DESERET EVENING NEWS

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The office of the Salt Lake forest reserve has been removed from Big Cottonwood to the Fraternal building, Murray.

The Utah Women's Press club will meet at the Eponent office on Saturday, Sept. 30, at 8 p. m. All members are urgently requested to attend.

Last night the free publich library closed for the purpose of taking an inventory and removing to the new Packard library. The change will be made so that the new library will open on Oct. 25.

Jewish New Year services will be held tomorrow evening in the two local synagogues. At the B'nai Israel, Rabbi Freund will speak on "A Backward and a Forward Glance," and a musical program will be given.

The funeral of Stephen R. Ames will take place from the Fifteenth ward meetinghouse, Friday, Sept. 29, at 2 o'clock. The remains may be viewed from 12 till 1:30 at the family residence, 326 west First South street. Friends invited.

The free kindergarten at the Hamilton school will be opened on Monday morning. The registration is now going on and it is expected that the capacity of the room will be taxed. With two sessions daily the room can accommodate 30 pupils.

Captain Summers, formerly commanding troop A, N. G. U., and lately a resident of Atlanta, Ga., has returned to Salt Lake, and there is talk of making him commander of the troop again. He was well liked when here before, and kept his command in good shape.

Acting Postmaster Kesler has received notice from Washington that the federal building will be turned over to the custodian on the 30th inst., and the various government offices can move in as they may be able. The postoffice will not move until the furniture has arrived.

Landlord Mulford of the White House hotel was notified this morning, by letter from the chief of police that his runner would not be allowed on the railway depot platforms. As Mr. Mulford has had no runner for several years, he is at a loss to know the whys and wherefors of this notification.

A dramatic club has been organized in the Y. M. C. A. of members of the association, with these officers: President, L. M. Evans; vice president, J. H. Wilson; secretary, A. P. DeBernardi; treasurer, Willard Hansen. The club will meet Tuesday nights, and work up a series of amateur theatricals.

Complaint was made to the Humane society yesterday of a case of cruel treatment of a horse near the Short Line round house in North Salt Lake. The animal was reported too weak to move because of neglect, and the driver was giving the poor beast a terrible beating. Dr. Beatty is looking the matter up.

Secretary of State Tingey now has on hand printed copies of the amendments to the Revised Statutes of Utah as passed by the Legislature of 1905, which will be distributed free to the members of the legal fraternity upon application at the secretary's office. He also has copies of the amendments of 1901 and 1903, which may be had by all who want them.

Today is the first pay day of the present school year for the principals and teachers of the city schools. Clerk Judd has issued warrants for the services of principals for the first month and for the teachers for the first two weeks. The total amount of the payrolls is $15,135.88. On Saturday the officers of the board and the janitors will receive their salaries.

Missionaries who have labored in Norway are urgently requested to attend a meeting in the Thirteenth ward meetinghouse Saturday evening, Oct. 7, at 7:30. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a Returned Missionary society. A program of song, music, etc., will be given. All Saints from Norway are especially invited. Martin Christopherson, C. M. Nielsen, Peder Anderson, Willard Christopherson, Parley P. Jenson.

In tonight's parade preparatory to the formal opening of the Pure Food exhibition the governor and staff, the mayor and members of the city council, will ride in carriages, escorted by the Butchers and Grocers' association. The procession will form on West Temple street opposite Knight & Co.'s offices, and march south to First South, thence to State street, south to Third South, west to Main, north to South Temple, and countermarch to Utahna park. There will be torches and banners galore.

The funeral rites of the Greek church were held yesterday afternoon, at the undertaking parlors of E. W. Hall, over Peter Judas, a Greek employe of the Murray smelters. The services were conducted by Rev. Parhaneous Leuparopolis, the local priest of the Greek Catholic church, and at the close the procession marched to Mt. Olivet cemetery headed by Held's band. Relatives walked behind the hearse bareheaded, and flowers were carried by bareheaded Greek boys. The priest, in his robes, followed on foot attended by about 100 Greek Catholics.

The remains of Frederick Asheiman, who passed away at the Groves L. D. S. hospital of typhoid fever, were laid to rest yesterday aftenoon, funeral services being held in the Twenty-sixth ward assembly rooms, Bishop Frank Stanley presiding. Touching music was furnished by the ward choir and the speakers were Elders Peck, Teuscher, D. C. Rushton, George D. Bennett and Bishop Stanley. All referred to the sterling character of the deceased and expressed sympathy for the bereaved wife and family, who had been deprived of a loving husband and father. There were many beautiful floral emblems. Interment was in the City cemetery.

Save your money and when you get a dollar, deposit it with Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co., Salt Lake City, Utah. Jos. F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

N. E. A. CONVENTION.

President and Officers Coming Here to Look Over the Situation.

City Superintendent of Schools D. H. Christensen has received definite word from President N. C. Schaeffer of the National Educational association stating that he and the members of the executive committee of the association will arrive in this city on Monday, Oct. 23, to look into Salt Lake's claims for the next meeting of the association. In addition to President Schaeffer the committee consists of Supt. W. H. Maxwell of the New York city schools; Supt. J. N. Wilkinson of Emporia, Kan.; W. T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; and Irwin Shepard, secretary of the association. Arrangements will be made for one or more public meetings while the educators are here to give them an opportunity of meeting prominent Salt Lake citizens and judging whether or not the city can accommodate the 35,000 visitors and teachers which generally attend the association meeting.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Aids Nature.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. It is famous for its cures over a large part of the civilized world. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.
