

IN THE INTEREST OF PUBLIC MORALS

Dist. Atty. Jerome Has All Not Directly Affected by Thaw Trial Excluded from Courtroom.

DEFENSE JOINED WITH HIM.

Judge Surprised and Said It Would Have Come With Greater Force At First Hearing.

New York, Jan. 17.—A series of surprises brought the Thaw trial near a crisis today. Both Evelyn Thaw, the wife, and Mrs. William Thaw, the mother of the defendant, were on the witness stand, and just as the former was about to relate a new story of her life, as she told it to Thaw in Paris in 1903, Dist. Atty. Jerome arose and said that in the interest of public morals all persons except those interested in the case should be excluded from the courtroom during what he claimed was the recital of a "horrible tale." This included representatives of newspapers, as well as the public generally. Atty. Martin W. Littleton of the defense joined in to insist the young woman from hundreds of curious eyes, and said that so far as the right to an open hearing was concerned he was ready to waive that point in any ironical manner the court might suggest.

Proceedings were suspended until next Monday morning, when Justice Dowling, who is presiding, will announce his decision.

The district attorney's suggestion was a distinct surprise, and called forth the remark from Justice Dowling that it would have come with greater force at the first hearing of the case. When Mr. Jerome arose it was generally believed that he was about to contend against the admission of young Mrs. Thaw's testimony on the ground that it could not have a very serious effect upon the mind of the man who became her husband, inasmuch as the homicide did not occur until three years later. After Mr. Jerome had previously objected to Mrs. Thaw detailing conversations she had with Thaw three years prior to the tragedy, but Justice Dowling ruled that the declarations of the defendant were admissible on general principles and without any reference to the Wood case, under which the evidence in dispute was admitted last year, and on which Mr. Jerome had been expected to ask a construction this year.

"I will not except to your honor's ruling," said the district attorney, as he took his seat after his objection, "for the state has no power of appeal."

Then Mr. Jerome attacked the witness in another way, and by standing immediately in front of her and objecting to practically every question which Mr. Littleton asked in his preliminary examination as to her early history, cut the young woman's recital from the effective narrative form it assumed last year into hundreds of fragments. Many of the objections, based upon their irrelevancy and immateriality, were sustained by the court. When these failed the prosecutor was ready with others until the testimony fairly was torn into shreds and had lost entirely the many little touches of human interest which were a part of the narration last year when no objections were offered. Mr. Jerome said his objections were intended to cut out all stories about pet cats "and a lot of other stuff" which had no place in the trial.

Today, however, was one of good progress for the defense. The elder Mrs. Thaw, pale and weak from her recent illness, was assisted to the witness chair and repeated a large part of the testimony she gave a year ago. Her appearance and the sincerity of her evidence as she told of her son's strange conduct after meeting Evelyn Nesbit and hearing her story had a marked effect upon all who listened. On account of her weak condition her examination was interrupted by consent, to be resumed some time next week, when she will tell of Thaw's infamy. Dist. Atty. Jerome's manner while the mother was on the stand was all defiance, and it was his suggestion which led to the results in her ordeal. But when the young wife took the stand the change was marked. Jerome glared at her, and his objections were fairly shouted in her ears. Well accustomed to court usage from her former experience, the young woman waited patiently for a ruling as to each objection. When they were sustained she was silent; when overruled she was ever ready with her responses.

Effective testimony was given at the morning session by Miss Alice C. Fletcher of Washington, D. C., a long-time friend of Thaw's and a frequent visitor at their home. She said she had known Harry Thaw for 26 years, and he had always impressed her as irrational.

Miss Catherine O'Neill, who nursed Thaw as a boy, from that time until his death, added her evidence to that already adduced as to irrational conduct and tendencies on the part of the defendant.

The foremen at the police station where Thaw was confined the night of the tragedy repeated their story of last year of Thaw's irrational appearance and his complaining of noises that did not exist.

The trial may be concluded in two more weeks.

GLASGOW UNIVERSITY.

Campbell-Bannerman and Curzon Rival Candidates for Rectorship.

London, Jan. 17.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the prime minister, and Lord Curzon of Kedleston, have just been elected as rival Liberal and Conservative candidates for the lord rectorship of Glasgow university. A piquant contest is expected to ensue. In view of Curzon's recent complaint that he had been debarred from entering the house of lords by the ordinary channels by the refusal of the prime minister, Campbell-Bannerman, to allow him to take his place with all the other viceroys of India on the benches of the upper house. When this statement was made it was presumed that when Curzon retired as viceroy of India he intended that as an avowed viceroys he be made an English peer, and that Sir Henry refused to recommend him.

THE THEATER TRUST.

David Belasco and Harrison Gray Fiske Will Fight It.

New York, Jan. 17.—David Belasco and Harrison Gray Fiske have joined hands, and to all appearances in the interest of an independent stage. By the terms of a contract signed today Mrs. Fiske will find a permanent home at the Belasco theater, and on its stage her husband will present from time to time his various attractions. The agreement between Mr. Belasco and Mr. Fiske brings Harrison Gray Fiske into greater prominence as a theatrical manager, and it is said, will strengthen Belasco's position as an independent producer and writer of plays. It is reported that Mr. Belasco may take Mr. Fiske as a business assistant, the firm to be known as Belasco & Fiske, but on the point Mr. Belasco would not touch and Mr. Fiske thought it premature.

A DISPENSARY TRAFFIC.

Former Director of South Carolina One Arrested for Conspiracy.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 17.—John Black, a former director of the state dispensary, was arrested here tonight on a warrant issued by the state dispensary commission, charging conspiracy to defraud the state. Black was released in the sum of $10,000.

Warrants have also been issued for the arrest of L. W. Boykin and John B. Fowell, both former members of the state board.

Warrants are out for other former dispensary officials and whiskey peddlers. For a number of years there have been charges of graft existing in the state dispensary, but up to the present time the evidence has not been sufficient to issue warrants. The dispensary commission today arrived at an official finding to the effect that Ullman & Co., of Cincinnati had defrauded the state of South Carolina of at least $40,000. It is also charged that this fund was "fraudulently and unlawfully employed by said firm in bribing and corrupting the officials and agents of said state."

The commission sets forth numerous instances of flagrant abuse and disregard of the technicalities of the dispensary law.

COL. GOETHALS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Tells of Difficulties Attending the Building of the Panama Canal.

MATERIAL IN MOTION IS ONE.

Declines to Make Prediction as to When Work Will be Completed, as Unexpected Always Happening.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Lieut.-Col. Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the isthmian canal commission, told the senate committee on interoceanic canals today that a great deal of attention had been paid to the deep foundations at the Gatun dam site and other points on the canal where locks are to be located. By a series of drill holes and test pits of the engineers that the underlying material was of sufficient strength to hold the foundations for the locks. In Culebra cut, the chairman said, a great deal closer inspection was necessary as the foundation sandstones at that point were varied in nature and at some points very soft sand underlies the hard material.

"It has been determined, however," said the witness, "that the underlying sandstone is of ample strength to uphold the lock structures."

Speaking of the deficiency in the appropriation that had been incurred by the canal commission in expenditures on the canal since last August, Col. Goethals said subtracting surplus moneys that had accrued from certain funds, this deficit amounted now to $11,403,439. He, however, requested a deficiency appropriation of $12,179,000 to cover all estimates. A change in the route of certain portions of the Panama railroad he said, was responsible for a part of the deficiency.

Col. Goethals gave the estimates for necessary appropriation for the various branches of the canal work for the ensuing year as follows:

Engineering department, including the Washington office, $28,535,333; sanitation, $2,127,429; expenses of canal zone government, $82,907; Panama railroad, $1,183,540, making a total of $32,848,809.

Col. Goethals expressed his opinion that the United States could provide a sum of $2,000,000 annually it would be sufficient to maintain the health of the isthmus, providing extra expense could be incurred in emergency.

Through questions asked by Col. Goethals, the fact was brought out that the commission does not propose to receive dictation from cement firms when the concrete work on the locks is taken up next January.

"If the firm who propose to furnish the cement put their prices too high, we will make it ourselves. We don't wish to enter the manufacturing field, for it adds to our troubles, and we have troubles enough," added Col. Goethals. An alleged newspaper agitation demanding that "dirt fly" in the canal, Col. Goethals said, had caused much needless excavating and heavy dumping of the canal bed, but he believed that the project was a hoax.

Dumped dirt in many instances had to be removed. Senator Tallaferro asked if the raise in wages at the investigation of the chairman was not due to the dissemination of the newspapers to have "dirt fly."

"No, sir," answered Col. Goethals. "These wages were raised in order to keep good workmen on the isthmus."

Col. Goethals was asked to even his guess as to the probable time of completion of the canal, but said it was generally supposed it would take six years longer.

"The difficulties we are liable to encounter are unknown and uncertain," he said. "We have had two or three slides and are likely to encounter more. In one place we had 500,000 cubic yards of material in motion and traveling at night, and day work to save our equipment. Thus it is always the unexpected that happens in this work."

GEN. STOESEL MAKES A PROTEST TO EMPEROR

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—Lieut.-Gen. Stoesel last evening sent a protest direct to Emperor Nicholas against the exclusion of witnesses for the defense and other alleged discriminations by the court-martial which is trying him on the charge of having surrendered Port Arthur to the Japanese before the resources of the fortress were exhausted. As a result of this action, Gen. Stroukoff, Emperor Nicholas's aide, today took a seat upon the bench in the court for the purpose of furnishing a report direct to the emperor. It was noticeable that the judges showed the defense greater consideration.

The witnesses heard today were Stoesel's and their testimony was favorable to him. Gen. Gorbatoffsky, commandant of the eastern section of the fortress, expressed the opinion that the fortress did not have been defended for more than three or four days longer.

QUIET LIFE FOR BROWNSON.

Santa Barbara, Jan. 17.—It is understood that Rear Admiral Brownson, retired, who recently resigned as chief of the bureau of navigation, will make his future home in Santa Barbara county, with his son, Charles, who owns a large ranch near that place.

TO RAISE MONEY FOR TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE.

New York, Jan. 17.—Gov. Hughes, Henry Watterson and Booker T. Washington addressed a large audience in Carnegie hall tonight in the interest of Tuskegee institute.

The meeting was arranged by the Armstrong association, its purposes being to launch a campaign of money raising for Tuskegee.

Beth Low, who presided, said Tuskegee was sorely in need of funds to continue its work, and it was imperative that $10,000 be given to the institution before May 31, next. Owing to the financial stringency the receipts of Tuskegee have fallen off $35,000 during the past seven months. Among the auditors the business and social life of the city was well represented.

In introducing Gov. Hughes, Chairman Low said that he presented a man too busy with his official duties to devote any attention to his personal interests, present or future, but not too busy to lend his aid in the cause of Tuskegee institute. This statement brought forth a demonstration seemingly participated in by every one in the vast audience, and it was some time before the governor's voice could be heard.

Gov. Hughes began by declaring that from a proper viewpoint the work done for "our fellow citizens of the black race" is for our own benefit as well, and essential to the interests of the people as a whole.

Henry Watterson said that though the white man seemed to have gotten along faster than his colored neighbor, both were creatures of evolution and education, and added:

"We have had no race war or serious race conflict in Kentucky. The feud-fists of the mountains, the riders of the tobacco belt, are whites, not blacks."

Ambassador Bryce, Cardinal Gibbons and former Gov. W. J. Northern of Atlanta, in letters, endorsed the work of Dr. Washington at Tuskegee.

CHINA ORDERS GUNS.

Paris, Jan. 17.—China has placed an important urgent order for 100,000 rifles in Paris. Whether the guns are purchased owing to the acute relations between China and Japan or on account of internal troubles in China is unknown here.

OKLAHOMA PROHIBITION BILL.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 17.—The house of representatives today passed the prohibition bill which carries a state dispensary provision. Dispensaries are to be established under the bill, in all cities of 2,000 and at all county seats.

TENANTS MAKE FORCIBLE RESISTANCE.

New York, Jan. 17.—Forcible resistance to the removal of tenants from an upper East Side landlord was trying to elicit, resulted today in the gathering of a crowd of 2,000 or more sympathizers in the neighborhood, who made so much trouble for the police that the precinct reserves were called out. During the rioting, four women and a number of men were taken into custody.

The riotous demonstrations began when city marshal and about 25 assistants visited the block on the south side of East Fortieth street, between First and Second avenues, with 80 process warrants for families who had unilaterally demanded reductions in rents of a dollar a month and had refused to pay the landlords' collector more than the new rate they had fixed. The taking out of the furniture from the rooms of the first family visited was the signal for an attack on the marshal and his men by scores of tenants.

The immediate purpose of the demonstration, however, was effected, the marshal deciding not to attempt the serving of more dispossession warrants at the time. He said he probably would make another attempt tomorrow, when further trouble is expected.

INSPECTOR JUSTIFIES SHOOTING AT EDITOR.

New Orleans, Jan. 17.—Inspector of Police Edward S. Whitaker, who was today suspended, with five of his detectives, held the shooting of the editor of the Morning World last night, says he believed himself justified in resenting the abuse Leveque had heaped upon him in his paper.

Edward F. Roberts, a copy reader, was today identified as the young man who probably saved the editor's life. The inspector of police is a large man, being considerably over six feet and weighing over 200 pounds, but Roberts, who is a little fellow, succeeded in getting to him and preventing his aim from being true.

The inspector and his five detectives who figure in the shooting, were arraigned today. All pleaded not guilty and bail was furnished. The charge is shooting with intent to kill.

SNELL WILL CASE DELAYED.

Clinton, Ill., Jan. 17.—The illness of United States Judge W. D. Cochran today halted the suit to set aside the will of Col. Thomas Snell. It is reported tonight that when the trial resumes, Judge Cochran will order all spectators and reporters excluded from the courtroom while the letters are being read.

MAIL CARRIER CONFESSES TO COMMITTING ROBBERY.

Marysville, Cal., Jan. 17.—R. W. Harwood, who was beaten insensible while driving the United States mail wagon last Tuesday night from the Southern Pacific depot to the postoffice, made a confession today to Postoffice Inspector Coyne and the city marshal. He said he was implicated in the robbery, and that he and Joe Reilly had planned it on Thanksgiving day. He stated that he and Reilly had made preparations three different nights, but each attempt was frustrated by teams following the wagon. Tuesday night Reilly wanted to rob the registered mail bag, but he (Harwood) objected, stating that it only contained about $600. Reilly, who had taken a man named Godfrey into his confidence, insisted that they rob the registered mail bag. Godfrey then, according to Harwood, divided the spoils. Harwood and Godfrey are now in jail here. The former will be taken to San Francisco tomorrow to stand trial. Reilly has not yet been located, but he is believed to be on his way to Sacramento.

CHLOROFORMED AND ROBBED.

Whole Family Drugged, Burglars Getting $1,650 in Cash.

New York, Jan. 18.—Burglars chloroformed the seven members of Herman Gaugher's family in their home in Twenty-second street and carried away $1,650 in cash and Gaugher's watch worth $75. Gaugher had no use for banks and so sewed up his money in the lining of his vest. After chloroforming the members of the family, while asleep, burglars ripped the sewing in the vest and got away with the money. Shortly afterwards the seven members of James Bergin's family, who live in Twenty-first street, were also chloroformed. The burglars here only secured a watch and chain and $14 in money.

POE CENTENARY.

Prize of $500 for Best Poem, by Non-Professional, Memorializing It.

New York, Jan. 18.—The Poe International Centenary society, formed to arrange for a celebration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Edgar Allan Poe, Jan. 19, 1809, has decided to offer a prize of $500 for the best poem memorializing Poe, written by a non-professional writer, preferably a college student. Poems must be submitted to the secretary of the society, William Hammett, 1222 Eighth street, Brooklyn, by May 1, 1909. The right to publish the accepted poem shall rest exclusively in the society. The society also proposed to preserve the Poe cottage at Fordham, New York, and to erect a memorial to the poet known as the American Pantheon in which may also rest memorials to other American authors, painters and actors.

RHEUMATISM BLOOD FILLED WITH URIC ACID

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the different muscles, nerves, bones and tissues of the body, and produces the inflammation and swelling of the joints and the sharp, cutting pains characteristic of the disease. When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it continually grows weaker and more acid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic, and not only a painful, but a formidable and dangerous disease. Sometimes the heart is attacked, the general health is affected, and the oils and fluids which lubricate the muscles and joints are destroyed by the acid matter which the blood is constantly depositing in them; the muscles shrink and lose their elasticity, the coating of the joints becomes hard and thick, and often the sufferer is left a hopeless cripple. S. S. S. attacks the disease at its head, goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing and removing the uric acid from the circulation and building up the thin, acid blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. changes the sour, acid-burdened blood to a rich, healthy stream which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing, painful muscles and joints, and filters out of the system the irritating matter which is causing the pain and
