SECOND EDITION.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1892.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

COUNTY CLERK ALLEN issued a marriage license today to [illegible] [illegible], aged 27, and Edmunda Hammer, aged 25, both of Salt Lake.

A NEW journalistic candidate for popular favor appears in the Spanish Fork Sun. It is a well printed six-column folio, with W. H. [illegible] and Andrew Jensen at the helm.

THE horse and buggy lost by R. J. Pilce, a mention of which recently appeared in the NEWS, have been recovered. They were "picked up" near the gentleman's residence after a two or three days' ramble in the neighborhood.

MRS. LOUISA DAVIS, who had a sixty pound ovarian tumor removed on May 12th, by Dr. Donge and assistants, is reported as doing finely, and today, the ninth day, the sutures were removed, showing union by first intention of the cut surfaces, and every day thereafter lessens her danger. She is comfortable, cheerful and has a good appetite. This, considering her age, over sixty, is quite unusual and reflects credit upon the surgical skill used.

Not Yet.

Up to 3:15 this afternoon the grand jury of the Third District Court had not presented their final report.

Y. M. M. I. A.

The officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. of Salt Lake Stake, who have not forwarded their yearly report are requested to do so at once. Address Joseph H. Felt, Z. C. M. I., Salt Lake City.

Probate Court.

Orders made by Judge Bartch this forenoon:

Estate of W. W. Platt, deceased; order made confirming sale of real estate.

Estate of H. W. Halvorsen, deceased; order made to take depositions.

THE BOGUS DEMOCRATS.

They Assemble in Odd Fellows' Hall and Organize.

THE ATTENDANCE ONLY FAIR.

Col. Ferry Airs His Grievance Against The Regular Committee.—Ideas on Parliamentary Rules, Etc.

"Are you a Tuscarora?"

"No, I am a Democrat."

This scrap of conversation occurred at the entrance to Odd Fellow's Hall between two persons who had come to witness the proceedings there today; and although it was fifteen minutes past the announced time for the disturbance to begin, there were no signs of it. The question and answer are given because they represent the feelings of a good many others, and are highly suggestive.

About this time, however, other "braves" with striped sunshades and two bands had formed on upper Main street and were marching down to the improvised wickiup, followed and escorted by the usual heterogeneous street-lining.

The hall is in the southern side of the lower floor of the Odd Fellows building and was profusely decorated with flags of different sizes, in which respect the bogus Democrats put their Republican brethren to shame. In the centre of the south wall was a painting representing a semi-nude savage, and above this a streamer containing the words in large letters—"We are the Straight Democrats." The platform was on the west side, and above it was another streamer containing the inscription—"Our country above all."

The attendance, both as to delegates and spectators, was about the same as at the so-called Republican gathering in the Theatre on Wednesday last, showing how the two run along parallel in more ways than one.

At 1:30 "Boss" Powers, who was evidently becoming restive and wanted to be seen and heard, arose and announced that those who wished to become members would have an opportunity to do so during recess. The announcement did not cause a stampede, not even a flurry.

Immediately Col. W. M. Ferry ascended the platform and was well received. A delegate moved three cheers for him, "the noblest Roman of them all." These were given with a will, and then the ex-defeated chairman picked up a gavel of huge proportions and whacked it down upon an unoffending tumbler, causing an immense amount of laughter. He soon recovered his bearings, however, and struck the right place, bringing the aborigines to order. He then went on to speak his little piece, saying, in substance, that he extended a welcome as a member of the national committee to those whom he recognized, individually and collectively, as the stalwart representatives of the genuine Democracy of Utah. (War whoops.) "It is the greatest, grandest and noblest purpose that ever fell to the lot of freemen to prepare for the great campaign of November, and then to go forth with your ballots and cast them for men of your choice. A year ago I attended a meeting here assembled to consider a proposition which came from those who had been our enemies. It was to this effect: That whereas, conditions having changed, therefore resolved that the Liberal party disband. This proposition was referred to a committee for consideration and the majority reported in favor of it. A minority report, prepared by Joseph M. Cohen, was presented, this declaring that the movement was simply a ruse of the "Mormon" Church. (More whoops.) I spoke in support of the minority report and offered two resolutions—one that the chairman appoint a committee to consult with a like committee of Republicans, they to meet, consider and report; the other was that a mass convention of Democrats of the Territory be called to consider the matter. Neither of these propositions was entertained and the majority report was adopted."

The colonel then, having prepared the ground, sailed in on the recent scene in the Constitution building, when he and his fellow warriors were denied recognition. "I demanded that the records be produced and read, but this was refused and we were given no satisfaction at all. None of us had left the Territory, none had resigned, yet we were not recognized. The spirit of 'Mormonism' had entered into that committee. We, who constituted a majority of the committee, then went out, held another meeting, and called this convention, which is the reason I am here today."

This ebullition was received by the redskins with general satisfaction, and after secretary Duke had read the call for the convention, Mr. Ferry presented the name of C. B. Glenn for temporary chairman and E. T. O'Brien for temporary secretary.

Warrior Glenn took the platform amid many noises from his fellows, and proceeded to deliver his war-talk, which had been imperfectly committed, it being profusely punctuated with hesitation, efforts to remember and picking up dropped rhetorical stitches. His modulations pointed in brigandish style to every segment of the empire, and when he gave vent to what he must have thought a clincher—such as calling those elected at the Ogden convention "mugwumps" and predicting that the dusky delegates would march triumphantly to the Chicago convention and victoriously out—they (the braves) kicked around in the ambient air and kept a sort of time-beating to the outpouring going on just beneath them. He announced in pathetic terms that the great question of exempting labor from the grinding pressure of monopoly elsewhere, and so on, would be waived here and they only asked that "we be left a short time longer to settle our own issues here." (Howls and other demonstrations of approval). He called the regular Democratic committee "usurpers," and sat down.

But Glenn's oratorical timber, shaky as it was, was not a "marker" to his procedure in the chair. On one occasion, a delegate moved an amendment to an amendment, whereupon the chair gravely announced that his ruling was that "the gentleman couldn't do that." This was received with yells of laughter and derision, the confusion continuing for fully a minute. Another time he ruled, "there being no second, the motion is out of order." An amendment having been carried, he proceeded to act upon the amendment, leaving the original motion to perish by the wayside, and so on.

The following committees were then appointed, after considerable wrangling:

Credentials—Morris Somers, Salt Lake county; D. P. Tarpey, Salt Lake county; A. J. McLaughlin, Summit county; F. B. Devale, Weber county; H. G. Craighead, Emery county.

Permanent organization and order of business — Henry Shields, Summit county; E. D. Hoge, Salt Lake county; Walter Murphy, Salt Lake county; B. B. Lewis, Salt Lake county; R. B. Tone, Juab county; S. W. Mosby, Summit county; W. B. Wedell, Weber county.

Resolutions—Ogden Hiles, Salt Lake county; W. M. Ferry, Summit county; W. C. Hall, Salt Lake county; R. V. Armstrong, Weber county; J. Q. Packard, Juab county.

At 1 p.m. a recess was taken till 2:30.

HEAVY FIRE.

The "City of Paris" Millinery Store and its Surroundings Destroyed.

About 10:20 o'clock this morning, and when the wind was blowing briskly, the alarm of fire was sounded and it took but a little while to locate it. The scene of the trouble was in the City of Paris millinery store a short distance south of the Constitution building. The flames broke out in the rear and had gained some headway before the fire brigade arrived. When they did, Chief Stanton, who appeared to get excited, and another man climbed to the roof of the building. When they reached it the flames shot upward to a great height and as the breeze from the south stiffened they were carried northward and came near enveloping Major Stanton and his companion. They clambered northward over the roof of the adjoining building to a point of comparative safety, but it must have been extremely hot where they were perched. The major kept shouting for a ladder, but nobody seemed to respond for a considerable time. One was placed after a while, but it was a trifle short to admit of a convenient descent. The other man reached the ladder, however, and descended rapidly. The great crowd of spectators were somewhat hilarious at his appearance, as it was observed that the part of his pants on which he sits when resting was on fire. This fact showed how close Major Stanton and he had been to a dangerous position. The fire on the man's clothing showed that when hit by the flames his back was toward the foe—a natural attitude under the circumstances, as he was in a warm place.

After some misplay with the hose a couple of them were finally taken to the roof of the building north of the millinery store, and two streams played upon the burning structure. Meantime the fire had communicated to some extent to the establishment of Mr. Wanless, stove-dealer. One of the gentlemen connected with the firm of Little, Remedy & Co., thinking it was time to see to the protection of their premises, climbed to the roof and turned on a thread-like stream from a small hose. It was such a dribble that the spectators again indicated a disposition in the direction of hilarity. The gentleman with the small hose was all right, however, as he was acting on the old truism that "every little helps."

The total losses cannot at present be stated. The parties are making up the record with the insurance companies and to all inquiries an uncertain reply was given. The greatest loss was in the millinery store, which is roughly estimated by different persons at $2000 to $3000, and that of the others combined may equal that. The former is a total wreck, which makes the difference.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.

Ten Thousand People Homeless and 200,000 Acres of Grain Destroyed by the Flood.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED BY THE METHODISTS.

Railroad Wrecks.—The Relay Bicyclists Making Good Time.—London Paragraphs.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

THE FLOOD.

A Picture of Destruction Along the Mississippi.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—A trip by an Associated Press representative from this city to Cairo, revealed sad scenes of desolation. The river is ten to twenty miles wide, eating away homes, drowning stock, submerging farms. It is estimated that ten thousand people are homeless in this stretch of country alone, and that 200,000 acres of growing grain are destroyed utterly. A total famine is in prospect. The great American bottoms, comprising most of the Madison and St. Clair counties, one of the greatest potato fields in the Mississippi valley is entirely inundated and will not yield a single potato. The cabbage crop is also ruined. The newspapers and board of trade are soliciting subscriptions for the flood sufferers.

THE ARKANSAS RIVER.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 21.—The Arkansas river has passed the great rise of 1843 by more than a foot, and is now stationary. It will soon fall. For the first time in the history of the city, it is threatened with a water famine, the pump pits being filled with water and the pumps stopped.

At Redfield, twenty miles above, the banks are caving in. One cave carried down five persons to death. In all twenty-five or thirty persons are drowned. The countries adjacent to Plumb and Wattensaw Bayous, the finest quality of cotton lands is all under water.

THE HIGHEST SINCE 1880.

CAMDEN, Ark., May 21.—The Anachita river is the highest since 1880. All the low lands are under water, the floods lapping the hills on each side. The damage to crops is heavy.

TEXAS FARMERS RUINED.

PARIS, Tex., May 21.—The overflow is the greatest in years. Many farmers are ruined.

FARMS UNDER WATER.

KANSAS CITY, May 21.—The Missouri river is falling, but the Kaw is still rising near Independence, Mo. Two thousand five hundred acres of farms are under water.

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 21.—To add to the flood's damage, a cyclone passed south of this city causing devastation and desolation. The roadways are blocked by fallen trees, so it is impossible to get definite information, but it is known that houses and fences are levelled for miles. The wind was accompanied by excessively heavy thunder and great quantities of sand, though there was no dry sand within a hundred miles of here.

The Methodist Conference.

OMAHA, Neb., May 21.—Bishop Andrews presided at today's session of the Methodist conference. It was decided to elect two secretaries for the Freedman's Aid Society instead of one.

The report of the committee on the Epworth League was adopted. It provides for its government by a board of control of fifteen members, including one bishop, with local leagues, under the supervision of the annual conferences and executive offices of the league in Chicago.

Dr. J. C. Hartzell and Dr. C. M. Grandison were chosen secretaries of the Freedman's Aid Society.

Wreck on the Cotton Belt Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—News has been received here of a wreck on the Cotton Belt railroad last night, 350 miles south of this city, between Humphrey and Golden stations, in Arkansas. An irregular passenger train running contrary to orders, crashed into a freight. Much damage was done, the entire passenger train was ditched. Seven were killed and eighteen injured. Mrs. Henson, of Arkansas, is the only body identified. Other bodies are those of two women and one man. Engineer Peterson, of the passenger train, and a brakeman of the freight, are reported missing. Conductor Field, of the passenger, and Mrs. Henson's husband, are badly injured.

PARTIAL LIST OF VICTIMS.

The names of the dead as far as learned are: A. M. Swan, Jones, care man; one is believed to be James Morgan, Memphis; Mrs. Henson, wife of a railroad employe. There are two unidentified bodies of women, and one man missing, the fireman of one of the engines.

An official dispatch received at the headquarters of the Cotton Belt road states the number of killed as six and injured as eighteen. Owing to the demoralized condition of the wires it is impossible to get additional information.

The Relay Bicyclists.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 21.—The Relay bicyclists, bearing General Miles's message to General Howard, New York, are making up for lost time. Yesterday morning they were six and a half hours late. Batavia was reached at 1:20 this morning, two hours behind time. They reached Rochester at 4:20, one hour and three quarters late.

MAKING FAST TIME.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 21.—The bicycles left Clyde, N. Y., an hour late. They expect to reach there thirty minutes late.

A Fatal Railroad Accident.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—A collision between an engine and a passenger train on the Vandalia line near Greenville, this morning, wrecked both engines and a baggage car. Ed. Winn, the guard of the American Express company, was killed and Express Messenger Sharp seriously hurt. The passengers escaped uninjured.

Heavy Frost.

GALESBURG, Ills., May 21.—There was a heavy frost last night. Fruit and vegetables were badly damaged.

Hanged.

COVINGTON, Ga., May 21.—Seaborn Smith was hanged here for a criminal assault on a thirteen-year-old girl.

Snow in New York.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Snow to the depth of two to five inches has fallen in parts of this State and most of New England. The temperature is going in some places as low as twenty-six. Fruit and vegetables are seriously damaged.

To Prevent the Shipment of Laborers to Coeur d'Alene.

DULUTH, May 21.—At a meeting of the trades and labor assembly action was taken regarding the large number of men being shipped from and through here on the Northern Pacific to Coeur d'Alene, the scene of the mining strike, Idaho. The assembly will endeavor to prevent any more shipments. The employment agents here say they have already sent a large number to the mines. The original order, which called for 300 men, was increased to 1200, and now calls for 2000. They are being forwarded as rapidly as possible.

Fall of a Methodist Church.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—The roof of the First Methodist Protestant church fell in this morning, injuring seven workmen, two fatally. The building is being demolished.

Anarchy on Marshall Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Advices from Marshall Island say that the native king has been killed by his subjects. Anarchy reigns on the island.

London Paragraphs.

LONDON, May 21.—The lord mayor has opened a fund for the relief of the sufferers by the hurricane in Mauritius.

The village of Handley, Wiltshire, was destroyed by fire today, rendering 300 families destitute.

A dispatch from Teheran says the cholera is raging along the Afghan-Persian frontier, a distance of a hundred miles south of Meshed.

An Insolvent Ex-Mayor.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., May 21.—The Florence Kindergarten trustees have petitioned that ex-Mayor A. G. Hill be put into insolvency. The liabilities are $150,000 to $200,000. He owes Kindergarten and local banks alone $100,000 and many will suffer as endorsers. Hill went south two weeks ago, and has not returned home, though he is supposed to be in the State. Hill claims that he and Judge D. W. Bond, borrowed money of Kindergarten by the vote of the trustees to aid village enterprises, and that it was simply a mistake of judgment.

The Canadian Pacific.

TORONTO, May 21.—A cablegram to the Globe: The Canadian Pacific will issue 2,000,000 pounds sterling perpetual 4 per cent debentures at 101, to take up outstanding obligations, most of which bear a high rate of interest.

Death of Mrs. E. C. Pullman.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Mrs. E. C. Pullman, the mother of George M. Pullman, the sleeping car magnate, died here this morning.

Deeming's Hours Counted.

MELBOURNE, May 21.—Deeming, the wife murderer, will be hanged at 10 o'clock on Monday morning.

The French Dynamiters.

PARIS, May 21.—A dynamite cartridge has been found at the residence of Beaupaire, the public prosecutor, who prosecuted Ravachol.

A Murderous Prisoner Lynched.

MORRILLTON, Ark., May 21.—Cass Stewart, in jail in Perry county for rape, dashed out the brains of Deputy sheriff Holmes. A mob broke open the jail and took Stewart out and lynched him.

The International Silver Conference.

VIENNA, May 21.—The invitation to the international silver conference has embarrassed the finance ministers of Austria and Hungary, because it is strengthening the opponents of currency reform. Austria will follow Germany, but is disinclined to enter the conference. It is the belief here that the continuous fall in silver is a clever device of American silver kings to force the price so low that the Indian difficulty will compel England to cooperate with America to rehabilitate silver, and then to let the price rise high enough to compensate the speculators. Goschen's acceptance of the invitation is regarded as a trump card of the American "kings."

Dr. Steinbach, Austrian minister of finance, delivered a speech at a conservative meeting bearing on currency matters, which have been under discussion in the Reichsrath. He repudiated the idea that the government is accumulating gold for a war reserve, and said that he did not believe there was any danger of the formation of a gold ring.

Arrival of Hetherington.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The steamer "Oceanic" from China arrived this morning. She had on board Lieutenant Hetherington, U. S. N., who recently killed his wife's lover in China.

Belgium and the Monetary Conference.

BRUSSELS, May 21.—In the chamber of representatives a deputy asked the particulars of the coming international monetary conference, and advised the government to advocate a mono-metallism and gold standard. Beernaert, president of the council and minister of finance, said that Belgium, as well as Great Britain and France, had accepted the invitation to take part in the conference. Speeches were made by a number of deputies in which the government was urged not to take the initiative in presenting the question of bimetallism. In reply Beernaert said that the delegates would not be bound by the views adopted by the conference.

To Secure the Monopoly of the Pacific Coast Traffic.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A dispatch from Denver telegraphed that Jay Gould and C. P. Huntington have made a secret combination to secure the monopoly of the Pacific coast traffic.

MONEY FOR LAND.

MANY PERSONS WISH TO SELL THEIR land, but when they find a willing purchaser, the title to the claim is not perfected owing to the patent not having been obtained. Then the parties write to me in a great hurry and insist that the patent shall be issued in such a time, which cannot always be done. Why not let me get your patent through now, and send you the patent as soon as issued? Send me your land receipt or the number of your entry, and the address where you wish me to send the patent. I will attend to it promptly for you. Address: CHAS. W. STARKE,

Attorney at Law,

Box 471, Washington, D. C.

WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1. It is the Organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed, and given to the Saints.

2. It may always be relied upon as advocating or defending the right side of every question proper for public journals to treat upon.

3. It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints and has, from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe; and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligation to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4. It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing, the profits, if any there be derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness, and benefiting the community.

5. It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper making and type-founding, stereotyping and electrotyping — branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in this Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6. There is no danger of any subscriber to the NEWS failing to get what he subscribes for through failure of the business and a suspension of the publication—a result in the case of hundreds of newspaper ventures every year.

7. It is now printed throughout in new and readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eye-sight.

8. It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that no parent need fear that his children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it refuses thousands of dollars worth of that best paying advertisements annually, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9. Its tone is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results, financial or otherwise.

10. It never nauseates its readers by palming off columns of self-praise as news items.

11. The NEWS practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuges to induce people to subscribe, but on the contrary, prefers to stand on its own merits as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give its patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12. In conclusion, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one newspaper, that paper should be the DESERET NEWS; and if more than one, the NEWS should invariably be the first.
