GIVEN TO THE JURY.

The Case of Crocker Accused of Murder at Evanston, Wyo.

BRILLIANT ORATORY BY LAWYERS.

The Fate of the Suspected Man to be Decided Today, it is Thought.

EVANSTON, Wyo., Sept. 24.—At an evening session held at 7:30 on Monday evening argument was heard as to the instructions handed in by both sides to the Crocker case. This morning Judge Hayford proceeded to give them to the twelve men who held in their hands the life and liberty of E. S. Crocker. The reading of the instructions occupied about twenty minutes, and at the conclusion of the same the prosecution proceeded to sum up their case.

Judge Brown opened for the prosecution, and his speech was an eminently able and masterly presentation of the evidence in the case, which at times interspersed with highly pathetic and touching allusions to the widow of Harvey Booth and her little one. He continued speaking for over two hours, and merely passed over two points of the evidence that through counsel he left to his associates, Prosecuting Attorney Hamm and Cyrus Beard to touch upon.

At the conclusion of Judge Brown's address Judge Corn proceeded on behalf of the defense to deliver an address that for clearness and conciseness of argument has seldom been equalled in our courts.

Prosecuting Attorney Hamm followed Judge Corn, and in his usual lucid and matter-of-fact manner proceeded to deliver an address that reflected in every way great honor upon himself and credit to those who have placed him in the important position he now occupies. Mr. Hamm's untiring and zealous work in this case was fully demonstrated in his address, as he proved himself master of the situation from the beginning.

Mr. Hamm was followed by Judge Vanderver, who fully sustained his reputation as an orator and lawyer second to none in our state. His words could not fail to make a deep impression upon all within the reach of his powerful voice, and at the close of his address the courtroom was filled with mutterers of applause and approbation.

Judge Vanderver was followed by his associate, Judge J. W. Lacey, of Cheyenne, who closed the case for the defense, and Cyrus Beard, of Evanston, partner of Senator Clark, closed the summing up of the case for the prosecution. He offered the sole key for the locked door of the jury, and contended that it had been made from a blank, using as doubt the key of Harvey Booth that had disappeared at the master as a model. Mr. Beard tried both in this case and established a reputation as a prosecutor that will come him to be a terror to all criminals who may in the future be so unfortunate as to have him arrayed against them.

At 8:30 the court gave the case to the jury, who immediately retired in order to agree upon a verdict, wherein hangs the fate of Edwin S. Crocker, heretofore an eminent and highly respected citizen of this city.

New York Democratic Fight.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 24.—This has been a crucial day with the Democrats of New York state gathered here for their party convention. The formal proceedings in the convention hall were brief and of the colorless type, but as usual at political gatherings of this sort, the happenings of greatest interest were behind the scenes.

In the convention hall Mr. Perry Belmont delivered a speech which he had prepared, but deprived the opposers of the national Democracy of a chance to display their feelings by uttering a denunciation of a third term sentiment. There were the usual cheers for the party leaders when their names were mentioned, and many of the leaders, of course, were in the city, conspicuously among them Senators Hill and Murphy, ex-Governor Fowler, Charles S. Fairchild and the Tammany men, although if Mr. Croker took any part in the councils he did so by wire, since he was not here.

Behind the scenes in the council of the principal committees there were battles under way which entirely overshadowed the struggle of the various factions for the places on the ticket. The length to which the party should commit itself on the question of more silver than sixteen to one was a bone of contention. Some feeling was stirred up over the minority contest for representation, but the only bitter feud was that between the state democracy of New York City and Tammany, where the former claimed a National representation of one-third, and the latter asserted the control of the whole control of the party in the city. This was practically a victory for Tammany, although the state democracy got a small part of the load.

China Prepared to Pay.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A special dispatch which was received from Shanghai today says that $3,000,000 taels in silver have been deposited at Shanghai by the Chinese government, with which to pay the indemnity recently required by Japan as a consideration for the evacuation of the Liao Tung peninsula.

THE BURKART TRIAL.

Testimony for the Prosecution All in —Finishing Touches.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The case for the prosecution in the trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont closed this afternoon.

Today was spent in putting the finishing touches to the testimony against the accused. Witnesses were summoned who, while they furnished no additional links in the chain of circumstances against Durrant, were designed by the district attorney to strengthen the entire case by filling in the weak places.

The testimony of all the witnesses today was brief. The chief point which the prosecution sought to establish was that Theodore Durrant had said that the last time he had seen Miss Lamont was when he parted from her the morning of April 3rd, she going to school and he to the Cooper medical college. In all his statements regarding the disappearance of Blanche Lamont the defendant stuck to this declaration. Detective Anthony, who arrested Durrant when off on a jaunt with the signal corps, testified today that Durrant had made the statement to him when returning to the city after the arrest. Dr. Thomas A. Vogel, a member of Emmanuel church and an intimate acquaintance of both Blanche Lamont and Durrant, stated on the witness stand that Durrant had to him the Sunday after the girl's disappearance made the same statement about the last time he had seen Blanche, this corroborating Officer Anthony and several newspaper reporters who have already testified in the case.

That Durrant's story of his last meeting with Miss Lamont was to be questioned by the prosecution was evidenced by the testimony elicited from Mrs. Vogel, Miss Langnan, Miss Edwards and Mrs. Morgan, all of whom stated that they saw Durrant with Miss Lamont on a Powell-street car at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of her disappearance.

The prosecution expects to score a strong point by demonstrating to the jury that the prisoner made false statements regarding his movements and associations with the girl whom he is charged with having murdered. The district attorney, it is said, will make use of the witnesses in his address to the jury, and will use it as the basis of an argument the gist of which will be that Durrant's first statements were inspired by a sinister motive. If he had nothing to hide, it is argued, he would have told the truth about his last meeting with the girl.

Oscar Wilde's Debts.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—In the hearing of the Oscar Wilde bankruptcy case today counsel for Mr. Wilde stated that his debts amounted to £3,591, and that there were no assets. Several friends, it was stated, had subscribed a sufficient sum to pay all the claims against Mr. Wilde except that of the largest creditor, who is a personal friend of the debtor. The examination was adjourned until November 12th.

Cost of the Asiatic War.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 24.—The steamer Empress of India arrived from the Orient today. Japanese papers state that the government has under consideration a proposal to issue bonds for the $100,000,000 war loan approved by the Diet at the last session. The amount expended on the war was nearly 150,000,000 yen.

The statement that Army has commenced war on Japan. Lieutenant Iokajuna, a Japanese, has charge of the forces in Japan.

On the 10th inst. 682 cases of cholera and 476 deaths were reported in Japan. Up to the 8th of September 38,928 cases and 23,760 deaths had occurred since the outbreak of the plague.

Eighteen Russian convicts who escaped from Saghalien have been arrested by Japanese police near Hakodate. Five escaped again from prison, but the remaining thirteen were handed over to the Russian consul and sent to Saghalien.

N. P. Receivers Resign.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 24.—Henry C. Payne, Thos. F. Oakes and H. C. Rouse, receivers of the Northern Pacific railroad, tendered their resignation to Judge Jenkins late this afternoon. Judge Jenkins will take the matter under advisement, and will decide on Friday, the 27th. The resignations give a complete history of the appointment of the receivers, and dwell upon the subsequent litigation. Reference is made to the attack made upon the receivers by President Ives, in the Washington courts. The proceedings are set forth, and exception made from the opinion of Judges Gilbert and Hanford.

Methodist Preachers for Utah.

ASTORIA, Ore., Sept. 24.—The Northwestern Methodist conference, which has been in session in this city for several days, completed its labors and adjourned after the announcement of the following appointments by Bishop Bowman for the Utah district: Emile Mork, presiding elder; Brigham and Ogden, Emile Mork; Ephraim, Peter M. Eliason; Hyrum and Logan, C. Arvent; Provo circuit, to be supplied later; Richfield, Ole O. Twede; Salt Lake, Francis Hermann; St. Charles and Ovid, to be supplied.

Russian Policy in Asia.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—It is announced that with the sanction of the czar, a Russian bank with very large capital will be opened for business soon at Pekin, with a branch at Shanghai. Some of the most prominent financiers and merchants in Russia are interested in the scheme, which has been recently mooted. The charter has just been issued.

The enterprise is regarded as another indication of Russia's determination to wrest the commercial as well as the political supremacy in the far East from England. Trading emissaries of Russia have freely assisted the government of China with money, and have already penetrated to the interior of China, where they have supplanted the British. An article which appears in the evening issue of the Globe indicates the alarm with which the English view the situation. This article says: "Russia will unquestionably exert from China the right of way through Manchuria for the trans-Siberian railway. A struggle for supremacy in Asia is upon us. If British influence does not go under altogether we must be aroused and do our part. Thanks to our good relations with Japan, we ought to be able to work that power to our advantage, politically and commercially."

NOT DEAD.

Alleged Letter from a Deserter, Supposed to Have Been Killed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Considerable of a sensation has been occasioned here by the announcement that Lieutenant Wm. Biddle, stationed at Fort Sheridan, had received a letter from C. Williams, the deserter who made his escape at the time Private Collins was shot in the head. It appears that the letter was received some time ago, but was discredited and not made a matter of record until a second letter addressed to one of the privates reached the fort. Williams' letter to the lieutenant is as follows:

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 17.

Lieutenant William Biddle:

As you will observe, I am not dead, nor am I wounded, as you would have the public believe. It is not my intention to remain either in Toronto or to return to the States. It is my intent to proceed at once to Cuba, where I will assist in the insurgent army. There I will have some satisfaction. If being used as a target, for it is better to be shot down fighting for freedom than to be shot down by scoundrels while trying to escape from persecution and tyranny.

[Signed.] C. WILLIAMS.

In his letter Private Williams tells a remarkable story of his escape. He says that he and Collins were well provided with money, each having about $25. After the break for liberty, when he heard the first shot fired, he knew Collins had been hurt, for he heard him cry out. The second shot passed under Williams' arm.

"As soon as I regained my feet" he said, "I made a bee line for the old fort and hid there one night, when I went into Highwood and took the train for Milwaukee.

"When the companies were searching for me, several of the boys passed so closely to me that I could touch them. One of them saw me and told me to get out of sight while another gave me a piece of tobacco. When it was dark I got an old suit of clothes and then met some of the boys in Murphy's, where they told me Collins was killed.

"I am not going to return to the rates but shall go at once to Cuba. There is a company being formed here to go there, and I am going on one of them. I may do all right and I may get what post Collins got. I would prefer that way than to be shot as a military convict."

The authorities at the fort have always insisted that Williams was mortally wounded and that it would be only a matter of time until his body would be found in the woods.

SHOT THE OLD MAN.

Trouble About a Chicken Coop Ends in Homicide.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Robert Schoenduste, 28 years old, returned to his home last evening in time to find his aged mother in the back yard on the ground and Fred Reiger, 60 years old, standing over her wielding a club with which he was doing terrible execution. Robert drew his revolver and fired two shots, both of which took effect in the old man's body. The wounded man was taken to the hospital by the police, but he died on he was being carried into the building. Young Schoenauste and his mother are under arrest.

The trouble grew out of an objection by Reiger to a chicken coop which Mr. Schoenauste was building in the yard. Reiger lived in the barn in the rear of the Schoenauste house and is said to have been very troublesome.

BABY AS SACRIFICE.

Its Tears and Cries Caused a Judge to Suspend the Fine.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Frank Selig showed her love for her husband in a novel manner yesterday. Selig had been fined $5 for disorderly conduct. He had no money, but said he could borrow that amount if he was allowed to go out and see his friends. The police would not allow him to go from the station without security for his return.

"Here, take this as security," said Mrs. Selig, as she placed her 5-months-old baby in the court's bailiff's arms.

Mrs. Selig then hurried out of the station, saying she would not call for the baby until her husband had secured money to pay the fine. She did not return, and as the baby began to cry soon after she had left, it was taken to an orphan asylum. Later in the day Selig's fine was suspended, and last night he and his wife went to the asylum for their baby.

Governor of Newfoundland.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Sir Herbert Murray has been appointed governor of Newfoundland.

The Challenge for the Cup.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The following cablegram was received this afternoon:

NEWMARKET, Sept. 24.

J. V. S. Oddie, Secretary of the New York Yacht Club:

Your message received. I confirm personally the challenge sent through the Royal Victoria Yacht club in my name. A confirmatory letter will follow immediately, and I make no restrictions as to conditions.

CHARLES ROSE.

Wrecked Crew Picked Up.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The captain of the steamer McWilliams wired today he had picked up the crew of the wrecked schooner Comstock in Lake Superior.

Reader, did you ever take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "King of Liver Medicines?" Everybody needs this a liver remedy. It is a drugless or canned liver that imparts vigor and cures constipation, when the waste that should be carried off remains in the body and poisons the whole system. Dull, heavy feeling is due to torpid liver. Biliousness, Headache, Malaria and Indigestion are all liver diseases. Keep the liver healthy by occasional dose of Simmons Liver Regulator and you'll get rid of those troubles, and give body to the whole system. For a laxative Simmons Liver Regulator is BETTER THAN PILLS. It does not gripe, nor weaken, but greatly invigorates and strengthens.
