"Can't Beat Long Steve."

HALIFAX, 17.—Geo. Brown has received, from California, a postal card containing the following:
"You cannot beat Long Steve in the embassy had been brought into contempt, while the Berlin foreign office was bewildered to find so much information going in every direction, claiming to be of a semi-official character, and which was entirely at variance with the instructions sent out by the foreign office. There was but one remedy, and that was to recall You Arnim, and send him to Constantinople. The Count considers the eighty-two letters as of a personal character, and not belonging to the Embassy, while Bismarck insists that the papers abstracted were part of the record of the Embassy addressed to the German ambassador and not to You Arnim personally.

The Heraid's Washington special says the German government has says the German government has anythed dealerment to the contempt, while the Berlin foreign office was bewildered to find so much information going in every direction, claiming to be of a semi-official character, and which was entirely at variance with the instructions sent out by the foreign office. The Herald's Washington special says the German government has positively disclaimed the intention of purchasing a naval station in Costa Rica, with additional assurances that the government not only respects the Monroe doctrine, but most cordially approves it, and, like the U. S., Germany has no need of a naval station in distant countries.

Von Arnim's Trouble.

New York, 18.—The Harald's Washington special gives a verson of the arrest of Count Von Arnim, btained, as the Herald says, edipitally from the highest available burces in America upon German fairs. The following are the points: The Count was sent to New York, 18.—The Herald's Washington special gives a verson of the arrest of Count Von Arnim, obtained, as the Herald says, editorially from the highest available sources in America upon German affairs. The following are the points: The Count was sent to Parle as an ambassador, and was explicitly charged to maintain the most peaceful and agreeable course in all dealings with French officials. Blamarck himself prepared the instructions which were to guide Count Von Arnim in his new position. No sooner had the ambassador presented his credentials and been formally received by Thiers, than he began to make himself offensive to every body connected with the French government. It seemed that the Count had accepted the trust fully determined to again involve Germany and France in hestilities, or to compel his government to increase its army of occupation in France. His first step was most extraordi-Boston, 18.—The sterchouse of the Danvers Carpet Co., at Danvers, was burned Saturday night; lose, $50,000, insurance, $10,000; the fire was incendiary.

In a harmonious meeting at the Hollis Street Church, to-inght, to consider the Indian policy, Father Gleason, in some remarks, eulogized Captain Jack, and defended his shooting of General Canby and Commissioner Thomas. Col. Meacham arose and denounced the act as a dastardly outrage. Gleason then made some remarks on the character of Meacham, who, after further wrangling, left the church. His first step was most extraordinary and unprecedented, addressing the Emperor William, privately,
