NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Doctor and Police Justice Have a Deadly Encounter.

A WOMAN BRUTALLY MURDERED.

Meadows Petition Praying for a Raise of the Liquor Licenses.—A Tramp Killed.

A monstrous petition has been presented to the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa county, Cal., praying it to raise the liquor licenses.

Over $30,000 in cash will be paid out in payments in San Francisco and surrounding country within the next three weeks. Colonel John C. Currier, United States pension agent, Monday paid out over $25,000 in cash in the pension office.

William Dayer, aged 22, was killed the other morning by a snake exhibit in Dayer & Co.'s store on Harrison Flat, Arizona. A lad returning twenty-five pounds of powder exploded as he began unwrapping to remove it. His arms and head were blown off, and part of his body was thrown into the hedges.

An unknown tramp attempted to get on the west-bound California express at the Tonkin village of Eagleson, N. M., on Tuesday midnight, but missed his footing and fell under the wheels, his left leg being horribly mangled. His cries attracted the attention of the conductor, who picked up the unfortunate and took him to Gallup. Just before he died he muttered something to the effect that his father was a banker somewhere in Michigan.

A convict named Perry made an effort to escape from the Ionia (Mich.) penitentiary a few days ago. He found a false shelf under the working bench in the carpenter shop and hid himself there. When the men were ordered at night he was missing and after two hours' search he was taken from his place of concealment. It was evident he had planned to wait until night and take chances on evading the guards in order to his liberty. Perry was set up from Muskegon county last spring for five years for breaking up a faro game.

Charlotte Felling, a German woman, eighty years old, was brutally murdered some time Tuesday night and robbed of $200 in gold, at Walla Walla, Wash. Her head had been beaten to a jelly while she was in her night dress. The body was discovered by her son, who came home from the theater about 2 o'clock in the morning. There were probably three of the fiends who knocked at the door, and the old lady, thinking the knock was from her son, unlocked it, when a rush was thrown over her head, preventing an outcry. There is no clue to the murderers.

In a vacant lot at Great Falls, Montana, says the Helena Independent, there is an old Concord stage coach which was to active service between Helena and Benton from 1872 up to the completion of the Manitoba road into Helena. Robert Vaughn bought it and intends to preserve it as a relic of the days when the whistle of a locomotive was unknown in those parts. It was made in 1862 for J. M. Peters of Great Falls and Gans & Kiely, then owners of the Helena and Benton stage line, and cost $600. It is an eleven-passenger coach, and in a few years will be a great curiosity.

On Tuesday the Pimas and Maricopa Indians had a dance on their reservation, south of Tempe, Ariz., and as usual, began with cocoa-flower newly, with the result that many there are times "very good Injuns." It was not known till the afternoon, when an Indian who was present lost some ponies the day and was forced to tell the truth. The Indians have a way of revenging murder by killing of the family that committed it. One Indian attempted to avenge his father, who was killed many years ago. He killed two of the opposite family, but in doing so got his own death wound.

On Tuesday night George Betts, son of ex-Public Administrator Betts, and an old resident of Denver, Col., aged 25, shot himself in the left breast at the house of his mother. The bullet was fired from a thirty-two caliber revolver, entered near the nipple and ranged upward and backward and has not yet been found. The wound is not believed to be fatal. Betts for more than two years has been keeping company with Miss Jessie Paterson, an estimable young lady. During this time he has no visible means of support, and Miss Paterson a short time ago informed him that unless he went to work she would have nothing more to do with him. He wanted a week and she cut short his stipend large. About 8:30 Tuesday night he met her at the door of her residence and asked a private interview. This she refused to grant. He then informed her that without her he would end his life and that his heart was broken. She gave him no encouragement and so he left to commit a parting act, which she refused. He went at once to his home and fired the shot into his body.

What will finally terminate in a fatal shooting affray took place at Fort Apache, Ariz., on Tuesday. The principals are Dr. F. H. Herrick and Judge S. P. Carnot. The latter is a justice of the peace and police judge. Some time ago Fort Bliss, a girl of questionable reputation, gave Herrick $50 which was stolen. The money Bliss said was wanted was passed by Carnot for the arrest of Herrick for removing stolen goods. Through the influence of a Mrs. Blackwood, to whom Herrick was paying marked attentions at the time, and whom he is a married woman, a stay of proceedings was secured. Bad blood has been brewing ever since, the wives of the two principals taking a hand in the quarrel. On Tuesday Herrick met Carnot on the street, and after a few words, struck him over the head with an iron weapon, nearly fracturing his skull. A struggle ensued Herrick shot his arm, and Carnot pulling his gun, shot Herrick through the right lung. The shooting occurred on the camping ground. Herrick's parents reside at Nashville, Tenn. Judge Carnot was long a resident in California, and belongs to the family of Carnot, of Washington city. He is not seriously hurt.

Treasure of the Winds.

Very few people know the importance of keeping the winds cool in warm weather. Actors and actresses tell us that if one of their number faints they pour cool water on their wrists. Athletes engaged in the performance of feats of endurance know that to relieve the wrists must be kept warm and in motion, and, use the general public will continue to be a nightmare to heavy coffee in the dog days, and vice versa why it is bad.

Taking off your gloves repeatedly is a thing of the same order and adds little more to temperature. Tight shoes, shoes of things, make the wearer feel in aggregate months, unless you have been known to faint from the same cause.—Exchange.

What Becomes of Our Rivers.

How water, commonly called impurity, is the life of a river, passes from the pores to the highest bed and evaporates is a problem not yet solved by the sages. It is known that the most, in most cases, is carried in the air, and that the rivers and lakes are supplied only, the form and lack moving power purposes. That is the extent of our knowledge of the matter. Beyond it more speculation and every theory advanced has failed to stand the test of experiment.—Exchange.

London's Gaslights.

There are at present something like 30,000 public gas jets in London. They average power is that of lamplights—that is to say, the total is equal to 15,000,000. Were these all clustered together and placed at a height of 7,000 feet, the resulting light would be seen for a distance of more than 100 miles.—London Tit-Bits.

MORE LOTS IN East Waterloo

At the remarkably low price of $150 per lot, one half cash, the other at the regular 4 per cent. Better times are in sight. A better feeling has now come. The east and eastern capital MUST be appealed to. Outside capital will seek Utah investments; several large syndicate companies are now formed, and thousands of acres of rich land will be subdivided—hundreds of new homes will be added to our Territory. Utah is in its infancy, her population will rapidly increase, wealthy people are seeking our genial climate for homes, they are pleased with the beauty of our surroundings and the enterprise of our people.

Strangers appreciate our advantages, why should we not?

If you will call we will add more, which space here will not permit.
