leave for Europe tomorrow.

Broker Tibbals is out with a well arranged form for recording future transactions.

The 200-foot shaft on the Primrose at Tintic, is being nicely timbered all the way down, 100 feet of the work having been already attended to. This property is said to have the finest shaft in the district and will be pushed to the deep as soon as present work is completed.

ARRESTED FOR INSANITY.

Eliza Waters, residing with her husband in the Gladstone building, was arrested this afternoon on the charge of insanity. She will be given a hearing in the morning. The unfortunate woman's husband is a miner named Richard Waters, and formerly resided in Coalville.

GERMANY MAKES PROTEST

Ambassador Von Holleben Calls on Secretary of State Hay.

Coghlan's Talk About Von Deidrichs Objected to—Action of Navy Department Awaited.

Washington, April 24.—The German government has entered a formal protest against the language used by Captain Coghlan, of the Raleigh, at the Union League club banquet in New York last Friday night.

The protest was lodged with Secretary Hay through the German ambassador Herr von Holleben. Secretary Hay replied that the language appeared to have been used at a dinner in a club, and could not be regarded as an official or public utterance in the sense that would warrant the state department in acting. However, the navy department was fully competent to take such action as the case seemed to require.

With this statement the ambassador was content for the time at least, and will doubtless await a reasonable length of time upon the navy department. There are semi-official intimations that the ambassador will not so much concern himself with the course of Captain Coghlan as with the course of the United States in dealing with Coghlan. The German ambassador stated today that the poem recited by Captain Coghlan was "too nasty to be noticed."

It said Capt. Coghlan's case is not similar to that of the Spanish Captain Conchas, whose utterance in Madrid, just before the war, criticising the United States, caused the state department to lodge a formal protest through United States Minister Hannis Taylor. Captain Conchas' utterances were embodied in a lecture before the Spanish Geographical society and were public in the full sense of the term. Secretary Hay, in his reply to the German ambassador, has undoubtedly taken note of the difference between the cases on this particular point and it may be a very important difference for Captain Coghlan. The state department's position is that a club is simply the home of a number of gentlemen and so cannot be considered a public affair. But this view does not relieve Captain Coghlan from responsibility to his brother officers, for conduct which is alleged to be detrimental to the navy. Though relieved from accountability to the state department directly by Secretary Hay's attitude, the navy department, as the secretary has indicated, must deal with the case.

Captain Coghlan can be called to account on several charges, presuming that he has been correctly reported and that he admits the utterance. As in Commodore Meade's case if he stands mute and the newspaper men refuse to testify, the navy department can proceed no further. The charge which would most probably be brought against Captain Coghlan in case the affair progresses to a court martial, would be conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

So far no response has been received from Captain Coghlan at the navy department. It is expected the officer will proceed with deliberation in making any statement he may care to submit to the department. Meanwhile unpleasant suggestions are arising in the embarrassment that may follow the execution of the round of receptions planned for the Raleigh.

The German ambassador appeared at the state department at noon today for the purpose of making further representations to Secretary Hay touching the conduct of Captain Coghlan so that the utterance of Captain Coghlan at the Army and Navy club, as published in yesterday morning's papers, were regarded as an additional offense. An effort was made to ascertain whether the United States government intended to do anything officially in view of subsequent developments in the case. Secretary Hay has not changed his position in any degree. He deprecated the lack of tact and bad taste shown by Captain Coghlan, and he did not hesitate to let that be known to the German ambassador. But he still held that the case was one that required treatment by methods of naval discipline only, and with which the state department could only concern itself. The German ambassador will communicate the department's views to the foreign office at Berlin. The officials of both sides realize that this episode may grow into a very great source of discord, unless treated discreetly and coolly. After the conference between Secretary Hay and the German ambassador this afternoon it was stated in an authoritative quarter that there was no reason to view the Coghlan affair in too serious a light, or as presenting grave international complications. The meeting today, it was stated, has been mutually agreeable. The main feature of the state department conference was in establishing that Germany expects to the United States government to deal with the Coghlan affair according to the gravity of the offense and the United States in turn gives assurance that every just expectation in this respect will be performed.

Chicago's Protest Against Roberts.

Chicago, April 24.—The members of the Chicago Presbytery at a meeting today sent a letter to every member of Congress representing Chicago, protesting against the seating in Congress of Brigham H. Roberts, recently elected a representative from Utah.

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES.

The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the worst type. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the disease is; they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know for Cancer. The disease promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm. Walpole, of Walshtown, S. D., says: "A little blotch about the size of a pea came under my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shooting pains at intervals ran in all directions. I became greatly alarmed and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but this I could not consent to. I read in my local paper of a cure effected by S. S. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm, the Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then discharging very freely. This gradually grew less and then discontinued altogether, leaving a small scab which soon dropped off, and now only a healthy little scar remains where that threatened to destroy my life once held full sway."

Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system permanently. A surgical operation does not reach the blood—the real seat of the disease—because the blood can not be cut away. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

S. S. S. cures also any case of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Valuable books on Cancer and Blood Diseases will be mailed free to any address by
