THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Inspector Goes East—Immigration Inspector T. J. Longley has gone to New York on business connected with his department.

Knights Will Celebrate—Tuesday evening the Knights of Columbus will celebrate their sixth anniversary. A program and buffet luncheon will be held at the organization's club rooms.

Officials Coming—It is expected that Douglas Smith, president of the Utah Gas & Coke company will reach Salt Lake tonight, and Granger Farwell, chairman of the board of directors, will also arrive here this evening.

Sheep Are Now Clean—Col. Hickox, the local chief of the bureau of animal industry, says that the sheep in this state are now free from scab, and the situation will be made satisfactory by the dipping this fall ordered by the state board.

Gifford Pinchot Here—Gifford Pinchot, chief supervisor of the United States forest reserves was in Salt Lake yesterday. He has been attending the Irrigation congress at Sacramento, and is now going to make a tour of inspection through Idaho. He may visit Logan where a forest reserve office is located, before leaving Utah.

Lomax Improving—The condition today of Arthur Lomax is much improved, and his speedy recovery is looked for. Lomax is the man who a day or two ago fell into a vat of boiling asphaltum at the plant run by P. J. Moran up City creek. But for prompt assistance rendered by fellow workmen, Lomax would doubtless have been burned to death. As it was the man was badly burned, and as soon as temporary relief could be obtained, Lomax was taken to the L. D. S. hospital.

HARRY HARPER REFORMS.

Quits the Newspaper Business to Practise Law in Salt Lake.

Harry Harper, for six and a half years reporter at the city and county building for the Deseret News, left the newspaper profession on Saturday to permit his conducting other affairs. Mr. Harper was admitted to the bar in this state about a year and a half ago, and has built up a practise which demands a major portion of his time; he is also the active manager of the Black Dolly Fire Clay company, of which he is one of the heaviest shareholders and most zealous workers. Some of his attention will be devoted to handling the bond department of the Wilson-Sherman company.

Mr. Harper has seen county officials come and go while his place in the newspaper boys' room at the county clerk's office remained unchanged. Barring periods of sickness and an occasional respite, Mr. Harper has been on duty every day. His appearance at the courthouse was a daily occurrence; just as much so as the appearance of the courthouse attaches themselves.

He has been popular among all classes as a business man and enters business for himself with the friendship and good wishes of scores upon scores of Salt Lakers.

Mr. Harper is succeeded on the "News" by E. Le Roy Bourne, formerly city editor on the Intermountain Republican.

WILL WRITE A BURLESQUE.

Race Whitney to Furnish Bankers' Association of Los Angeles Play.

The many friends of Race Whitney, of this city, will be pleased to know that his literary talent has gained marked attention in Los Angeles, where he has been residing for some time past. He has been solicited by the Bankers' association of that city to write a burlesque play which is to be presented by the members at an early date. There are 47 banks in Los Angeles and the cast is to be made up from the large list of members of the association. All who remember Mr. Whitney's work in the plays produced here by the Salt Lake Press club will have no doubt of his success in his new effort. Besides this, several other flattering offers are in line—and it is possible that Mr. Whitney will decide to give up newspaper work and establish an office where he can devote himself specially to his line of work. Mr. Whitney says that vaudeville offers a specially interesting field in the way of sketches, songs, etc.

MAYOR WANTS TO KNOW.

City's Executive Determines to Keep Tab on Public Expenditures.

Mayor John S. Bransford, unlike his predecessor in the "Reform" administration, is determined to keep a watchful eye on his subordinates. He intends to watch their handling of the public moneys. This determination has been reached by him after a three-days' conference with the special auditors who have been "experting" the city's account books. Councilman Black of the finance committee of the council was present with the mayor at those conferences, but no other of the city officers was present. This is regarded as a significant phase of this latest development in municipal affairs. After reaching his decision in this matter, Mayor Bransford declared that he wants to know what the city officers are doing with the people's money and what are the conditions of the funds from which he authorizes expenditures.

The special auditors, who have checked up the city's account books for several years back, with the exception of the books in the engineer's office, will probably complete their work in two months. They will then report to the council recommending changes in the present accounting system.

We beg to announce that we have disposed of our Hat & Furnishing Goods stock to the W. E. Fife Co., who will continue the business as heretofore at 166 Main St. We desire to cordially thank our customers for their many years of valued patronage and at the same time recommend our successors who will cater to their wants in the same manner that they have been served in the past. We are still sole proprietors of the Troy Laundry, "The Laundry of Quality." There will be no change of our Main Office, 166 Main St.

WELL ATTENDED SUNDAY SERVICE

Four Speakers Touch on Gospel Topics at Meeting in Tabernacle Yesterday.

LAND OF ZION IS AMERICA.

Elders Rulon S. Wells, Seymour B. Young, Jos. S. Wells and Prest. A. H. Lund Make Addresses.

Yesterday's services at the tabernacle were especially well attended, there being few seats unoccupied on the main floor, President John R. Winder presided. The choir sang, "Softly Beams the Sacred Dawning," "Though Deepening Trials Throng Your Way," "We Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet," and the invocation and benediction was pronounced by Elders A. H. Schulthess and Heber J. Grant.

ELDER RULON S. WELLS.

Elder Rulon S. Wells was the first speaker. He made some interesting remarks upon the gospel plan of salvation and the principle of progress. He emphasized the importance of devoting a part of each day to self improvement. "That person," said the speaker, "is in danger who fails to grow day by day, who fails to make progress, but stands still and lives in the past, without ambition to make progress in the knowledge of God." The first principles of the gospel were considered briefly and their importance was shown. Faith is a saving principle—a principle of progress by which men and women are inspired in progress, and without the exercise of that principle mankind stands still. The necessity for repentance was shown and the need of placing one's self in such a condition of mind and heart that he can be guided by the still small voice which leads in the path of right.

The gospel is not a system of ethics which can be practised only on Sunday, but it is applicable to every-day life, and in all its varied affairs. The restoration of the gospel in this age, received some attention from the speaker, who deplored the fact that some people disregard the teachings of the gospel because they do not believe that Joseph Smith had a vision and that holy angels ministered unto him, but it is not remarkable that some people will not receive the message given through the Prophet Joseph, when it is recalled that even the Savior of mankind was rejected by the world.

ELDER SEYMOUR B. YOUNG.

Elder Seymour B. Young was the next speaker. He said he could endorse heartily the remarks of Elder Wells, and he continued to discourse upon the same general subject, explaining the necessity for a Savior, that death might be overcome and the resurrection of the dead assured.

The speaker then commented upon the blessings enjoyed by the people of this land—the land designated as the "Land of Zion," which includes North and South America. He spoke of the discovery of this land by Columbus, who had been inspired by the Lord to make his voyage of discovery. The speaker also commented upon the condition of the natives found here at the time of the discovery, and also told of the visit of Christ to the ancient inhabitants of this land. In closing the speaker referred briefly to the work now being accomplished by the Latter-day Saints in every land.

ELDER JOS. S. WELLS.

Elder Joseph S. Wells spoke briefly, indorsing the testimony of the speakers who had preceded him. He said he rejoiced in this religion because it is a practical religion which is a source of inspiration and light in all the affairs of life. "The popular idea of religion," said the speaker, "is that it is a matter of sentiment—good for Sunday contemplation and intended only for the sanctuary and has nothing to do with the ordinary affairs of life, but this is not the case with the Latter-day Saints—they take their religion into every-day life. Their religion inculcates the highest virtues, condemns all manner of evil, and teaches men to be honest and upright in their dealings with each other.

PREST. ANTHON H. LUND.

President Anthon H. Lund commented briefly on the necessity of practising the principles of the gospel every day in the week. Mormonism stands for all that is virtuous and good. One of our articles of faith says that we believe in being honest, true, virtuous, benevolent, and in doing good to all men. This principle is taught by the Latter-day Saints, and these virtues should characterize everyone who professes the name of Christ.

President Lund reverted to thoughts expressed by one of the previous speakers, and he urged the advisability of each person examining his own life to see if it conforms to the professions he has made. If not, there is need for repentance. The speaker bore his testimony that the Church of Jesus Christ is upon the earth, that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God, divinely inspired to bring forth the gospel, and closed by urging the saints to live such lives that the light of the Holy Spirit can be with them to light their paths through life, and that darkness and doubt may have no power in their hearts.

PREST. SMITH PREACHES.

Delivers An Impressive Discourse in The Seventeenth Ward Chapel.

The Seventeenth ward chapel was filled to overflowing last evening, at the regular Sunday evening services, and the speaker of the occasion, President Joseph F. Smith, delivered an impressive discourse on the principles of the gospel. Not only were the first principles touched upon, but the weightier things of the message of life were discussed, and the sermon was replete with good advice to old and young.

Present also at the meeting were the following general officers of the Church: Presidents John R. Winder and Anthon H. Lund, and Elder George Albert Smith, of the council of apostles. Bishop's Counselor Arthur P. Barnes had charge of the services, and the Seventeenth ward choir furnished music.

REV. GOSHEN AT THEATER.

Pastor of Congregational Church Preached from the Stage Yesterday.

The lower part of the Salt Lake theater was filled yesterday morning on the occasion of the first of a series of meetings to be conducted at that place by the Rev. Elmer I. Goshen of the Congregational church. The church on the corner of Fourth East and First South streets is undergoing repairs, and until the building is ready, services will be held each Sunday at the theater.

"The Dawning of Liberality" formed the theme of Rev. Goshen's remarks. He inveighed against what were termed sectarian doctrines and traditions, and the trend of his remarks was that the message of life comes not in the way of special revelations to a certain favored few, but is instilled into the hearts of men and women in the varied experiences of their existence. Religion was treated upon by Mr. Goshen from a scientific standpoint, the claim of the speaker being that there is no difference in the underlying principles of things spiritual and things material. Among other pithy remarks uttered by Mr. Goshen was the following:

"Man has only to look about him in order to find constant and abundant evidence of God's love. These evidences are sometimes murmured softly through the regularity of the system of the universe; sometimes proclaimed loudly, heralded from crag to crag as a mighty storm progresses, with terrifying thunder and lightning. There is no need for man to look further for his revelations of the great universal religion, the reasonable belief of which rests simply on love to God and to man."

LAME BACK.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Lake LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by all druggists.

DR. M'NIECE RETURNS.

Rev. Dr. R. G. McNiece, who has returned from an eastern trip, to his alma mater, says he had not visited Dartmouth for 30 years. When he graduated in 1887, there were only nine buildings in the university, nine instructors and 200 students. Now, there are 31 buildings, 73 instructors and 1,150 students, with applications to the incoming freshman class numbering 524, so that the faculty do not know how to take care of so many. Prest. Tucker, the present executive, has in 15 years secured $2,500,000 for Darmouth and he is considered the ablest president the institution ever had. Dr. McNiece's class graduated 59 men, one-third are dead, and 17 were present at the reunion that he went to attend. Dr. McNiece visited Yale, where he was deeply impressed by the magnificent buildings there.

CROUP.

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main St. B

SHOWS NO FAVORS.

Cafes May Not Sell Liquor on Sundays, Says Mayor.

In spite of the pleadings of restaurant men and others, Mayor Bransford has declared for the "square deal" in the enforcement of the Sunday closing ordinance. Restauranteurs pleaded with him to be permitted to dispense liquor with meals and otherwise on Sunday, notwithstanding the lid has been nailed down on saloonmen. Mayor Bransford has refused to listen to their petitions and they will not be extended privileges denied other business men in this city.

"Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—croup. Has been used with success in our family for eight years."—Mrs. L. Whitacre, Buffalo, N. Y.

SITE CLEARED FOR DEPOT.

Excavation Work for Rio Grande Station to be Pushed.

The site selected by the Rio Grande for its proposed depot is now cleared and ready for the commencement of excavation. The work of razing the homes, residences, shacks and all styles of structures has been going on for many months. It is announced hundreds of men and teams are to start excavating at once in order to have as much work done as possible before winter's bad weather sets in. The depot will face up Third South street from Fourth West. About $800,000 is estimated as the cost of the structure as planned.

ATTACK OF DIARRHOEA CURED BY ONE DOSE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. Heartily recommend this remedy as being the best of my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.
