LOCAL BRIEFS.

George Coleman has been appointed by Watermaster Seddon, as bridge tender to fill the place of John M. Wilson, who resigned to accept a position with the Co-op Wagon & Machine company.

If Architect Neuhausen's plans are carried out the foundation of Saltair pavilion will be laid this fall. A great deal of gravel will be used in the work. The boats will not be launched until spring.

The agreement of the bidders to close all U streets, applies to the 12th. But the play has worked so well, especially that a new sprinkling, making it pleasant, is now being contemplated. It is expected that the boys of the barbarian in the city will join it.

The asphaltum works will not be rebuilt, as says Mr. H. L. A. Pickett, because there seems to be no more demand for asphaltum. The people who used it are now using cement, and they will not be sufficient business to warrant the rebuilding of the plant. Some little work will be done in the north side of Salt Lake City, for which bids have been made, but it has not yet been definite enough to warrant the work. The last job was done September 20.

The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company has sent to the News office for approval a plan of the proposed line the district to be owned by the Bank of Utah. All of the wires are to be underground in the business district, and that an estimate will be made to the completion of the work. The cost will amount to about $1,000 for the work, and yet, except as to state street, upon which 12,000 lineal feet of single wire will be laid.

A runaway horse belonging to the California Fruit company caused a burst of excitement in front of the Knutsford Hotel on Tuesday afternoon. The animal was during unloaded on Third South, a hall of delivery wagon which it drew, and it started up the street the occupant and also fell from across the sidewalk to the window sill, within which it hung suspended. The horse received several bad bruises, but broke away without any broken limbs.

An exciting time, which lasted several minutes, took place on Main between Pierpont and First South streets last evening. A mule ridden by a boy got loose and passed, going north, and a lady in a buggy had barely gotten out of the way when the mule passed, kicking and shaving buggy fender, which caused the lady considerable fright. Traffic was stopped for a short time and a passing wheelman was quickly stopped by the crowd, whose actions caused a great deal of excitement. The broken wheel was then fastened in a rope and the lady in order to pass over the way would make a short work. The break was soon repaired.

Henry Moore, the accusant, who passed away at his residence, 67 west, First South, yesterday afternoon, the deceased has suffered many pains from diabetes, and finally, at the age of 65, succumbed to the malady. He leaves a wife. H. Moore has lived in Utah almost continuously for the last thirty-four years, coming here from San Francisco. He is a Pensgrad by birth. He was a kind neighbor and many friends mourn his demise. The funeral will take place Friday, Frank Evans undertaking parlors, under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, of which deceased was a member.

James H. Bacon, the ex-banker, whose conviction for making false entries in the books of the American National Bank and who served out his sentence, has reports to the comptroller, was recently all cured by the circuit court of appeals, at St. Paul, reversing a judgment from Chicago. As soon as he is released the action of the St. Paul court in the two years of Chicago, he consult from John R. Rose, chief counsel in his case. Mr. Bacon stated that he attorneys would proceed at once to secure his discharge at St. Paul and that he was confident that the final outcome would be in his favor. Mr. Bacon does not say parties carried for a pardon as was reported when he departed to Chicago.

The directorate of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery established about the visitors yesterday afternoon. After the regular monthly board meeting an executive meeting was held and a board of directors elected for the coming year. The new directors are: Mesdames Miller, Arthur, Jennings, Thurr, W. S. Terrell, Sutherland, Miss Mather, A. H. Peters, Mesdames Richards, Hoyt, Ed Riggs and Dysart. A special meeting of the directors will be called in a few days to elect officers for the year. Plans for a grand bal that will be given in the near future were discussed and the ladies who have charge of the institution, Mesdames were the hostesses. Refreshments were served and a social time and the coming winter's work was excluded.

About 4:30 yesterday afternoon, a change of scene from the family court to Judge Morgan's office occurred when two cases against Robert Norman, the coach for the charge of cruelty to animals, were called. The first case of cruelty is interested in one case and would appear to justify in the complaint against Norman, with battery. It is alleged that on the 6th of September the defendant had some trouble with a Chinese, the Association of Kindly, and proceeded forcibly to compel his position by attempting a current belonging to Ah Fat. The complaint charges that the complaint charges him with interfering with water. The cases have not been set for hearing yet.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Phoebe Driggs, wife of Bishop A. O. Driggs, was held at the family residence, 1 north Second West, yesterday afternoon. Considering the approaching rainy weather the Gilbertville Band played. Prof. C. Parry Jones, M. Cannon, E. W. Roberts, John Henry Smith, Amos M. Cannon, Miles Byrd Pratt, Joseph Cannon, Joseph Cannon made the closing address. A quartet composed of H. H. Rolfe, J. C. Dunbar, the Misses Pattie and T. D. Young chose sentiment. The floral tributes were pretty and numerous. The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery.

Cars Overbrook, Jack Sharp and Ike Eberhart have returned from the River river duck hunt, and each has an hundred ducks. All agreed that from the duck population in that section, at least their bracks are much for that sport, as they saw 10,000 ducks from the Lake. They say that the Kaibs are very birds in that country, after killing their bag, and that they will not shoot. The hunters had a little trouble coming back. They were halted a half dozen times by parties who claimed Wallace's bond on the Bear river, and another was sent for. In order to make quick time the party cut across the country and left the wagon, which they came to the river. John Sharp took off his coat, and swam himself across the river to the ferry boat.

When night hawks were a very serious, if not a fatal, matter, it was always a couple of evenings days by the morning and a round trade of L. Wood Davis, who was a very good man, and a good part of the city. While coming the 10 to 11 W. broke on Second South street, and the horse ran away. Mr. Davis was thrown out and killed. Mr. Davis was a member of the Bank school a short walking at the side of a wagon in which was seated his daughter and Miss Ethel Wallace, who was driving the horse. The horse was driven to the ground and Mr. Davis fell from the wagon at the top of this speed. Mr. Davis among the danger of the most, and he was taken to his residence in a position one of the cases and was soon the wan. After considerable difficulty the young ladies succeeded in stopping the horse, which had run from the position.

The stranger was accosted with a sense of gratitude, and offered to take the young ladies home. The stranger, who is a Scotchman, and speaks English poorly, would not give his name.

COUNTY COURT MATTERS.

The county commissioners did not meet yesterday morning but held a brief session in the afternoon at which the following business was transacted:

John Gabbett was appointed justice of the peace of Fremont precinct in Rich county, vice Joseph H. Wilson, resigned.

W. R. Foster was appointed registrar of district No. 4 in the place of W. H. Foster. Joseph C. Lowe was appointed registrar of district No. 49.

Bond and Dennett, who was appointed to adjust Salt Lake county and Garfield county bills, we should not expect his better half and second wife to be present at the bond sale. The cause of his non-appearance was due to the fact that County Sheriff Hendricks and Deputy Sheriff Dennett had to leave the defendant Mrs. Hernandez and her children have been arrested in Salt Lake City for the District Bondsmen Society. The bear-ing of the case will come up next Monday.

Fifth Precinct—Andrew Gibbardt, John Midgley, Robert Morris.

This is the personnel of the City Council ticket nominated by the Democratic party at this city at its five general conventions held last night. The ticket was nominated without any great amount of difficulty or necessitating deep ciphering in the First and Third municipal districts where the contests were somewhat vigorous and high spirited.

FIRST WARD CONVENTION.

John Siddoway Named on the First Ballot—After That Down Were Several.

The proceedings were somewhat unusual in the First ward convention, which was called to order by Joseph Ballantyne, who stated that the rules governing the nomination of the ward Democratic John Siddoway was nominated and Andrew Gibbardt, in case very near receiving the same nomination, so he and John Gallacher were nominated by a majority of votes, but it was held that the nomination of Siddoway was good. On the second ballot, Mr. Gallacher was and several more, Mr. Siddoway. On the third ballot Mr. Siddoway was nominated, Mr. Gallacher was nominated over Mr. F. Gibbardt was nominated over Mr. F. Taylor.

The convention was held in the auditorium of the Ninth ward meeting house. It was called to order by John Midgley, John H. Peter, Jr., made temporary chairman and Frank J. Cannon secretary. A committee on credentials consisting of Jos. Ballantyne, Thomas Palmer, Joseph Lang, Lewis Greene, George Sutherland, A. L. Morris, C. Frost, Jos. Ballantyne, Jos. Ballantyne and F. J. Leonard, reported the following entitled to vote: Another committee on rules was appointed and order of business was chosen. It consisted of J. W. Richardson, Mrs. Sarah Williams, Mrs. Mary A. Ballantyne, Mrs. F. Taylor. The committee recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent. The order of business was followed as recommended.

Nominations for Fourth ward were called upon, made a speech and a desire for C. C. Richards to place nomination speeches to the contrary, the nomination was made and the name was laid on the table.

A campaign committee was chosen, consisting of the chairman and secretary of the convention and the following committee: The personnel of the committee is Joseph Pill, Lee Greene, John H. Peter, Jr., G. H. Wagstaff, George Sutherland, A. L. Morris, A. H. Gallagher, W. J. Corbett, Amos Cannon, A. S. Sawyer, Jr., and C. C. Richards.

Nominations being in order Fitzgerald Cannon named E. M. Walker, O. H. Pratt, John Jackson, Alex Milne, E. H. Allen, Judge Sawyer, Wm. F. Gray, J. H. Hamilton, John Gallacher (George Sutherland, Wm. Jones, Jos. H. Hogan, George Sutherland.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Walker, 44; Pratt, 9; Jackson, 1; Sawyer, 44; Sheckell, 9; Allen, 11; Hogan, 1; Hyde, 1.

Chairman Pratt declared Sidoway the only candidate nominated, and ordered another vote for the other two nominees, which resulted:

Charles Beckle then proposed that Gallacher and Hyde, who had also received votes, be dropped and the ballot vote cast and were the next highest, he declared carried. Judge Sawyer arrived the chair and Mr. Pratt moved that the convention should ballot again. The chairman ruled that to the amount of a quorum, a motion to lay on the table was in order, and the motion was carried. The chairman then
