INTERESTING BIKE RACES LAST NIGHT

N. C. Hopper Won Two Mile Handicap Lap Race from Scratch.

SOME VERY EXCITING FINISHES.

Elongated Jack Hume Has Everything His Own Way in the Ranks of The Amateurs.

Another large and interested crowd of bike race fans crowded into the saucer arena last night, and they saw some pretty fast going.

N. C. Hopper proved to be the star of the evening and gave the professionals plenty to do in keeping him in sight. In the two mile handicap lap race he ran away from the field, starting at scratch. He had to beat Hardy Downing, who had a lead of 55 yards, but he did it all right and won first money, while the San Jose boy got second. This race was the event of the evening, and Hopper and Downing furnished the thrills.

Hollister was supposed to do the donkey work for Hopper, but he based too soon, and Hopper had to go it alone. He proved equal to the occasion, however. Downing showed his wise head by tacking onto Hopper's rear wheel, thereby coming in for second money.

Eddie Smith, T. M. Samuelson and Ed Heagren were entered in the motor race. The first named had the race well in hand with Chapman's old machine when something happened and Samuelson took the lead. Heagren next forged to the front but Samuelson crowded him at a 1:16 rate, and came over the tape a winner by a narrow margin.

Sky Scraper Hume, of the University, convinced the amateurs that he had the goods and knew how to deliver them, in the amateur events. He took the half mile open event.

Iver Redman would have won the half mile consolation professional, had he not bumped into Hollister. Referee Gardner disqualified him. The summary follows:

Two-mile lap handicap, professional—Hopper (scratch), Downing (55 yards), Agraz (100 yards), Heagren (150 yards). Time—4:04 3-5.

Half mile amateur, final—Hume, Castro, Wiser. Time—1:03 2-5.

Quarter-mile consolation, professional—Williams, Hollister, Achorn. Time—:30 4-5. Redman finished second but was disqualified.

Mile handicap, amateur, final—Holliday (50 yards), Tate (80 yards), Wesler (60 yards). Time—2:16 3-5.

Five-mile open, motor—T. M. Samuelson, E. R. Heagren. Time—6:45 4-5. E. E. Smith did not finish.

IVER LAWSON HERE.

Champion Bike Rider of the World from Australia.

Iver Lawson, champion bicycle rider of the world, accompanied by his trainer, Billy Rolles, arrived yesterday from Australia, where Iver carried off many big prizes.

"This was my third visit to the Antipodes," said Iver, "and it was the most successful of all."

Floyd McFarland, Iver's partner, remained at San Francisco for a day or two, but it is expected he will be here Monday or Tuesday. Except where unreasonable handicaps were given against him, Iver won every race he entered. He has not decided whether he will remain here for the summer, or go to New York, where he has a flattering offer.

Another rider who has just arrived is Walter Bardgett, one of the eastern cracks. He proposes to stay here for the season's racing, and if in good condition should get inside the money every race meet. He is an old timer at the racing game and knows all the tricks in the business.

GOODNESS! WHAT'S HAPPENED

Salt Lake Ball Team Has Actually Won From Spokane.

Salt Lake, 4; Spokane, 0.

Now what do you think of that?

Particulars had to be wired for before the statement that Salt Lake had won would be believed. Said particulars show that the Salt Lake team really did shut out the naughty Indians. The local bunch suddenly woke up and played ball as they have never played before, and with the good work of Rastus Wright in the box, managed to make the Redskins take to the timbers. Wright had the Indians puzzled all the time. They could not solve his mysteries. Only three hits off his delivery. Guess that's going some? Salt Lake had all the best of it from start to finish.

CALL UP THE LAKE.

Bathers at Saltair May Now Order Their Goods by Telephone.

Bathers at Saltair today are able to talk into four different states from 3,000 feet out in the lake by the floating telephone set out there by the Bell engineers. For instance, the editors of the Spokesman-Review at Spokane, or the Cheyenne Sun, the Butte Miner, or the Boise Statesman can be called up from the Dead sea and asked to listen to the splash and the dash and the swash of the heavy waves of brine accompaniment to a dozen bathers singing in unison, "Oh a life on the ocean wave, a home on the rolling deep." At the same time, bathers can call up the Associated Press and ask for the latest news from Rojestvensky, or how much of a clean-up Togo has made of the remnants of the Russian fleet in the China sea. Bathers can also order dinner at the pavilion to be ready for them on returning to the shore, or bottles of root beer or ginger pop sent out to them on the bathing grounds.

Just What Everyone Should Do.

Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by all Druggists.

EDDIE HANLON DEFEATS CORBETT

In a Gruelling Struggle That Lasts the Full Twenty Rounds.

THE REFEREE GETS PUNCHED

By Little Denverite When Decision is Given Against Him—Seconds Also Mixed It.

San Francisco, June 2.—Eddie Hanlon fought Young Corbett to a standstill during the last few rounds of a twenty-round contest tonight and was awarded a hard earned decision by Referee Honan. The fight was an exciting one from start to finish and several times the tide of battle was in favor of one or the other. During the first part of the contest Hanlon had a slight advantage, but no harm was done to either man until the eleventh round. Then Hanlon rushed Corbett to the ropes, but the Denver boy stalled him off and blocked a number of stomach punches. Corbett got to the center of the ring and in a mix-up landed left and right swings on Hanlon's jaw. The San Francisco boy went to his knees and took the count of nine. He came up fighting and in spite of Corbett's strenuous efforts to put him out he finished the round strong.

For the next four rounds Corbett went at his man and in the thirteenth had Hanlon very tired, but he could not land a knockout blow. Hanlon braced up in the fourteenth and seemed to have a small margin over Corbett. The fifteenth round was about even. Hanlon landed a left and right to the jaw, but they did no harm. The sixteenth was Corbett's by a large majority. He landed a series of right uppercuts to the face and Hanlon was very tired. The seventeenth was Hanlon's round. He uppercut Corbett to the face and stomach. Corbett was apparently tired and unable to hit back. The eighteenth was about even, although Corbett had a shade the better of it at the end. The nineteenth and twentieth were all Hanlon's. All during the nineteenth he stood up close to Corbett pounding away at the Denver boy's stomach. Corbett was tired, but could not hit back. He made several wild swings, but missed his man and did no harm. The round closed with the crowd yelling for Hanlon.

HANLON HAS BETTER OF IT.

In the twentieth Hanlon came up strong and went right at his man. They stood breast to breast each with his head on the other's shoulder and slugged for all that was in them. Hanlon was the stronger and forced Corbett about the ring, playing a lively tattoo on his stomach. He got Corbett against the ropes and had him at his mercy. Corbett came very nearly going off the platform, but managerd to stagger back to the center of the ring, but that only gave Hanlon a better chance at him. The round closed with both men on their feet and with Corbett all but out.

The decision was a popular one with the crowd, as Hanlon the last few rounds clearly outfought his man.

Corbett can have no excuse to offer on the grounds of condition. He was in excellent shape and fought just as hard and viciously as he ever did. His favorite blow was a right uppercut, and occasionally a straight left to the face. Hanlon paid most of his attention to Corbett's stomach and battered away at his opponent's middle all during the fight. Occasionally he would swing rights and lefts to the jaw, but they did not seem to jar Corbett, and he always came back for more. The blows to the stomach were what won the fight for Hanlon. Hanlon has modified his style of fighting considerably since his last appearance here. His old peculiar crouch was abandoned, and he stood up straight and fought in better sytle than heretofore. Apparently he does not possess a knockout punch.

The winner is matched to fight Jimmy Britt in July next.

When Referee Honan designated Hanlon as the winner, Corbett, although he did not have strength enough to hit Hanlon during the last two rounds, managed to summon up energy enough to smash the referee on the jaw. One of Hanlon's seconds thereupon rushed into the ring and took a swing at Corbett. He landed, but not hard enough to put the defeated fighter out. The referee was not hurt, and before any more damage could be done the police jumped into the ring and hustled the belligerents off the platform.

Following is a detailed account of the last three rounds, which were the critical ones of the fight:

THE LAST THREE ROUNDS.

Round 18—Hanlon rushed in quickly, landing a pile-driving right on Corbett's jaw. Corbett fought back wildly, stalling desperately. They fought breast to breast and Hanlon had every advantage in the close range work. Both were groggy at this stage, and it was a case of the survival of the fittest. They moved about, each pegging away at the other's breast, inflicting punishment. Finally Hanlon swung his right hard to Corbett's jaw and Corbett evened it with a left to the jaw. Hanlon peppered Corbett about the mid-section, while Corbett rocked Hanlon's head with right and left to the jaw. It was a furious mixup and both men nearly fell as they tottered to their corners. The round was even.

Round 19—Corbett immediately landed three right uppercuts to Hanlon's jaw, and Hanlon fought back desperately. Then Corbett sent in a straight punch, and Eddie clinched. Mixing it, Hanlon drove Corbett back with an avalanche of blows to the body, but they lacked steam. Hanlon then drove in three vicious rights to the jaw, forcing Corbett to cover. Hanlon repeated the dose a moment later and forced Corbett to the ropes with a raking right uppercut and a succession of left and right swings to the body and stomach. They stood in the center of the ring, battling fiercely for the upper hand. It was the most savage rally ever witnessed in this city, with Hanlon having a bit the advantage. So even was the fighting that the crowd took up the cry, half yelling, "Corbett!" and the other half "Hanlon!"

Round 20—Hanlon blocked a vicious right, and they mixed it. Hanlon putting in three terrific right uppercuts to the jaw. The most furious rally of the contest ensued, Hanlon having all the better of it. Corbett hung on desperately and Hanlon battered him about like a cork, bringing the blood from Corbett's nose. Hanlon then administered fearful punishment and Corbett was groggy and helpless. Hanlon kept after Corbett, landing fearful swings, and it seemed as if the Colorado man must go clear through the ropes. Corbett fought desperately, landing some blows. The men continued to battle until their arms fell to their sides from sheer exhaustion. It was the most wonderful contest ever witnessed here, and the final clang of the gong found both men on the verge of collapse. Referee Honan then promptly declared Hanlon the winner, amid a terrific tumult.

Track and Field Events.

Chicago, June 2.—The trial events for the western intercollegiate championship in track and field athletics and held today on Marshall field. Unwieldy fields and the varied quality of entries for the quarter-mile run and the pole vault caused the managing committee to decide upon a plan to eliminate from both events contestants who are not top notchers. The aim was to bring the real stars together in the finals, with the hope of bettering former records. There are 35 entries in the quarter-mile and 22 in the pole vault. The quarter-mile was run in three heats, with the first, second and third in each heat qualifying. In the pole vault only those who cleared the bar at ten feet six inches or over will be able to compete tomorrow.

LITTLE HAZEL McCLURE,—DEAF FOR A YEAR—NOW HEARS PERFECTLY. READ THE STORY OF HER GRATEFUL MOTHER.

HAZEL McCLURE, N. Temple St. and Camps Lane, Salt Lake City.

MRS. J. H. McCLURE, the mother of the little girl says: "Hazel has been very deaf for a year or more, the result of Chicken Pox. I could scarcely make her hear me, when she was in the same room with me—and even loud noises failed to attract her attention. She showed symptoms of Catarrh also—her head and nose stopped up—and at night she could scarcely breathe—sitting up in bed gasping for breath. In despair I took her to Drs. Shores & Shores, one month ago, and her progress has been wonderful.

Today SHE HEARS PERFECTLY—and I can call her when she is outside at play and she always hears me now—her head and nose is entirely clear, she sleeps like a baby—and I am so proud and grateful that I want to tell all Mothers what Drs. Shores have done for my little girl. Signed. "MRS. J. H. McCLURE.

Drs. Shores experience has seldom if ever ben equalled by medical men. Drs. Shores' motto is—"a Low fee, mild and painless treatment and a guaranteed cure in all curable cases."

Now is the time to be cured. One month's treatment at this favorable season is equal in curative results to 3 months at any other season.

BEWARE OF "FAKE MEDICAL COMPANIES."

Drs. Shores in their many years of practice in Salt Lake City, have never resorted to abuse of any honest physician—but on the contrary Drs. Shores have always welcomed HONEST competition—but when TRAMP DOCTORS and ITINERANT FAKIRS, hiding under the cloak of a "Fake Medical Co.," seek to trap the unwary, Drs. Shores feel it a duty to call attention to such frauds. EVERY DOCTOR ENTITLED TO PRACTICE MEDICINE IN UTAH HAS HIS NAME AN CREDENTIALS ON RECORD IN THE COUNTY RECORDER'S OFFICE. If you intend to consult a doctor, FIRST EXAMINE THE RECORDS AND SEE THAT HIS NAME IS THERE. It is an old-time trick to advertise a "Fake Medical Co." and parade one doctor as possessing great skill (who is either a non-resident of the state or is dead and buried), and then palm off some unscrupulous quack on the sick when they come to consult the doctor advertised. DID YOU EVER HEAR OF A GENUINE, REPUTABLE PHYSICIAN DOING BUSINESS WITH THE SICK AS A "FAKE COMPANY?" The "COMPANY" furnishes the cloak under which ANY QUACK can practice. If you go to see a doctor be sure to SEE HIM IN PERSON, and don't be satisfied with some one who "RIPRESINTS THE DOKE-TOR" on a salary of $60 per month.

Compare the picture of the doctor advertised with the face of the man who consults you—then ask him who he is.

Drs. Shores conduct their business under their OWN NAMES—if you consult Drs. Shores & Shores, you see the DOCTORS PERSONALLY. If you consult other doctors, BE SURE YOU SEE THE DOCTOR HIMSELF.
