LOCAL BRIEFS.

There will be a meeting of the state board of education in State Supt. Nelson's office tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of awarding teachers' certificates and diplomas.

Sheriff Oscar Beebe of Emery county arrived in the city yesterday with a prisoner named William Ralphs, who was captured at McCammon, Ida. They left for Emery county last evening.

A. H. Dutton, formerly a newspaper cartoonist in this city, and afterwards connected with the Butte papers, is in the city with Mrs. Dutton, for a few days, en route to Goldfield, Nev., where he will set up an engraving plant for the Goldfield Sun.

Saturday evening the Norwegian brotherhood will hold a reunion at Scandinavian hall, 323 south State street. A program has been arranged for the occasion, the numbers of which are specially interesting to Norwegians. It will include music, singing and dancing.

Articles of incorporation of the Utah Automatic Gate company of this city have been filed with the county clerk. It is capitalized at $20,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each. J. D. Murdock is president; James Langton, vice president; John Macdonald, Jr., treasurer.

All of the sidewalk extension ordinances and the ordinance fixing the rate of interest on deferred payments on public improvements at 6 and 8 per cent instead of 7 and 10 per cent, passed by the city council Monday night, have been approved by Acting Mayor Hewlett.

A large and handsome banner has been presented to the Elks by J. C. Barthel, one of the officers of the Salt Lake lodge. It is 12½x21 ft., and contains an elk's head on a white field, with "85" between the antlers, and beneath, "B. P. O. E.," purple stripes across the banner in the top and the bottom.

Prof. G. L. Swendsen, in charge of the Reclamation survey work in this state, has to provide all of his men going in and out of the Strawberry country with passports in order to get past the soldiers who promptly hold up every person going in there unless provided with proper papers showing that they have a right to go in there. The soldiers are keeping a sharp lookout for sooners.

Collector Greenewald at the Salt Lake custom house is urging upon local merchants the advisability of importing their foreign purchase direct through the port of Salt Lake instead of from eastern importing houses who add commissions to the original bill. The establishment of a custom house in this city has proven a greater convenience than was imagined when the idea was first broached.

E. B. Linnen, special agent of the land office, has returned to Salt Lake from Vernal. He says there is not much danger of sooners getting into the reservation with the present guard that is stationed there. This guard is nothing less than two troops of the Fifth cavalry, companies F, K, L and M of the Twenty-ninth infantry, and the Twelfth and Twenty-second batteries of light artillery. No one can get in there now who has no legal business there.

An eastern architect has prepared plans for a fine large stone mausoleum for David Keith, to be erected in Mt. Olivet. The tomb is square in shape, and of immense blocks of light colored stone, plain in style, but very massive and substantial. The doors are of steel, and the name "Keith" in large letters appears over the entrance. The perspective indicates a tomb of 20 feet square, and 12 feet high; and the estimated cost is about $10,000.

The town of Sandy some weeks ago decided to put in water mains to supply water for culinary purposes, and now it is planned to increase the size of the mains to 12 inches, so that irrigation water may also be supplied through the pipes. The directors of the Sandy Water company, after considering the matter, have decided to make the increase in size of the mains, and it is thought that the Salt Lake County Water company will follow suit in laying mains at Bingham Junction.

The city has two fine lots on Capitol hill for sale, and sealed bids on the same will be received by Land and Water Commissioner Ben D. Luce up to July 31. The lots each have a 50 ft. frontage, and are located on Broadway, an extension of the canyon boulevard. They are lots 5 and 6, block 2, plat K, Salt Lake City survey. Four years ago the lots were sold at auction to L. P. Kelsey for $600 each. He put up $120 as an evidence of good faith, but has never made any other payments on them; hence they are to be sold again.

Yesterday T. B. Thueson, a ranchman from Wyoming, called at police headquarters and told the police a story they have heard many, many times. It is the story of two smooth grafters and what the police call a "sucker," getting together and matching half dollars. After the "sucker" lost a roll of $1,050, a pseudo policeman approached the three men, where they were matching, and placed them under arrest. The "policeman" took the two grafters to "jail" and told the "sucker" to report at police headquarters. He reported, but found that the grafters had not been arrested.

A jolly crowd of the Sunday school officers and teachers from Sugar House ward assembled at Saltair last night in honor of Supts. Murphy, Rockwood and Larson of that school. Shortly after the arrival of the 7 o'clock train, tables were spread, and a delicious supper was served by the ladies, the tables being neatly decorated. Mr. Edward H. Anderson officiated as toast master, and some pleasing responses were made, eulogies being paid to the faithfulness of the Sunday school and ward officials. The following were among the participants who voted the evening a grand success: Mr. and Mrs. Bird Murphy, Mr. Apollis Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. L. John Larson, Bishop and Mrs. John M. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. John Varley, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Pack, Mrs. Lily Anderson, Mrs. Esther Fairbanks, Miss Jennie Taylor, Miss Loretta Hafen, Miss Elmina Taylor, Miss Bessie Whitaker, Miss Libbie Leatham, Miss Cutler, Miss Ivie Wilhenson, Miss Kate Stayner, Miss Birdie Ahlquist, Miss Bessie Taylor, Mr. Chris Christensen, Mr. Chester Madsen, Mr. Geo. UINTAH FOREST RESERVE.

How it Has Been Enlarged Through Presidential Proclamation.

In providing for the opening of the Uintah Indian reservation, Congress authorized the president to reserve, as an addition to the Uintah forest reserve, such portion of the Indian reservation as he deemed necessary.

In accordance with this provision of law the president has recently issued a proclamation including within the Uintah forest reserve a portion of the Indian reservation, containing an acreage of about 1,000,000 acres. This addition consists of a somewhat crescent-shaped area, embracing, in the main, the northern portion of the Indian reservation, adjoining the forest reserve on the south, prolonged to include a narrow strip extending around the western and a part of the southern edge of the Indian reservation.

By this expansion of the boundaries of the forest reserve a number of important watersheds have been brought within the limits of that reserve.

The entire area heretofore forming the Indian reservation is drained by the Duchesne river, which, in its passage through the reservation, from west to east, receives a number of important tributaries, flowing down to it from the enclosing mountains on the north, west and south. These mountains constitute the semi-circular chain of watersheds which has been included within the forest reserve.

The mountains on the north, for a distance of 50 miles, consist of the central and most elevated portion of the Uintah range. Except a few gaps at the extreme western end, this divide is a series of bald peaks, all over 12,000 feet in altitude, and many over 13,000 feet. Throughout the entire distance, with the exception noted, the elevation does not fall below 11,000 feet. These 50 miles of mountains give rise to no less than six main streams.

This rugged mountainous region, which is nearly valueless for other purposes, also bears important commercial forests. It constitutes the major portion of the addition to the forest reserve. The remainder of the addition consists of a narrow strip of mountainous land, containing the headwaters of Strawberry creek, flowing from the west, and of several main streams which flow from the south.

Indigestion.

With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c. bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B

CORNER STONE LAID.

Greeks of Salt Lake Commence the Erection of a Church in This City.

The Greek community of Utah held an interesting service yesterday afternoon at the laying of the corner stone of their Salt Lake church. The program was not long, but included two speeches, and was witnessed by a large gathering of Greeks. The men, among whom there are no wealthy capitalists, or even well to do merchants, have given more than liberally to establish a place of worship here, and the success of their co-operative effort is a matter of which they are much pleased.

The service was entirely in the Greek language. Father Parthenios Limberopoulos, who since April last has been the spiritual head of the Utah Greeks, officiated in the full robes of his office. After he had placed the stone in place, N. P. Stathakos, a prominent Greek organizer, and a man very loyal to the traditions of the Greek nation, made a fervent patriotic speech. He congratulated this community on being strong enough to support a church, and pointed to this evidence of ideals, to show that the faith of the American people in the Greeks, in allowing them to enter America, and making it pleasant for them here, was not misplaced. He urged all of those present to be watchful of the laws and obey them and to be loyal to the country they had adopted as their own, as well as true to the country from which they had come. He ended by proposing three cheers for the American people and three for the Greeks.

The church is located on Fourth West street between Third and Fourth South. When completed it will accommodate about 1,500 worshipers.

WHAT WILL FUTURE BE?

Maxwell to Tell Convention of Transmississippi Region in Days to Come.

Friends of Irrigation who go to Portland as delegates to the Transmississippi Commercial congress, which convenes in Portland, Oregon, Aug. 16, 17, 18 and 19 next, will have the pleasure of listening to an interesting discussion lead by the Hon. Geo. H. Maxwell, chairman of the national association, who will speak on the subject, "The Future of the Transmississippi Region." Inasmuch as the national irrigation congress holds its thirteenth annual session the week following the session of the Transmississippi commercial congress, irrigationists and others interested in the reclamation of arid lands will have this advantage should they reach Portland Aug. 16. They will also be afforded an opportunity to inspect the very remarkable display made by the United States government reproducing in objective form the actual workings of the reclamation service under the charge of that eminent engineer, Mr. F. H. Newell, the head of the reclamation service. Mr. Perkins, of the naval corps of assistants, has been instructed by the government to afford all facilities to the delegates, and especially to the delegates of the Transmississippi Commercial congress.
