CONGRESSIONAL.

Silver Interests Not to Die Peacefully.

THE CHINESE EXTENSION BILL.

From the Committee on Pensions.—For Transportation of Gold and Silver Bullion, Etc.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Senate, in all probability, will be occupied tomorrow with the bill extending the time for six months in which Chinese laborers can register under the Geary law. Senator White of California arrived this morning. He and Senator Perkins expect to speak on the question as do also Senators Hoar and Davis, but it is not probable that there will be any faction opposition to the bill. There are some features of the measure that White and Perkins do not approve, but as it recognizes the principle that the Chinese can be excluded from the country by legislative enactment, they will probably content themselves by explaining California's attitude upon the question. Hoar and Davis will probably make objection to the doctrine.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Senate was opened with prayer this morning, for the first time since the 17th of October.

Walthall, from the committee on public lands, reported the Senate bill extending the time for final payment on desert land entries. The committee amended the bill, so as to extend the time of payment for one year, instead of three, and make it apply only to any men who are unable to pay. As amended the bill was passed.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The silver men, of all the most intense silver men in the House, will, it is said, insist that the repeal bill be put through by force and without any agreement on their part as to when the debate shall end or anything else. They say they mean to be forced into submission.

The mode of procedure in the House tomorrow will probably be, as soon as the speaker lays the bill before the House, for Wilson, of West Virginia, to move that the House concur in the Senate amendments, and upon that he will demand the previous question. Then some one will suggest that time be given for debate. Wilson will insist upon the previous question. Then filibustering will begin.

It is doubtful how much strength the silver men will have, but there is little doubt that they will have sufficient strength to call for the yeas and nays. That will force the committee on rules to report a cloture resolution. This will be done if filibustering begins.

The repealers have been worried about a quorum, and today could count but 165 members who voted against all the amendments when the bill was pending in the House before, and if all the other members, about 150, who supported silver in some form, should decline to vote on the various motions, it would leave the House without a quorum.

Bland will be given an opportunity to move to commit the bill to his committee on coinage, weights and measures, as such motion is privileged under the rules. It would, of course, be voted down. Probably the rules committee will fix a time for voting on the bill at some time tomorrow evening, perhaps about 5 o'clock.

Capitol Notes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — Senator Palmer, from the committee on pensions, today reported to the Senate a bill for the repeal of that portion of the invalid pension appropriation act for the present year, which directs that no pensions shall be paid to non-residents of the United States except for actual disabilities incurred in service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Houck of Tennessee introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of war to recognize all soldiers under the pension laws as having been regularly in the United States service, who enlisted or volunteered, but who were prevented from being regularly mustered in.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Owing to the necessity of transporting a large amount of gold bullion from the assay office in New York to the mint at Philadelphia, and gold and silver bullion from the mint at Carson City to San Francisco, as well as increased deposits of gold bullion at minor assay offices, it will be necessary to obtain an appropriation for defraying the expenses. Secretary Carlisle today sent to the Senate a request that $15,000 be appropriated immediately for this purpose.

Bank Failure.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 31.—The private banking house of Martinez & Co., this city, failed. The liabilities exceed the assets by $94,000.

Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Hezekiah L. Hosmer, ex-chief justice of Montana, died in this city today at the age of 79 years and 11 months. He was born at Henderson, N.Y. After being admitted to the bar he went to Ohio and edited the Toledo Blade, of which he was one of the proprietors, and started the daily paper of that name. In 1864 he was appointed by President Lincoln chief justice of Montana, and occupied that high position for eight years. In 1872 he came to San Francisco, where he devoted himself principally to literary work.

BUTCHERED HIS WIFE.

He Says She Poisoned His Tea and Would Dance on His Grave.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 31.—A shocking murder is reported near Waterville, Wash. The crime was discovered yesterday. John Dougherty, a farmer, aged 60, hacked his wife to death with a butcher knife. He then partly concealed the body with straw. Later he was discovered in a vacant house, dying from exposure and hunger.

Dougherty made a full confession. He says his wife poisoned his tea and threatened to dance over his grave within a week. About a year ago he inserted an advertisement in a Chicago matrimonial paper, and Mrs. Mary E. Phillips of Cedar Rapids, Ia., made answer. They corresponded, and she came out and married him. Since then they had lived a cat and dog life. Dougherty is in jail at Waterville.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The President has appointed John W. Renfrew, Georgia, Ross J. Alexander, Ohio, and James J. Anderson, Ills., commissioners to appraise the lands in the Puyallup Indian reservation, Washington Territory, under the act of March 3, 1893.

Another Crank.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Sergeant Fagan of the East Thirty-fifth street station was behind his desk this morning when a wild-looking man entered and in a fierce voice demanded $1000. Seeing that he had a tough man to contend with, and in order to gain time, Fagan invited the man into the waiting room. The two were talking when Patrolman John Rose entered.

"I owe this man $1000," Fagan said, "officer, take him down to the bank and see that he gets it."

The crank joyfully rose. As soon as he came in sight of the Yorkville police court, however, he realized the trick played on him and refused to enter the building. A rough and tumble fight ensued the policeman being victorious. Pending the arrival of Judge Grady the fellow was put in the prisoners' pen.

For Killing Hedberg.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The inquest over the remains of Captain Alfred Hedberg, who was shot by Lieutenant Maney, was held at Fort Sheridan today. The witnesses testified to the occurrence, as already detailed, and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound, inflicted by Lieutenant Maney. The matter was then turned over to the federal authorities, but it is understood that the civil courts and not a court-martial will be allowed to deal with Lieutenant Maney.

Stone's Accomplices.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Oct. 31.—It now appears that the murderer of the Wratten family, Stone, who last night was before the grand jury, stated that Charles McCafferty, whose wife is heir to the Wratten estate, and Robert Swanegan were among his accomplices in the murder. Swanegan was brought before the grand jury this afternoon, but was not held. For some reason McCafferty was not brought in.

Miners Resume Work.

ASPEN, Colo., Oct. 31.—Three mine owners of this camp, D. M. Hyman, David Brown and D. H. Wheeler, through his local representative, Mr. Frank Bulkley, inserted advertisements tonight in the local papers, stating that miners can secure employment at $2.50 per day of eight hours. The mine owners say there is positively no profit in mining at the present price of silver, but they realize the really distressing local situation and are willing to work at even a small loss to enable women and children to live.

Large numbers of men have signified their intention of going to work tomorrow morning. The Miners' Union held a meeting tonight and decided that no men should go to work until the arbitration committee appointed by the union makes its report. It is thought that several hundred men will be at work within a week.

MOORS AND SPANIARDS.

The Killed and Wounded Number Four Hundred.

A Prince Missing—Blown Up by a Bomb—Mayor Harrison's Funeral.

MADRID, Oct. 31.—The steamship Africa, from Melilla, arrived at Malaga today and brought information that General Ortega had succeeded in relieving the garrisons at Rostrogordo and Cabrerizas. The Moors continue to make desultory attacks upon the Spanish lines. They are busily at work constructing trenches and have advanced to within 600 yards of the Spanish forts, in spite of the fire from the forts which is continuously directed upon them.

It is thought the Moors will make another attack on the Spanish forces before the reinforcing troops arrive there. When the Africa sailed detachments of Moors were arriving to reinforce the already immense horde of native troops surrounding the Spaniards.

The soldiers at Fort Camalos are in the worst position, being the most exposed to Arab attack. It is no longer denied that the Arabs and Moors around Melilla are now besieging the Spaniards and the latter have all they can do to hold their own.

Later—A special dispatch just received here from Melilla has caused quite a commotion. Military officers are discussing the great difference existing between the reports of the number killed and wounded in the last battle before Melilla, as given out from official sources and those just received. The latter assert that at least 100 Spaniards were killed, that more than 300 were wounded and that over 100 were captured while others are reported missing. The fate of the captured, wounded and missing is said to be too horrible to contemplate.

PRINCE FERDINAND MISSING.

The fact that Prince Ferdinand Bourbon has been missing since the Spanish attack on the Moors last Friday has caused the Infanta Isabella much anxiety. The prince was last seen close to his battery outside of Fort Cabrerizas, and it is supposed that he succeeded in reaching one of the blockaded forts which has just been relieved. The minister of war has ordered inquiries to be made in regard to the prince.

Mayor Harrison's Funeral.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The funeral of Mayor Harrison will take place tomorrow from the church of the Epiphany, on Ashland boulevard. Before the services the remains will be taken from the city hall to the church. The funeral procession will proceed from the church to Graceland cemetery. The column will be a large one, many societies having applied for a place in the line. The public schools, board of trade, banks and other places of business will be closed tomorrow, out of respect to the dead.

HAVING A HARD TIME IN JAIL.

Prendergast, Harrison's murderer, is having a rough time in jail, the other prisoners seizing every opportunity to jeer at the wretch and shriek imprecations at him, so exercise, outside of his cell, is made a practical impossibility. Today the assassin seemed, for the first time, to realize his position.

All along he has apparently labored under the delusion that his companions in crime would look up to him, but today he seemed to understand that he was abhorred, even by hardened criminals, as a cowardly assassin.

The U. P. and G. N.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The committee of the Western Passenger association appointed to confer with the receivers and General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific on immigration business today notified Lomax that they could not confer with him alone. The receivers must be present or there will be no conference. The Union Pacific served notice on the Western Passenger association that on November 5th it would withdraw from all local associations in which the association lines were members. The members of the association think this means trouble and believe the Union Pacific is preparing for a struggle with the Great Northern.

Blown Up by a Bomb.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—During the progress of a Tammany ratification meeting tonight fireworks were set off in the street. The iron-lined box in which the pyrotechnics were delivered was placed over a big bomb before it was exploded. The box was blown into fragments, which were scattered in every direction, injuring nearly a score of people and shattering the doors and windows in the vicinity. Of the injured Mrs. Donovan is not expected to live and her husband is crippled for life.

Still Bombarding.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Times has the following advices from Rio de Janeiro under date of October 27th: The insurgent fleet, in conjunction with Fort Villegaignon, daily bombards Nictheroy, Santa Cruz and San Jose, but the fire is badly directed. This city is so far undamaged. Nictheroy has suffered severely, though there is no loss of life. The provisional government, which has been firmly established at Desterro and Santa Catharina, is organizing land forces. The insurgents have plenty of munitions of war.

Decisive action by Admiral Mello is expected shortly. The Republica rammed the transport Rio de Janeiro, which was conveying 1100 troops to Santos, and 500 of the troops were drowned. Admiral Mello confirms the truth of this report. He denied that he has any intention of restoring the Empire.
