THE SMALLPOX WAR.

It Assumes Alarming Proportions at Milwaukee.

OFFICERS ATTACKED BY A MOB.

A Raw Meeting and Inflammatory Speeches—Great Uneasiness Among the Authorities.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 8.—The isolation hospital for the enforcement of sanitary law bearing on smallpox cases has assumed alarming proportions in this city. The seat of war is the south side and particularly in the Eleventh ward where the isolation hospital is located. The police authorities, health officials and several aldermen were busy last night, holding conferences and attempting to formulate some plan whereby the laws might be properly enforced. There was great clamorousness manifested, and one of the city officers said that the situation was more serious than the majority of people imagined. Assisted by police protection, the health department officials with a crew of six health officers proceeded to the home of Peter J. Butler, 120 Muskegon Avenue, where a child was suffering from the disease. The appearance of the van was the signal for the sounding of an alarm and inside of ten minutes there was a mob of fully 3,000 people on the street. There were loud cries and threats against the health department officers and a few stones were thrown. Quite much damage could be done, however, if a squad of city police arrived. The health officers seized the door of the house and was respaded by the sick child, which was placed in the van. The crowd now became intense and as the van started up, made a determined charge. The police, who it have been overpowered, had not a patrol wagon filled with officers arrived at the critical juncture, thanks to a large detail of officers the van passed through the mob and started for the hospital, pursued by the crowd. Good time was made and the little patient was safe in the hospital before the many of the mob reached the road. At there was more trouble, the horses threatening to overturn the van. Stones were thrown and state transferred but the police finally succeeded in getting the health officers and their charges safely through the crowd.

A mass meeting was held last night, attended by fully 3,000 people, a great many being women. A number of inflammatory speeches were made in condemnatory of the health department and Commissioner Dempster. Some speakers were conservative and warned the people not to commit any violence. The meeting finally dwindled down to a crowd of about 300, made up of the more turbulent element, but there was no disturbance.

Fearing for Rain.

NORTHFIELD, Minn., Aug. 9.—The religious people of this city and county, comprising Catholics, Methodists, Baptists and Congregationalists, have been in constant session of prayer since Aug 15 for rain without success. Unless they bring rain up next Sunday they will abandon the effort. In a section one hundred miles square not a crop of rain has fallen since June 16, and then only one inch.

Seeing Their Corn.

PEKIN, Ill., Aug. 9.—Only a few farmers in this vicinity are selling their last year's corn crop on the run. Many are holding, believing that seeing to the failure of the coming crop of the West and the drouth in Illinois corn will go still higher.

A COMPROMISE.

Rice Some Makes a Shrewd Political Deal.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 8.—A paper published near Forman, N. D., brings out a romantic instance in connection with the nomination by the Republican state convention of Miss Emma F. Bates, of Valley City, to be state superintendent of schools.

Miss Bates had charge of her canvass for the nomination, and found formidable opposition in John Devine and Professor J. H. Holand. She was able to sidetrack the latter by making herself safe with the Young Men's Republican League. She then entered into negotiations with Mr. Devine, first demanding unconditional surrender. This he refused.

After further negotiations it is said he agreed to pull off the track provided if she was elected state superintendent she would make him her deputy and marry him in the bargain. After some deliberation she agreed to do this, providing he would stump the state for her. As he is a powerful speaker with a fund of wit and repartee, Miss Bates is nonplussed to have made her shrewdest political deal yet known.

MURDERED BY HIS WIFE.

His Body Found in a Pool of Blood, the Head Crushed.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.—Fred Kane, a farmer living just outside of the east limits of East Carondolet, Ill., was murdered last night about 10 o'clock by his wife, Annie, and her paramour, George Heath, who worked for the murdered man.

Just before 10 o'clock several persons heard cries and several pistol shots. At a turn of the road about 200 yards from the house, they found Kane in a pool of blood and evidence that a terrible struggle had occurred. Across a corn field the struggle had been carried on till the final blow with a 20-pound blacksmith hammer had been dealt. It carried away the entire left side of the head so that one could see the cheek bone including the eye and part of the nose. The bullet wounds were evidently intended to end the man.

The unlucky pair, coming was found hiding near the house, while the woman and her paramour were caught within, apparently without fear of detection.

Mr. Kane and her relatives, Jim Castle, made a confession. The latter was the first to break down. He claims that a man named George Johnson had met him and given him a pistol with which he was compelled to shoot Kane. Castle then detailed practically the story of the murder as already stated.

Johnson, so far as can be learned from the evidence, is Mrs. Kane, who fastened up in a pair of her husband's trousers, is said to have worked the hammer which crushed in the head of her murdered man. The statement of the murdered man, who is not more than twelve or fourteen years old, says that when the old man went away from the house to go to Bonhomme, Johnson and George went out together, and his mother had the hammer and a bundle. The woman at first tried to tell the Johnson story, but when she heard of Castle's confession, she abandoned that entirely, and said it had all been done by Castle. Said that no such person as Johnson had been mixed up in the affair in any way whatever. She stoutly denied all charges of criminal intimacy between herself and Castle until she learned that Castle had owned up to it. Kane was a widow's husband.

Hawaii Recognized.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A World dispatch from Washington says: The republic of Hawaii has been formally recognized by the United States through the secretary of state.

The republican form of government in Hawaii is to be recognized, was set up on the 4th of July. On the following day Minister Willis extended recognition, so far as it was within his power, to the new republic. Mr. Willis action has been discussed, but no decision was reached until today, when Secretary Gresham, under the direction of the President, sent a formal note to the minister approving his course.

FOR STARVING COREANS.

Contributions of Flour and Grain From this Country.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The Hon. W. Q. Gresham, secretary of state, has been asked if the government will undertake the transportation of the contributions of flour, grain, etc., that it is expected will be made in this country for the relief of the starving Coreans. Efforts will be made to secure the co-operation of the various boards of trade and exchanges throughout the country, and especially those of San Francisco and Chicago, to secure a shipload of food for the sufferers. A religious newspaper of this city has already agreed to contribute 100 barrels of flour to any cargo that may be made.

Condemned by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The Senate in executive session today affirmed the following nominations:

Marshals—John A. McDermott, district of Wyoming; James O. Crutcher, district of Idaho.

To be Judges of Probate, Utah Territory—Wm. M. Wilson, Nicos Warnom Jr., Achilles Pedro, John C. Lamar, J. C. Grant and James L. Rawlins.

THE BELGIAN CONSULS TROUBLE.

England Will Act in Accord with the United States.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The Associated press is in a position to state on official source that Great Britain does not act entirely in accord with the United States in Honduras, Nicaragua. Great Britain will refrain from any interference except such as is necessary for the protection of British life and property and maintain treaty obligations. Instructions to this effect have been sent to the commander of the British cruiser Mohawk, Leslie C. Stewart.

The Times states that General Barrios is en route to England in order to negotiate modifications of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. In this connection the Times says it is not likely that the United States will take steps to abrogate the treaty, which is considered satisfactory, in order to maintain the neutrality of the Nicaragua.

IN CHINESE WATERS.

The Season of the Monsoon and Typhoons Approaching.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—In speaking of the probabilities of the pending war between Japan and China, an official of the Chinese legation recalled the fact that the season of the monsoon and the typhoons is now rapidly approaching. The presence of the fleet is not regarded as a menace to sea maneuvering, but fear is felt for the outer. The typhoon is a revolving windstorm, whose effects are disastrous. It is believed by the officials of the legation that the naval movements during the typhoon season at best will be somewhat circumscribed. The Chinese will not venture a great distance from their coast, but will keep close to port.

Japan, it is thought here, will wage an aggressive war against China and some of her objective points in all probability will be the Chinese ports. Already reports have reached here of high gales off the Chinese coast that have compelled all craft, but the smallest steamers to seek shelter in port.

Naval officers say that when the dreaded typhoon sets in there is nothing to do but run from it. The United States steamer Marion was struck by a storm of this kind a few months ago, when beginning her voyage home from China to San Francisco. She emerged in a damaged condition and had a battle of storm, notwithstanding she is a splendid built craft and is the model of the finest navigation in the navy. When vessels are out such by the typhoon they are frequently driven far out of their course, so it will be seen that naval operations between Japan and China are likely to be embarrassed at great risk.

For this reason operations of the fleets will probably be restricted to a minimum.

AN ELOPEMENT.

A Cashier Leaves With a Woman and Some Money.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 8.—Harry A. Gardner, cashier of the Second National bank of this city, left on Monday night in company with Mrs. Gordon, who is said to have lived in Philadelphia, and to whom Gardner has been attentive to during the last year or to whom much undeniable attention. A director of the bank is authority for the statement that Gardner has also taken with him a large sum of money belonging to the bank. The books have not been fully examined, but the same director estimates the amount taken to be about $20,000 and a full on the bank is looked for.

MOST SERIOUS AT OMAHA.

Gangs of Strikers Patrolling the Street, Armed With Clubs.

The Local Police Force Powerless—Talking of Prostituting Martial Law.

OMAHA, Aug. 8.—The state arrived tonight and if there is no improvement by morning several companies of militia will be sent to South Omaha and the packing house district placed under martial law. The situation is most serious tonight and the 1,500 strikers have been doing about as they pleased. At 6 o'clock this evening they forced their picket line that had for forty-eight hours surrounded the packing houses under the sale of the big buildings, and their number was increased by the addition of several hundred men.

At 8 o'clock Mayor Johnson of South Omaha went before the Omaha police board and asked that a detail of police be sent there, as he was powerless to control the lawless element. He said he had driven all over the city tonight and found gangs of strikers patrolling the streets, waiting for some of the workmen to show up on their way to work. He had found gangs of fifty to seventy-five strikers, all armed with clubs. The local police force was powerless to cope with these organized mobs, and unless some radical measure was taken to suppress the disorderly element there would be more murdered and the packing houses would be in ashes before tomorrow night.

The board was informed that the governor was in consultation with the packers with a view of putting the packing house district under martial law and contented to await his action.

The packing house managers held a conference and at its close Mr. Cudahy notified the adjutant general that unless the workmen could be given better protection all the packing houses would be compelled to close down tomorrow. He said the managers do not care endangering their plants by keeping them at work, while their men are in danger of assault. Every fresh assault, they claim, increases the seriousness of the situation, and they believe that there is but a step from violence toward the men to violence to the packing houses.

At 7 o'clock this (Thursday) morning the conference of the municipal, county and state authorities with the packers, adjourned since 8 o'clock, decided to send 200 deputies to the scene at once to maintain order.
