PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - SEPT. 27, 1894.

"RIOT" CASES DISMISSED.

No Intentional Wrong in Sympathizing With Carter's Army.

Charles W. Smith, George Lee, Thomas Leonard and E. O. Anderson were at the depot at Provo city on the 11th of last May, when "General" Carter's army arrived on a stolen U.P. train. The officers claimed that the parties mentioned sympathized too vivaciously with the army, and they were indicted by the grand jury at Nephi last spring, for that. Prosecuting Attorney Thurman asked to have the case dismissed for the reason that the defendants were good, law-abiding citizens, and that he did not care to prosecute the case as he considered that whatever wrong was committed was at a time of great excitement, and not with any intent to break the law. The case was dismissed.

OTHER COURT BUSINESS.

W. H. Davis has commenced suit against Dutrow Bros. at Westwater, to collect $208.50 with interest from March, 1893. Four hundred dollars of this amount is on a promissory note.

Andrew Nielsen, of Mount Pleasant, was tried under section 2292 of the statutes of Utah for driving a sheep herd into range, near Castle Dale, Emery county, on the 5th of January, 1894. The evidence for the prosecution was to the effect that defendant had driven his band of sheep with a herd of some six or seven hundred head from the fields of Castle Dale, a distance of about twenty miles. He was held by one of the witnesses that the sheep did not belong to him, but made no effort to cut them out. The witnesses testified that he had used due diligence in cutting out strays, and that he did not know these two animals did not belong to some of the parties who owned the herd he was driving.

The case was appealed from the justice's court in Castle Dale.

A verdict of acquittal was rendered.

A jury was impaneled in the case of the United States vs H. G. White, adultery. Mr. White is living in Springville and is accused of committing the crime with Ethel Rose, of Benjamin.

Arthur Brown informed the court that the plaintiff in the case of The American Eagle Mining Co. vs V. T. Cuyras, would pay defendants the $200 which Judge King ordered to be paid in granting a continuance of the case till October 22nd, and the case was set for that date.

The case of the United States vs Anna Hagin, making false entries, set for October 8th, was, upon motion of United States Prosecuting Attorney Judd, set for November 12th.

NEW CITIZENS.

Certificates of citizenship were issued to the following aliens: Wm. Walker, John H. Archer, Ebenezer Ellis, Clement Grove, James A. Harrison, Curtis Gates, Hermann Jacobson, Frederick C. Hansen, Olof H. Olson, Frederick C. Kinzer, Christian Christensen, Provo.

Sheriff Baras's Murderers.

Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, of Sanpete county, who was in the city yesterday, wrote Governor West asking him to offer a reward for Redford and Mickle, alias Peterson, the murderers of Sheriff Baras, of Sanpete county. He also wired the county court of Sanpete county advising them to call an extra session and offer a reward for the capture of the murders. Mr. Johnson received a telegram yesterday, from Spring City, which stated that James Peterson had met the murderers and that Mickle was wounded. Mr. Johnson thinks that if one of them was wounded it must have been done by some of the posse in pursuit, and his opinion is that if the posse ever got near enough to shoot the fugitives would not have any opportunity to escape.

Notes.

The Republicans of this city held their primaries Wednesday evening and elected delegates to the county convention to be held in Payson on the 29th.

W. F. Ward and G. M. Richards, students of the B.Y. Academy, desired to register for the coming election. Registrar Miller informed them that their residence was still at their former home (Kane county) and that they would have to submit proof that they were bona fide residents of Provo. They succeeded in doing so and were registered.

The registered voters of Provo at the last election numbered 1,133. There are now registered over 1,200 and there are still nearly 100 qualified voters who have not yet registered but who are expected to do so.
