FOR THE NEW PARTY.

Speeches by Ex-Congressman Sibley and General Warner.

APPEALS FOR UNITED ACTION.

Two Lines Must be Submerged, the Speakers Say, and Silver to be Free Silver Voted Together.

BOSTON, Ohio, April 16.—The open air meeting held here this evening was the most enthusiastic ever held in the Ohio Western reserve. Various speakers gave their last campaign speech at Ashtabula between Tanner and Blanchard. Of the state of the Capitol grounds, 10,000 people were present and the vast concourse of people was men and women of every division and made a political exhibition and addresses. The meeting was called to order by Judge A. W. Hakes. Hon. Colonel was introduced, and he spoke some long time to a tired crowd, which was growing with great applause.

Promptly at 8:30 ex-Congressman Sibley was introduced and received an ovation. He said: "I have not been in the greatest hurry with the intention of making speeches on the stump in politics, and that is why I did not go to Pittsburg to address the people in Congress on the subject, but I came to the fight when you were in need, and was requested to assist left-handed in consequence of parliamentary. Continuing, he said:

"Public opinion is being made up in the politics of the Western and Southern states of the country to tolerate the people in right to coined money. I am Cleveland could see the people be even tolerance, that he might modify his views.

"The great political parties in the country thinking will have to throw aside low prices to their platforms of 'ignite.' I have had a great deal of experience with them. The church is a power to resort to fetishes, but I am so old-fashioned, even a child of the Lord, that I am, in consequence of proper arguments, but the boy I hit the most is the Republican.

"There are two parties in the country, the democratic and the Republican, and it is necessary for the people of Ohio Democrats to unite the people of one of the other.

"We must shake off our party shells and come to the rail fence, not as Republicans, Populists or Democrats, but as one common Americans. I have not in all the people to elect my President, so I come home to unite under the one banner. I am ready to follow that banner, whether worse or a Democrat, Democrat or Populist.

"I go for honest dollars, not other people's, so that the dollar for work will be real and make them be honest. Let the greater Democrats be honest, let them be honest in truth give and don't take.

Congressman Hamlin his heaven and his hell that a million Jeep Republicans who were once had called him sick to Congresses, but that he would come again. "Hallelujah," he said, "there will come from the East to the West to talk silver, but genuine money is not from the East to the West. Let us come to all the Lord's people to preach the doctrine of silver."

General Warner, the next speaker, was introduced by the chairman as "a man who is a big gentleman." He said: "I am not a politician, but I am a big gentleman." He said: "I am not a politician, but I am a big gentleman." He said: "I am not a politician, but I am
