Great Salt Lake's Rise—Hold-up Near Nalage! Wash—Interesting News from Utah Points.

Springville Independent: The cold snap has caught many farmers with their potatoes and beets still in the ground, and much fear is expressed that they will be destroyed. Quite a number of apple orchards are also clipped with the lashes winter fruit still graces their branches.....There are some awful mudholes on Main street that should be filled.....Mrs. J. C. Van Leuven, of this city, has received a handkerchief from the "great healer" of Denver. It was sent her by a friend who interviewed the gentleman. It was sent as a curiosity and is highly prized by Mrs. Van Leuven. It will be exhibited in the fair.

Tooele Transcript: The Great Salt Lake is rising but little this fall. It is now only two feet one inch at Garfield Beach, and the temperature was 52 degrees early this week.....A roller mill, for which the people of Tooele and Rush Valley have long been asking and which has been badly needed ever since the old mill was burned down about two years ago, has at last materialized, and has for something over three weeks been running at its full capacity. Notwithstanding this, Mr. T. A. Boynton, the miller, is unable to turn the flour out rapidly enough, so great has been the demand.

Park City Record: While on his way to Heber, Tuesday of this week, Henry Baskin was thrown from his conveyance and run over. He received some ugly bruises about the head and had one of his legs slightly injured.....W. A. Wilson and William McKay arrived in the Park Wednesday of the week to make a thorough examination of the lower levels of the Silver King mine without instruments. They are still at work and will make their report privately to Judge Merritt, of the Third district court. The result of the work will probably have much to do with the future course of Colonel Shaughnessy in the development of the Mayflower group.....The little son of J. M. Harris received an ugly wound on the head last week through a blow from an old boot in the hands of a playmate. A gash about an inch long was cut and the skull laid bare. He caught cold in the wound and it is giving him considerable trouble.....The journey of Thomas Doidge and family from Park City to England was a most eventful one. They left the Park in September and on arrival in New York Mrs. Doidge was confined, giving birth to a daughter. Mr. Doidge's health, for the benefit of which the return to the old country was being made, became very discouraging, and it was decided that Mrs. Doidge and daughter, Miss Mae, should remain in New York until the former was able to travel, while Mr. Doidge and two sons, Oscar and Ollie, would continue the journey in the hope that the sea voyage would give him relief. The family was divided and the trip across the water made, but it was all in vain. Mr. Doidge was suffering from consumption and continued to grow steadily worse, and had hardly got settled in his old home when the end came. The sad news was received in the Park this week by W. H. Williams, who broke it as gently as possible to the son, William, who remained in this city in the employ of the M. S. Archelm Mercantile company, and with whom the large circle of friends left in this country by the deceased deeply sympathize.

Brigham Bugle: It looks as if stockmen would have to begin feeding before cold weather sets in and it is quite likely that there will be a pretty heavy demand for hay in the spring.....It is surprising to see how many little boys can be found on the streets even quite late at night. Usually town boys can learn enough evil during the day time, but some parents seem to think that their boys ought to put in part of each night in loafing on the streets.

Ephraim Enterprise: There is a very large attendance at the Manti Stake academy this year. Our neighboring cities are beginning to appreciate its value as an educational institution.

Nephi Times: Mr. A. Grant, of Salt Lake, an acquaintance of Mr. L. A. Bailey, was in the city Tuesday on his way home from the San Juan and Henry mountain country where he has been for the past sixteen months. Mr. Grant was very successful in the business which carried him into that country, but met with a small loss and adramatic adventure on his way home. On the 23rd proximo while logging leisurely along the road from Walapi Wash to the ferry on the Colorado, three men suddenly rode out of the brush and leveling guns on him shouted the command "Throw up you hands." Mr. Grant was not slow to obey the command and the men then went through his pockets taking something over $20 in small change and silver dollars from him. They overlooked a $5 bill he had in his shoe and on his statement that he had far to go and no food with him they returned him $2.70 of the amount taken. They also took his blankets but probably afraid that they might be traced, owing to their peculiar pattern these were returned also. An attempt was finally made to take his horse but Mr. Grant's firm demeanor and evident intent to resent to the last this piece of robbery deterred the highwaymen, and they rode off $19 ahead by the operation. Mr. Grant who was in possession of several hundred dollars when he first started, supposes the men learned this and followed him with the intention of holding him up, but fortunately a few moments before leaving he had deposited all of his money but the small amount stated to the stage office for shipment to Salt Lake.

ANN ARBOR NOTES.

Utah Pupils in Class and Choir—Other University Notes.

ANN ARBOR, Michigan, Nov. 8, 1895.

To the Editors:

It is a pleasant duty to ben you readers a few paragraphs concerning Utah people in this city, who are bringing honor and fame to Utah.

The Utah colony is quite large this year. It includes four literary, three law students, four medic students, a professor in the music school and two high school students. Aside from students our colony contains some fifteen children and mothers.

Bros. James Brown, J. E. Wauls, Arthur Dalley and Miss Ida Jones attend the literary department.

Grant C. Bagley, a prominent and gifted young man of South Bonneville, and Rex Hansen, a representative Utah boy from Sanpete, and Judge J. H. Jones, of Provo, who is well known as a bright lawyer, hold Utah's end up at the law school.

In the celebrated music school one finds on the register the back the names of the rev A. Dove, the efficient leader of the Bonneville choir and Payson; Stanley Partridge, of Provo, who undoubtedly possesses talent of high order in his art; Frank Wightman, another Provo boy, who is the great credit to his city, and Miss Ida Jones, of Provo, who has already won success in Utah in concert, and whose fine voice in the school. All of the music pupils, excepting Brother Partridge take vocal music with theoretical work, and Brother Partridge takes pipe organ, piano and theology.

In connection with the University School of Music, is the Frieze Memorial hall, named in honor of the late Henry Frieze, who, during the active part of his life, wrote many text books which are used largely in the public schools. His book called Frieze's Virgil, is especially noted. He also held the position of Professor of Latin in the U. of M. for several years. He died some six years ago, and the large musical hall was named after him on account of the interest he manifested in the progress of the music world.

Professor J. J. McClellan of the school of music, has the honor of being director of the University orchestra, which is composed of the best musical talent Michigan affords. Their rehearsals are held in the Frieze Memorial hall, which no other orchestra would be allowed the use of. Our Utah boy wears the baton ever many older heads than his own, and looks dignified in the place, as well filled by him. Many musical people go to the rehearsals to listen to the sweet strains produced by the well known orchestra, which is under one of our own boys. He is also pianist of the Choral Union, a musical body of about 500 singers. The Columbian organ at the large University hall is under his sway at the Choral Union concerts.

We must not forget to make mention of the St. Thomas choir and orchestra, under the direction of Prof. McClellan. They have been organized again since the summer vacation and are doing excellent work. They rendered Mozart's Mass in G last Sabbath beautifully and with the perfect satisfaction of all present.

The two bright Utah girls who attend the high school are reaping merited success and are the favorites in their classes. Miss Effie Douglas, daughter of Joseph S. Douglass, Payson, and Miss Annie McClellan, daughter of Prof. J. J. McClellan, of Provo, and a sister of the Utah musician who holds the professorship in the music school here, are the ladies. Especially in Latin recitations are they praised by their instructors. The past week they were each and separately held up before the class as students worthy of emulation, which greatly encouraged them. Although they were force weeks behind the rest of the pupils in the classes, they have long since caught up and are making records complimentary to Utah. They expect to teach in Utah in the future and will make teachers of great merit. We heartily wish them every success and would encourage them to continue in the work of education.

A series of concerts and recitals equal to any in the musical line for 1895-6, has been prepared by the Choral union. The famous Chicago orchestra, with Theodore Thomas as conductor, will be a big attraction. He is booked for November 19, 1895, also April 9, 1896. They are looked forward to with delight by the people who enjoy classical music.

December 12, a song recital by M. Clementine De Vere Sapio will be one of the musical events of the year. The opinion of the American musical public concerning her talent, and unusual abilities, has been most emphatically endorsed by European critics, and her recent appearances abroad were genuine triumphs.

The noted violinist, M. Achille Rivarde, will fill an engagement here February 11, 1896. M. Rivarde made an overwhelming sensation at the Nikisch concerts in London.

The series will be closed by an annual May festival, consisting of five recitals by the Choral Union.

October 25 Senator Hill gave a lecture to the University students. It was pronounced a masterpiece of logic by those who had the privilege of listening to him.

November 9 the University foot ball team play with the Harvard team at Boston. The contest will be a hot one, no doubt, but the general opinion is that the U. of M. team will win the laurels. They were escorted to the depot by two thousand U. students cheering for the U. of M. boys. It was a living mass of students in full regalia and waving hats. The U. of M. ball team gained a victory over the Oberlin ball team and they feel confident they can over that of Harvard.

Personal Paragraphs.

S. Siebenthaus, of San Francisco, is at the Walker.

B. M. Moses, of New York, is a guest at the Knutsford.

J. W. Cady, of London, England, is stopping at the Knutsford.

E. L. Phelps and wife, of Rochester, are registered at the Templeton.

John T. Rich, a Brigham City banker, was seen on the streets of the capital today.

Miss Kate Field, the versatile Washington-Chicago newspaper woman, is now in San Francisco on her way to the Hawaiian Islands, whither she goes as a special correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald.

John G. Sharp, of Vernon, Tooele county, came down from the Grover Cross country late morning where he has been paying a visit to his many flocks which have summered in that region. Mr. Sharp says they are in excellent condition and will weather the winter well.

Among the distinguished visitors from other states who are within this city's gates at present are Senator Fred T. Dubois, of Idaho. Mr. Dubois arrived here yesterday and has passed a few days and has passed in Washington. Idaho, he says, has enjoyed a season of unprecedented prosperity during the last year.

William J. Kline, editor and publisher of the Daily Democrat and Recorder, of Amsterdam, N. Y., is a visitor to the Lake while in stopping at the Knutsford. Mr. Kline is on tour to the coast, he will remain here a few days, viewing points of interest, before wending his way westward.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, Nov. 11, 1895.

Stake Conference.

The Weber Stake Sunday School conference was held in the Tabernacle on Saturday and Sunday. There was a very large attendance at all the meetings and the reports showed the Sunday school work in good condition. Elders Goddard, Musser, Cummings and Whitmer spoke upon the subject of the treatment parents should give their children, making home attractive to them and teaching them to pray.

Death of Mrs. Clayton.

Mrs. Janett Clayton, widow of Joseph Clayton, died yesterday morning quite suddenly of heart failure; funeral from the Third ward meeting house at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Notes.

Mrs. Ballington Booth of the Salvation Army passed through Ogden yesterday going East.

Phillip Burgbolt, a German, traveling from the West, was taken to the city hospital yesterday overcome with the light atmosphere, he was a ticket for the steamer Weira for Bremen; he will not be able to connect with it before it steams from the harbor.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, Nov. 11, 1895.

Cache County Notes.

The members of the glee club, with their instructor and leader, Prof. Fogelberg, left on Friday evening for Paris, Idaho, where they participated in a concert given by the Paris choir on Saturday evening.

On Friday evening Prof. Karl G. Maeser delivered the first of a series of lectures to be given in the Tourtelot Opera house during the winter under the auspices of the B. Y. college, his subject being School and Fireside.

On Wednesday last over one hundred rock bass fry, sent from Salt Lake by Commissioner Musser, were turned into the Mendon, a tributary of Bear river, near Mendon. It is believed they will find congenial conditions and increase rapidly.

The B. Y. College commences its special Y. M. M. I. A. course today. It is expected that the attendance from Weber, Box Elder, Morgan, Bear Lake, Oneida, Cache, Malad, Bannock, Bingham and Cache stakes will afford splendid opportunities to those who take advantage of them.

Deputy Marshal Turner arrested William A. Fish, of Smithfield, on a complaint sworn to by his wife, Amelia Woodward, charging him with adultery, in that he already had a wife when he eloped with and married the complaining witness. He was held to await the action of the grand jury.

The members of the A. C. of U. and B. Y. College athletic associations met on the B. Y. college campus on Saturday, to contend for supremacy in a game of football. The B. Y. team scored 16 to 0. No serious injuries were inflicted. Next Saturday the High School team of Salt Lake will meet the A. C. of U. team on the same grounds.

Samuel Littlebyke, of Smithfield, came near losing a hand the other day, while attempting to de-cap and re-cap a rifle cartridge. Although repeated blows of the hammer of the gun failed to explode the cap, the entrance of the de-capper gauge sent it off and the copper shell flew into numerous pieces, a number of which entered Littlebyke's hand, and one of which passed entirely through. Dr. Snow extracted the remaining pieces and dressed the wounds.

The Democratic party was triumphant in Logan City and Cache county. In Logan City it elected all its general officers on the city ticket, and threw out of the bus committmen, with a tie on a fourth. The Democratic nominees on the state, representative and judicial ticket, all received a majority of the votes cast. Last year the average Democratic majority was 412. This year, according to the corrected returns, it is 239 15-16. In Hyrum the Republicans elected their entire ticket with the exception of one councilman, but the Democrats captured a majority vote on the State ticket. Paradise is the banner Republican town and Milville the champion Democratic.

CANCER CURED
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

REMOVED TO THE
. . . ATLAS BLOCK.
Dr. A. C. Hummelbaugh,
DENTIST,

Has moved his office from the Progress block to elegant new rooms at No. 26½ Atlas block, in W. Second South. His new and remodeled parlors are completely compact, with all the latest appliances known to dentistry, and his office is especially arranged for the comfort of the patient.

He guarantees the use of the best, and by which pain and all operations. He uses only the best material that money can buy, and charges prices that cannot be duplicated in the city.

The Plain Truth

is good enough for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Just what it does is sufficient to prove its merits. The testimony of Rev. Chas. Switzenbaum, Cosumnes, Cal., says: "In this material country, we have felt dull, tired, dependent, no appetite. Since taking we have been restored to health. We recommend it heartily." Get HOOD'S.

Hood's Pills are tasteless, mild, effective. All druggists. 25c.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.—Apply a particle of the Balm with the little finger to the nostrils. After a moment clear strong. Breath through the nose. The first dose is painful, after which relief follows. Some prefer to use a little Balm before retiring.
