OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN NEWS.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

OCTOBER 16, 1899.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Big Day at the Sugar Factory—$32,000 Distributed to Growers.

A Jury at Plain City—In Justice Bodrero's Court—Meetings Planned.

The following cases were disposed of in Judge Sloan's court in the District Court:

Ward Priest Boys vs. Ira M. P. Priest et al. The court granted partition in Ellwood and Tait to without a third party. Ellwood appointed to sell.

In the matter of the estate of Lydia Hancock, the court confirmed the sale of certain real estate to Mary Ann E. T. Dixon and Lucy Y. Young. The sale is to the couple, known as Pioneer Bottling. Lucy Young is a minor and it was ordered that the sale be confirmed, provided the guardian and guardian's corporation, who were granted permission to sell the property, should execute a good and sufficient bond in a set amount.

FIRST DAY OF BEET SUGAR FACTORY.

The results of the sugar beet factory are encouraging to the Ogden people. Some of the beets from the vicinity of Ogden have been received at the factory, and good level sugar, the first made from beets grown in this valley, is now being produced. The factory is now in full operation and will be for some days to come. The contract for the beets calls for a good deal of work in a set schedule.

A JURY AT PLAIN CITY.

A jury was sworn and yesterday in the case sent up by R. M. Robinson, Justice of the Peace at Plain City, to try the fine in a case in the other side of the Justice on the behalf of the State, Mr. Robinson, the Justice, was sworn for the case of a witness and served on Mondays. A witness was sworn for the case of a witness and served on Mondays. Mr. Robinson, the Justice,