ADJACENT CITIES.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JUNE 30.

[illegible]

J. T. BRUCE SHOT DEAD.

A S. P. Brakeman Killed While Pelting a Tramp Off the Train.

The regular eastbound train of the Southern Pacific which reached Ogden yesterday morning brought the news of the frightful murder of J. T. Bruce, a well-known brakeman by a tramp, near Gold Run, eastern California. It appears that just after the train left Gold Run for Nevada, Bruce found three tramps on the train. He succeeded in putting two off. The third became violent and showed fight. All efforts of the brakeman to eject him proved fruitless. A scuffle ensued during which the tramp drew a Medellen Colt's revolver and shot Bruce through the chest just above the heart. He expired in a few minutes after the fatal shot was fired. The Southern Pacific company offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the tramp who did the shooting.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

An Appeal to the Merchants of Ogden to Stand by Home Manufactures.

The directors of the board of trade held a meeting Wednesday evening and attended to the following business:

The Western Manufacturing Company, through their representative, Mr. Hughes, explained to the board what they intend to do in the establishment of a plant for the manufacture of soap in the city of Ogden. The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the board:

Whereas, The Western Manufacturing Company has about completed arrangements for making in Ogden City various kinds of soap of excellent quality, in which enterprise is invested many thousands of dollars, and which on the whole is a splendid institution for Ogden; and

Whereas, It is probable that other soap companies in other cities will endeavor to destroy or impede the progress of the Ogden company by oversupplying the merchants of this city and vicinity with soap; therefore, be it

Resolved, First: That the attention of the merchants and people of Ogden and vicinity be called to the foregoing facts; Second: That it is the plain duty of all to give liberal support to said company when its factory produces as good soap as is now on the market at the same price.

Communications from parties proposing to advertise Ogden and establish here a large paper mill were read, and the matter was placed in the hands President Rogers and committee.

DEATH OF JOHN BROWN.

One of Utah's Veteran Pioneers Passes Peacefully Away.

John Brown, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Ogden, died yesterday afternoon, at his late residence on Adams avenue, after a lingering illness of over seven months duration. Deceased was a native of England, having been born in Sheffield, March 22, 1825. In company with his wife he came to Utah in 1856, and ever since has been recognized as one of our able and progressing citizens. In 1862 he built the Brown hotel at a cost of $75,000 and has been identified with many of the business enterprises of this city. He leaves a wife and two married daughters. Funeral will take place at the family residence on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Articles of Incorporation.

Articles of incorporation of the Coast Bond and Investment company were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The following are the names of the incorporators: J. W. Guthrie, of Corinne; John S. Hoch, Albert Allen, Joseph Batten, Lewis W. Shurtliff, H. H. Bishop, Thomas D. Dee, J. C. Armstrong, John A. Boyle, W. S. Shilling, A. C. Emerson, Joseph S. G. Langsdorf, H. L. Bowen, P. L. Grill, W. P. P. St. Clair, W. B. Wedell and J. M. Langsdorf.

The capital stock of the company is $10,000, divided into 1000 shares at $10 each. The general object of the owners will be to loan money, buy and sell real estate and do a general banking concern, etc., etc. Ogden is named as the principal place of business.

Police Court Items.

Henry Allen in the police court yesterday demanded a jury trial, six jurors were found and having been the witnesses found the prisoner not guilty. His discharge was accordingly ordered. Allen it will be remembered was the individual who was charged with forging the name of another man and fraudulently obtaining $25.

Jim Brown yesterday got on a big spree. This morning he got five days in the city jail.

Notes and Personals.

Mr. Frohman said the company would return to Salt Lake in August.

Johnnie Blatti, city editor of the Standard, leaves in the morning on a mission to Europe.

There was a session of the district court yesterday. Judge Miner devoted yesterday to work in chambers.

W. J. Lynch, assessor and collector of Salt Lake county, issued a challenge yesterday to Geo. L. Baker to shoot for the championship of the Territory. Mr. Baker won the championship on the 23rd inst.

Minnie M., the seven-year-old daughter of William J. and Elpha J. Stephens, died yesterday of brain fever. The funeral services were held at 1 o'clock at the family residence on South Washington avenue today.

Frohman Theatrical company passed through here yesterday, on their way to Portland and the Pacific coast. Among the company were Mr. Frohman, Herbert Kelcey, Georgia Cayvan, Effie Shannon, Fritz Williams, Miss Tyrel and Mrs. Thomas Whiffen.

The fire department got called out twice yesterday, the first time at 4.30 p.m. on a small blaze near the roof of the Consolidated Milling & Lumber company, corner of Grant avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The second was at 10.30 last night, which was merely a test alarm by members of the city council.

Hon. J. W. Haynes of Genoa, Nevada, World's Fair commissioner for Nevada came in on the Northern Pacific train yesterday and was met at the depot by Hon. Fred Kiesel. The genial man is a strong advocate of annexation. He will meet the committee appointed by Judge Parlan of the chamber of commerce to visit Reno on the Fourth.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JUNE 30, 1893.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

Irrigation Decree.—Bail for Tintic People.—Divorce Cases.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Judge Smith yesterday made a decree in the Lake Shore-Spanish Fork irrigation case. The plaintiff is given one twenty-fourth of the stream of Spanish Fork river at the city dam, so long as there is sufficient water remaining to permit the following apportionment among other irrigation companies: East bench canal, a stream of water 2 feet by 1½ inches; Salem, 4 feet by 1½ inches; South Field, 6 feet by 1½ inches; West Field and reputed Field city, 11 feet by 1½ inches. When the stream is not large enough to permit of such a division, Lake Shore water is shut off.

The Eureka Rioters.

Following are the Tintic people charged with committing riot on March 19th: Pat Sloan, Jas. Murphy, P. J. Collins, L. T. Jacobs, John Hanley, Owen Fairchild, Peter Murphy, Pat Sullivan, Mrs. Annie Quinn, Mrs. Richard Sullivan, Mrs. Catherine Jacobs, Mrs. Margaret Sloan, James G. Holmes, Red Pat Sullivan, Mike Metcalfe, John Sullivan, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Albert Collins, Con Sullivan, Mrs. J. T. Harrington.

Those charged with committing riot on May 20th are the following: Con Sullivan, Red Pat Sullivan, Mrs. Kate Jacobs, Mrs. Annie Quinn, Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, Mrs. Annie Mingis, Mike Metcalfe, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, John Hanley. All came up in the afternoon and entered plea of not guilty. Bonds were placed at $250 for each man in each case, and $125 for each woman in one case.

James G. Holmes pleaded not guilty to the charge of perjury, and his bond was fixed at $750.

Albert Collins pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with intent to murder Byron Hyde, and his bond was placed at $1000.

In all these cases, permission was granted to give bonds before Justice Pike of Eureka. A number gave bonds before leaving the city.

He Wanted a Divorce.

J. R. Weaver, a sleek looking individual of perhaps 55, a resident of Richfield, applied for a divorce yesterday from his wife, Ada Weaver, on the grounds of desertion and adultery. The couple have not lived together for some time, Mrs. Weaver having resided in California. Weaver was somewhat surprised, therefore, on coming to the city, to find Mrs. Weaver here, prepared to refute all aspersions by sight attempts to throw on her character. She went further, giving testimony implicating her lord in counterfeiting and other criminal offenses. The divorce was not granted. Mrs. Weaver has learned of her husband's duplicity through correspondence with Sheriff Cease of Sevier county, and the timely visit to this city so as to give him a genuine surprise. It is stated that he had intended contracting a second marriage as soon as the divorce was obtained.

The case of A. A. Noon vs Provo City Railway company was set for hearing on July 1st. The suit is brought to recover $238 in the possession of the county treasurer as a surplus over the amount collected by the sale of railway property.

A divorce was granted Bertha Ball from Charles W. Ball on the ground of drunkenness and cruelty.

Caroline Holdaway complained that her divorced husband, Levi S. Holdaway, had fallen far behind with his $20 per month alimony payments, and herself and children were in destitute circumstances. Holdaway was ordered to appear in court on July 15th and give an account of himself.

Notes and Personals.

Judge Smith expects to visit the World's Fair tomorrow.

President A. O. Smoot has almost recovered. He went to Salt Lake yesterday.

The Woolen mills are closed down until Wednesday morning next.

An order for a carload of onyx has been received by John Devy.

T. C. Holden is in the city selling shoes for the Spanish Fork Co-operative Shoe Manufacturing company.

Sheriff Fowler will resign to accept the deputy marshalship for this district. It is quite probable that Marshal Brown will succeed him as sheriff. Perhaps Officer Aleck Wilkins is born will become marshal.
