PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, FEB. 23, 1897.

Garden City Notes.

Mrs. Alice Miller of the First ward died last Tuesday from long trouble after a few days' illness. She was the widow of the late Chas. D. M. Miller and leaves several children and many friends to mourn her departure. The deceased was born near Manchester, England, October 29th, 1814, and joined the Church in her native land. In 1852 she emigrated to Utah and married Mr. Miller in Salt Lake City the same year. After living in Salt Lake and Lehi for a time they moved to Provo in 1867, where Sister Dillon has since resided. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and served by all her acquaintances. She had often prayed that her death might be painless and the prayer was answered. Among her children are Mrs. T. E. Thurman and Mrs. C. E. Fletcher of this city.

Today the case of Provo city vs. Provo Bench Canal company and others was commenced before Chas. D. Maiy as a special commissioner, who will report his findings to the Fourth district court. The case was brought to determine the rights of Provo city and several canal companies and private individuals to the waters of Provo river. Sam A. King and D. D. Hoxie appear for the city and Tout-man & Wedgood, Rooth & Booth, J. A. Wilson and Sassy & Edwards for the defendants.

A letter has been received by Deputy Sheriff Crowdell from his brother-in-law, Mr. F. B. Daniels of Salt Lake. Mr. Daniels and a partner were at work in a mining claim in American Fork canyon, and when they wanted to come down the snow in the canyon was so deep that teams could not reach them; this necessitated their walking; and it took them two days to travel seventeen miles from the mine to American Fork.

Suit has been brought by A. H. Raleigh against Utah county and A. J. Stewart Jr., J. W. Stewart and Andy Stewart. Plaintiff claims to be the owner of certain lands in the south end of the county, and defendants claim adverse rights. Plaintiff prays for judgment, declaring that defendants have no interest in the land in question. Mr. E. Corfoz and John McCannon are attorneys for plaintiff.

Caroline Hayes has commenced suit against Oliver A. Slade and Olif Holmstead to recover possession of lot 1, section 3, township 7 south of range 1 east, Salt Lake Meridian, Utah county, which plaintiff alleges defendants entered upon in August, 1891, and have since unlawfully withheld from plaintiff. Plaintiff also asks for $600 damages. H. C. Edwards is attorney for Mrs. Hayes.

Doctor McCurdain and a Mr. Meacham have commenced a tunnel in Rock canyon, east of the city, about a mile from the mouth of the canyon. They expect to keep on tunneling till they strike ore, if they have to tunnel a mile. Rich Boat has often been found in those mountains and this tunnel, it is to be hoped, will strike a vein.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: David Bowen Thomas, aged 20, and Martha Harriet Robinson, aged 21, both of Spanish Fork; Chas. H. Coates of American Fork, aged 25, and Barbara Jensen of Provo, aged 22; J. F. Hopkins, aged 26, and Mary Scott, aged 19, both of Lake View.

Miss Ada Wormesecott of Payson and Walter W. Woodworth were married at the home of the bride's parents last Thursday, by Patriarch C. D. Evans. The happy wedded pair will make Springville their home.

On the evening of Feb. 25th a camp fire will be held in Reynolds hall, Springville, under the auspices of L. Wm. T. Sherman Relief corps No. 6, for the benefit of the G. A. R.

T. N. Taylor of the Taylor Rice Furniture company is in the East purchasing goods. He expects to be present at the inauguration of President McKinley.

Mme. von Finkelstein (Mountfort) commences a course of lectures in the tabernacle Wednesday evening, which will continue through the week.

The funeral of W. W. Ferguson, who was killed in a snowslide in Provo canyon Friday night, was held in the Third ward meeting house Sunday.

A petition is being circulated to be presented to the city council asking for the establishment of a free reading room.
