Floating Sensations Culled from the Leading Exchanges.

Helena Journal.—It is currently reported that Jay Gould, during his coming visit to Helena, will hint, but not the matter of extending the Union Pacific system so as to give it a direct entrance into Helena over its own lines. Over ten years ago the Union Pacific began to build from a point on the Utah and Northern in the direction of Helena. The line was graded for thirty miles up to Jefferson Compound and within eighty miles of Helena, when work was stopped. Two years later the Northern Pacific made its way here and got control of the freight business. It is believed that the Union Pacific people now see their mistake in not completing their line to Helena, and the eighty remaining miles of the contemplated road will be finished.

Blackfoot News.—The Washington Post of May 25th contains the following special from Boise City, which we copy in the News today: "If Mr. Clagett were a democrat. It is not believed that all the principles of law be could evaden would avail him, but he has been a life republican, and more than twenty years ago was the first delegate of that party elected to Congress from Montana. Mr. Dubois has always expressed himself in favor of the Force bill, while Mr. Clagett has been opposed to it. For this reason the democratic State central committee held a meeting about three weeks ago endorsing Mr. Clagett, which it is presumed will have its influence upon members of that party in the senate, while Republicans who opposed the bill, particularly those on the Pacific coast, are believed to be favorable to Clagett. At all events the opinion seems to be gaining ground that Mr. Dubois will lose his seat."

Special to the San Francisco Ex.—Tucson, A. T., June 12.—Morgan Zollinger, a discharged section boss of the Southern Pacific, has been arrested for placing ties on the track for the purpose of wrecking a train, and sent to jail at Phoenix. Six months ago he completed a three years' sentence at Chester, Illinois, for counterfeiting.

San Francisco Chronicle.—Joseph, alias "Alex." Powers was arrested last night near Howard and Fifth streets by Officer Cody after a lively chase. He is charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, but he will also have to answer to an additional charge of attempted robbery in court this morning. Powers is an ex-convict, having served one term in the house of correction and another at Folsom. He was released from the latter place only a short time ago. On the night of May 1st Powers entered the grocery store of Mrs. Olsen, on Ringold street, near Ninth, and finding the woman alone smashed the windows and broke up the furniture. He swaggered around, as officers were unable to find him. The next night he walked into the store of Florence Driscoll, at 486 Ringold street, with another boodum saloon frequenter, and ordered the proprietor to hand over what money he had in the drawer or about his person. Driscoll showed fight and Powers struck him twice with a scale weight, knocking him down and severely cutting his head. Mrs. Driscoll then came to her husband's assistance and the attacking pair ran away. The officers made a diligent search for Powers, but he managed to keep out of their clutches. Last Thursday Powers' mother was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and Officer Cody took her in the station in the patrol wagon. Powers was an observer of the proceedings, and as the wagon was passing the corner of Harrison and Langton streets he threw a brick which narrowly escaped the driver's head and crashed through the window of a saloon opposite. Last night Powers was seen loafing about a city block on Howard and Fifth streets by Officer Cody, and after a chase of a block the latter effected his capture.

Deer Lodge Enterprise.—Charles Clark, sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for assault with intent to do bodily harm, and Thomas Murphy, sentenced to one year for burglary, and both awaiting transfer from the county jail to the prison, escaped from custody Tuesday afternoon and are now at large. They effected their delivery by first cutting out of the iron cage. This gave them access to the corridor, from which they escaped through one of the north windows. A run of only a short distance from the jail gave them cover in the heavy growth of willows in Lorabbe's addition, and their escape was not discovered for several hours.

The blood-hounds from the penitentiary were brought into requisition, but for some reason they could not take the trail and the chances are the prisoners have made good their escape, unless they should be foot-hardy enough to lay up in any of the larger towns of the State. Sheriff Quigley, it is understood, will offer a reward of $100 each for their apprehension.

Omaha Herald.—Des Moines, Iowa, June 15.—A stabbing and shooting affray occurred on the grounds of the holiness camp meeting, a suburb of Des Moines, about midnight last night, which resulted in the death of Fred Kemp, a boy 15 years of age, and the wounding of Charles Donman and John Jones. The two latter were arrested, as were also George Kemp and John Grover. Acting under the advice of counsel none of the prisoners would talk except Jones, who declares that the affair was the result of his coming to the defense of a boy whom the others were beating. Guns and knives were drawn promiscuously, but it was agreed to drop the matter, but on his way home he was again set upon by the crowd. He was struck on the head with a club and with brass knuckles. He then drew a razor and began to slash promiscuously. Fred Kemp was cut across the neck, severing his spinal cord from the effects of which he died today. Donman's upper lip was severed and Jones carries a gun shot wound in his cheek. He declares that he acted in self-defense.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. Regular size, 50c. and $1.00.
